a time to Speak;
a time to Keep Silence

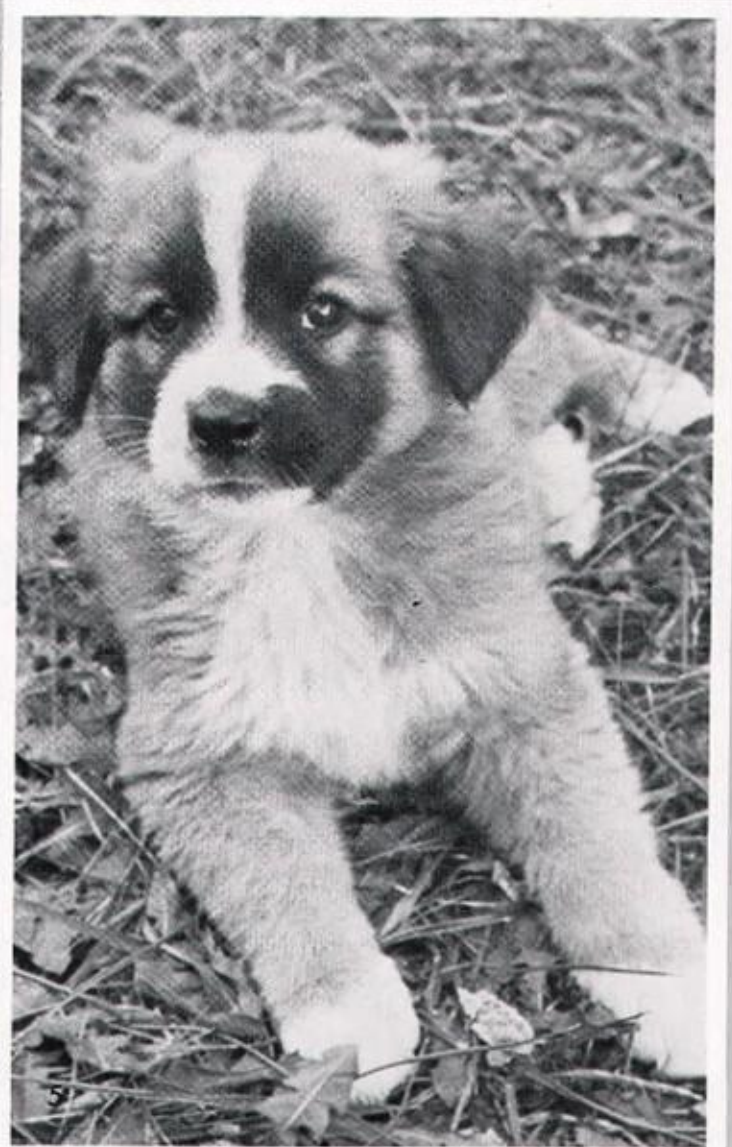

a time to love, and a time to hate . . .
a time of War, and a time of peace . . .

1 - Pam Carpenter looks on as Jackie Watts snoozes during their lunch period. 2 - "Peace," says Matthew Sando as he leaves his English II CP class. 3 - Robbie Westerfield and Jerome Silva anxiously await the start of the second half, as Scott Weaver runs out for the toss of the coin. 4 - Carmen Fought attempts to silence a noisy Josephine Marquez as an undisturbed Lorraine George types on. 5 - Swedish foreign exchange student Mike Lundstrum unveils his vicious Viking look, as he portrays the Viking mascot. 6 - A poster in Mr. Jim Brown's room portrays a scene from the American Revolutionary War. 7 - Ms. Mary Margaret Rhodes enthusiastically lectures her English 10 CP class on the virtues of being "a responsible person." 8 - Vikette Carla Atencio dances to the music of the Valley marching band during half-time at the Valley-Del Norte game. 9 - A Saga photographer captures Valley students through the window of Ms. Jane Murphey's room as they gather during a mid-morning passing period.

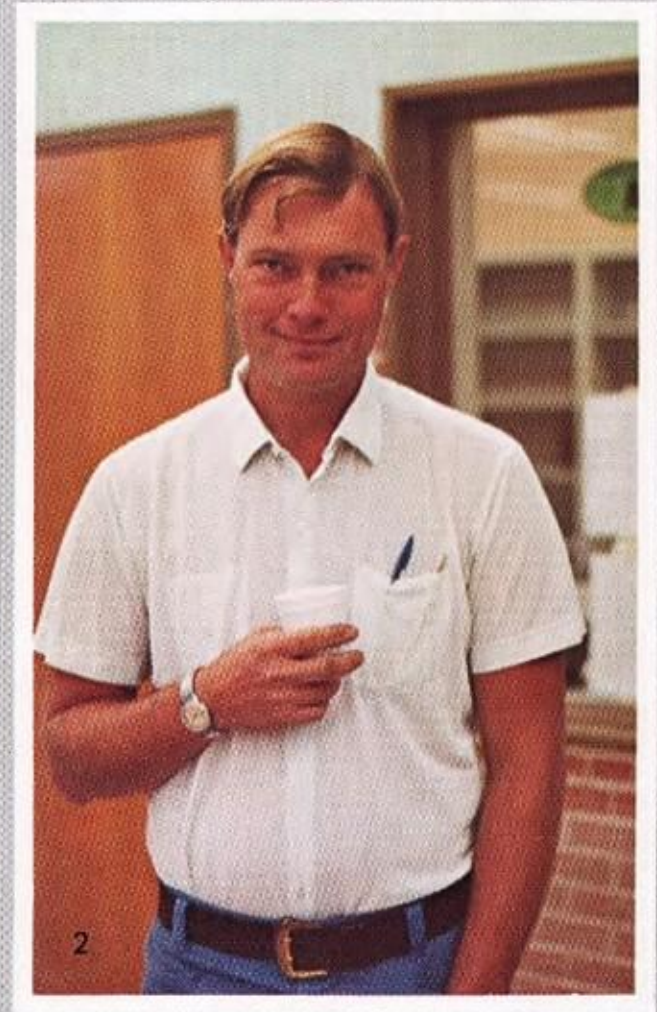

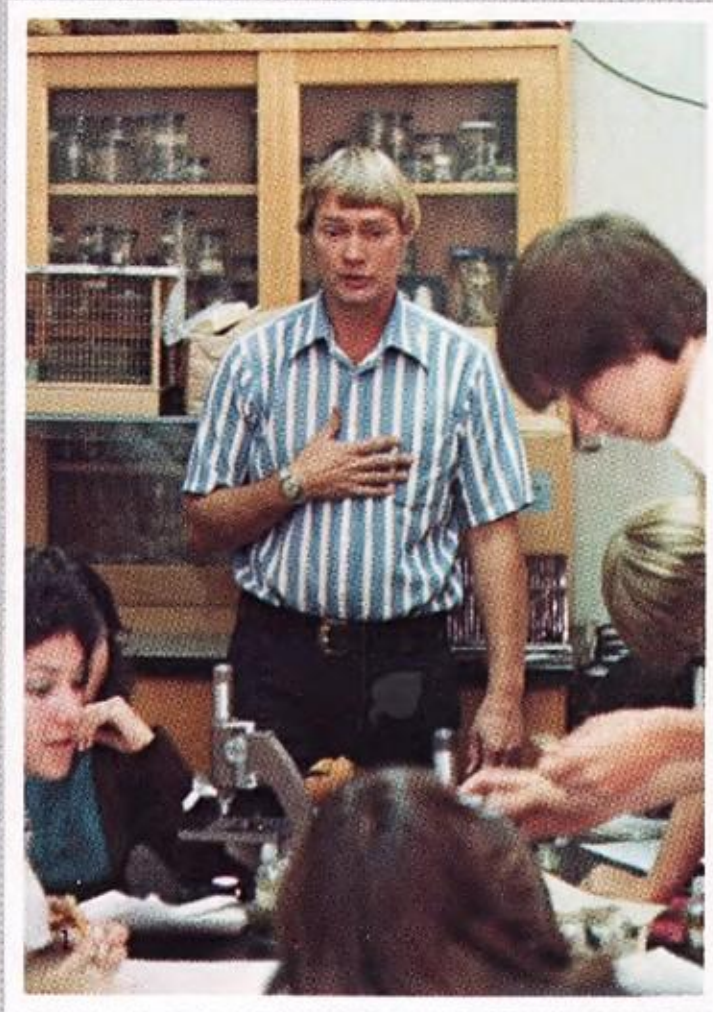

And a Time to Remember

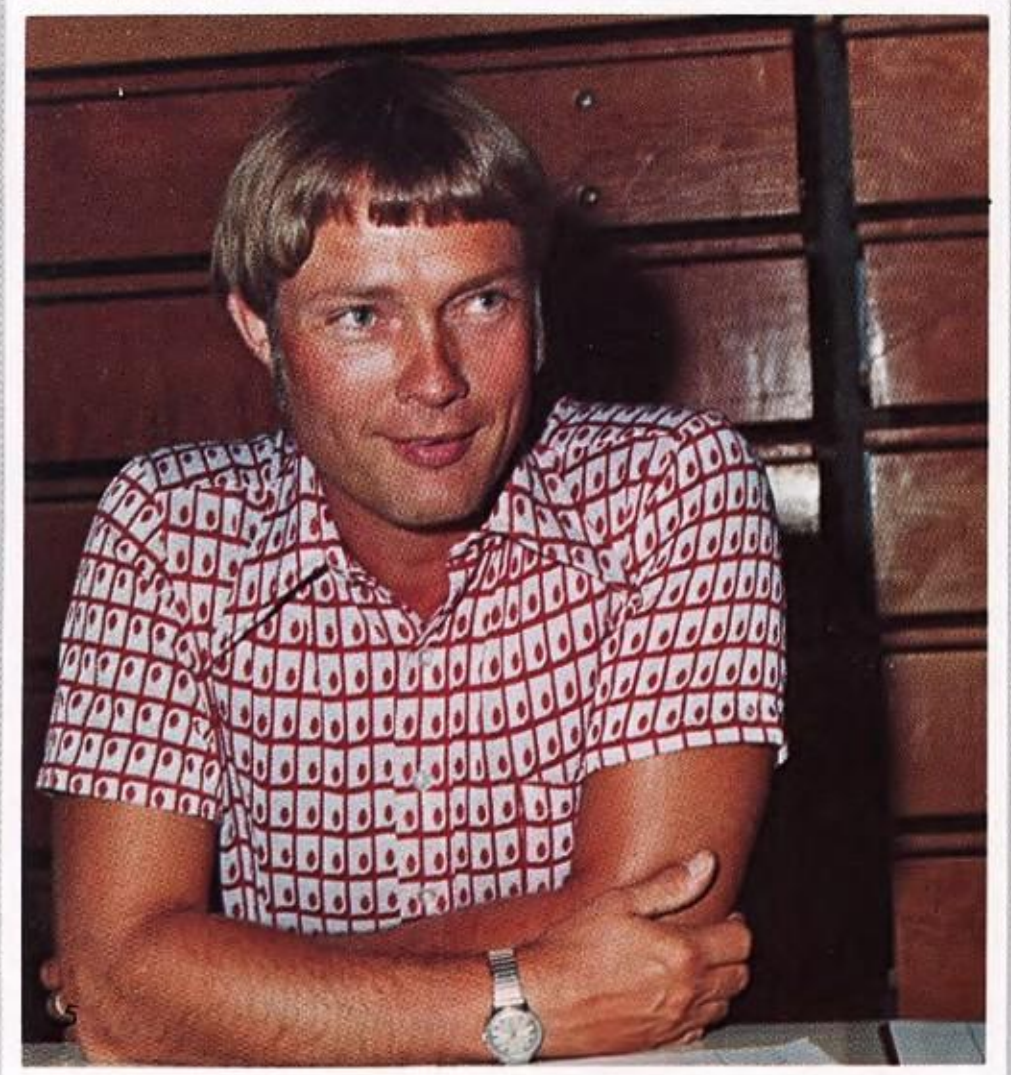

1 - Ms. Lois Morris regulates a steady flow of students through the attendance office. 2 - Lisa McIlhaney keeps the crowd enthusiastic during the Del Norte game. 3 - After her testimony in the mock trial Mr. Ewing's government class put on, Lisa Farmer is led away. 4 - Debbie Branda is caught glaring at a good looking guy in class. 5 - McKeever, a campus "visitor," strikes a leisurely pose between classes. 6 - Ms. Hays tells of up-coming events during a morning assembly. 7 - The Fourth Street McDonald's is "our kind of place". 8 - Students from Valley and Griegos Elementary rush to see a hot-air balloon as it lands in the Griegos playground.

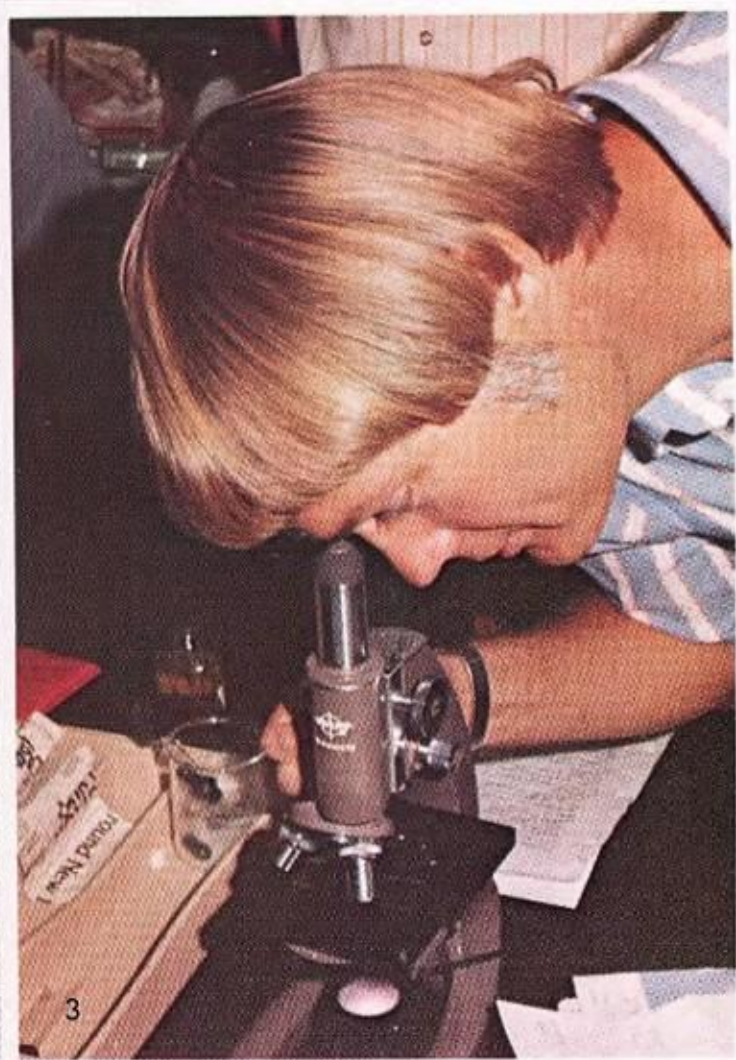

Staff Dedicates Book to Gruner

Combining a rapier-like wit with a keen intellect, Mr. Mike Gruner manages to be one of the best and most popular teachers on campus. His classes in biology and zoology are always filled with students who, though they may not be eager at first, do learn a great deal.

Mr. Gruner came to Valley in 1965 after having been a policeman for a number of years. He received a Bachelor of Science and a Master of Arts in Teaching Science degrees from the University of New Mexico. He is married and has three children.

1 - "You weren't paying attention when I explained the first time," Mr. Gruner tells one of his sophomore Biology I students, "so why should I explain again?" 2 - Grabbing a quick cup of coffee in the cafeteria before school, Mr. Gruner contemplates the day ahead. 3 - Mr. Gruner checks a student's work under the microscope. 4 - Members of the Biology I class look on as Mr. Gruner hands "Adolph," the boa constrictor, to Joe Snowden. 5 - Flashing that famous "Gruner Grin," Mr. Gruner waits for students to register for his classes at the fall "big barn" registration. 6 - Mr. Gruner watches his students work on a lab.

Summer Sparks Enthusiastic Students With Fun, Leisure, Work

Summer? A vacation? Says who? During the summer, preparation for the coming year was already in full swing. Many students had summer jobs, went on vacations, and just had a good time, but many more students were looking ahead to their '76'77 year at Valley High.

Athletic teams were involved in summer programs to condition themselves for the coming football, basketball, baseball, swimming, and tennis seasons.

The Homecoming plans were already underway. Meetings were held once a week in homes of members of the committee.

The Varsity-six had a very busy summer. They attended a clinic at UNM for a week and got their program together for their 76-77 year.

Twelve students and sponsors, from Valley, went on a European study tour to occupy their summer time

1 - Gail Saavedra passes her summer time selecting books from the library. 2 - Leonard Roybal plays a little "round ball" to stay in condition for the upcoming season. 3 - With the Renaissance city of Florence in the background, Ms. Sharon Ball exhibits a mixture of exhaustion and pride after having climbed the 400 stairs to the top of the dome of the Cathedral. 4 - Darrell Powell works on his butterfly stroke at the Valley pool. 5 - First place city league softball team, Hot Stuff, players are bottom row Susan Garcia, Vicki Peacock, Gloria Griego, Nettie Gutierrez, Kathy Lamkin; top row Assistant Coach Mark Salazar, Shirley Salazar, Pearl Chavez, Renee Beach, CeCe Griego, Mercy Montoya, Margaret Juarros, and Head Coach, Jerry Chavez. 6 - A balloon silently floats over the school on a cool summer morning. 7 - Ms. Barbara Salazar-Jaynes enjoys her nice, big ice cream sundae on a hot day in Florence, Italy. 8 - Clutching his "trip journal," Alain Archuleta catches a few moments of sleep on the bus trip from Rome to Florence. 9 - On a mid-summer afternoon, Mercy Montoya scarfs at McDonald's. 10 - Many Viking students and faculty "resorted" to McDonald's for their summer breaks.

Students Try "Big Barn" Registration for Second Year

"Big barn" registration, football, volleyball, and cross-country made September exciting. The first win of the football season was the Viking victory over Belen, 27-22.

Debbie Branda, a three-year varsity volleyball player, was one of the outstanding players of September, as well as the season.

The State Fair parade and a visit from the Chihuahua Band added special highlights to the month. Both the marching band and Vickettes marched in the parade.

The Chihuahua Band arrived September 18, just in time for the Valley-Belen game. September also got the sophomores off to a good start with B-team cheerleader tryouts. Chosen were Kim Blachly, Susan Sandoval, Theresa Garcia, Delfina DeLeon, Troyce Sisneros, Troylyn Sisneros.

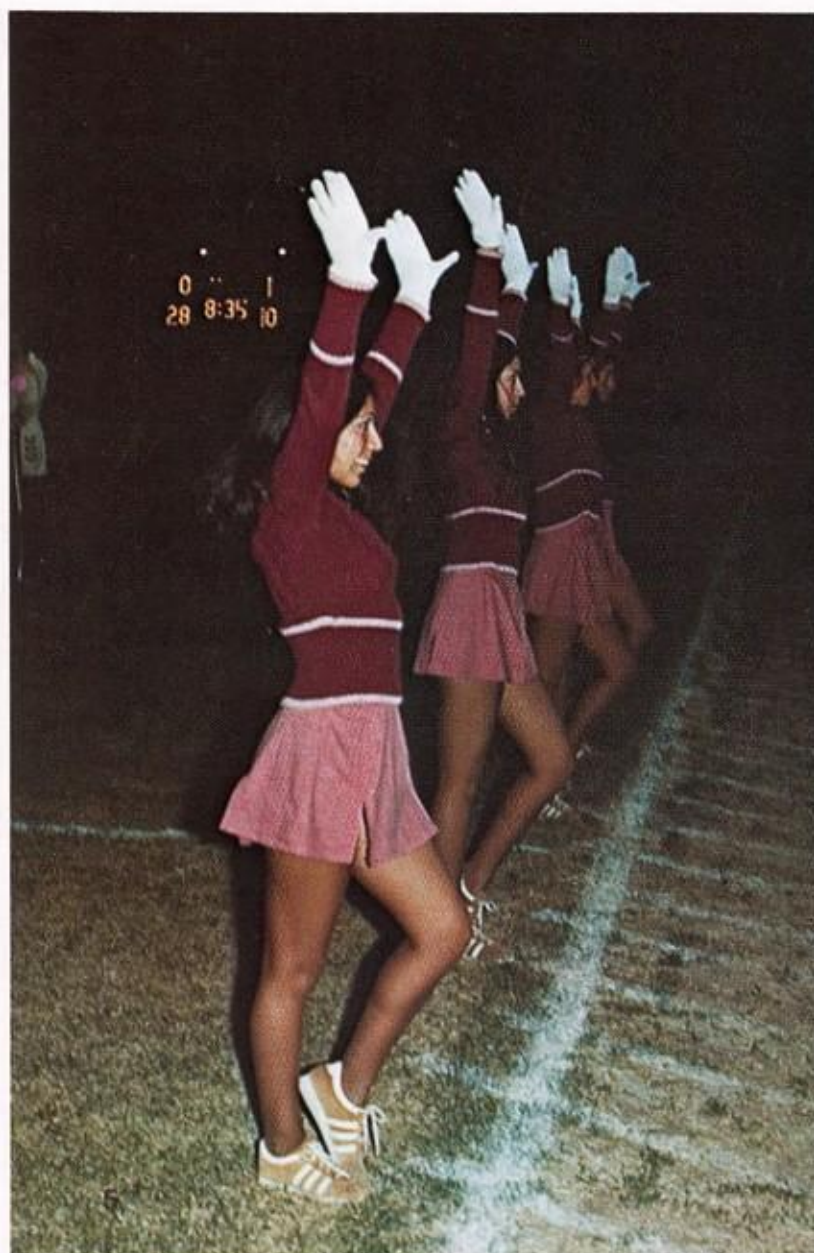

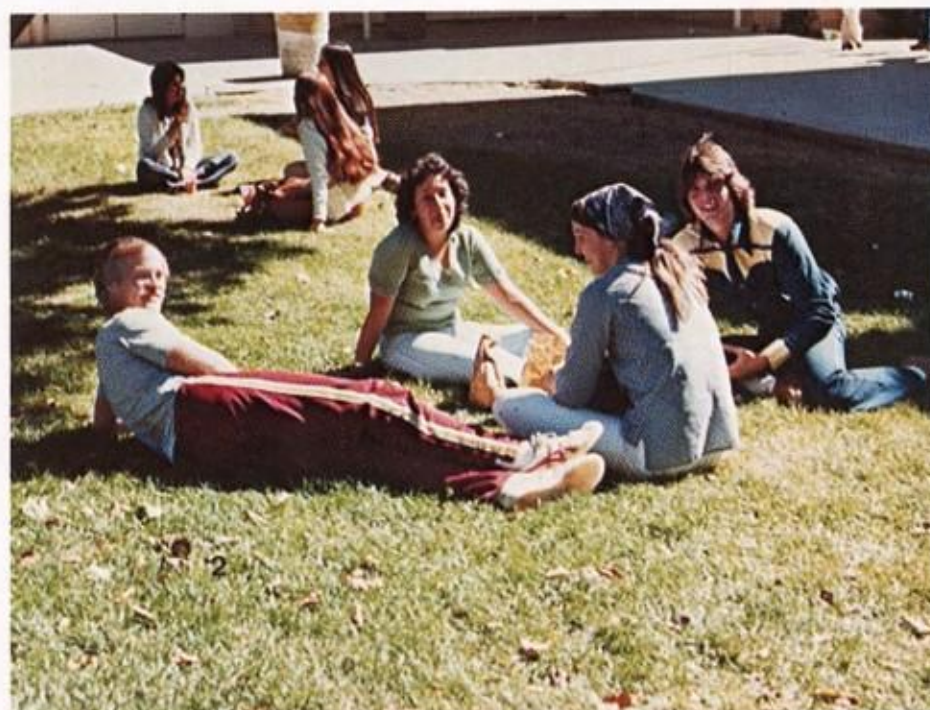

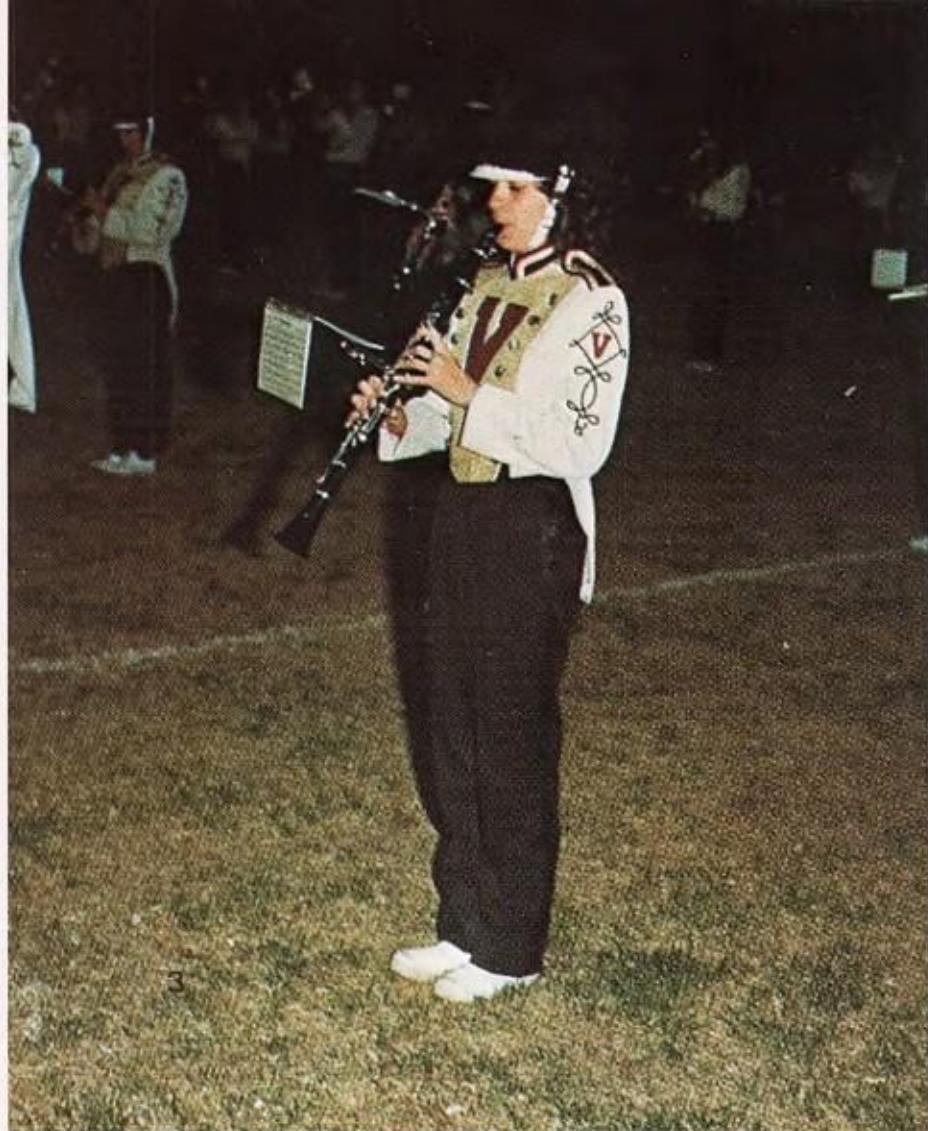

1 - Practicing after school, Viking football players hope for a victorious season. 2 - Vikettes precede the marching band as they participate in the annual State Fair parade. 3 - Using a break in registration, Ms. Lasell Rector, Psychology teacher, writes the names of her new students in her record book. 4 - Student Body President Lee Keller assists during registration by taking student ID pictures. 5 - Ms. Sharon Ball, who teaches Saga, as well as journalism and English, listens attentively to students seeking information. 6 - Band drummers march down Central during the State Fair parade. 7 - Terry Rocco, sophomore, tries out for B-team cheerleader at the first assembly of the school year. 8 - Students from our sister city Chihuahua, Mexico, arrive September 18 just in time to root for the Vikings at the Valley-Belen game. 9 - Viking Harriers get off to a good start at the cross country meet at the airport course. 10 - Senior, "netwoman" Debbie Branda warms up for the first game of the girls volleyball season.

October Highlighted by Win Over Rio

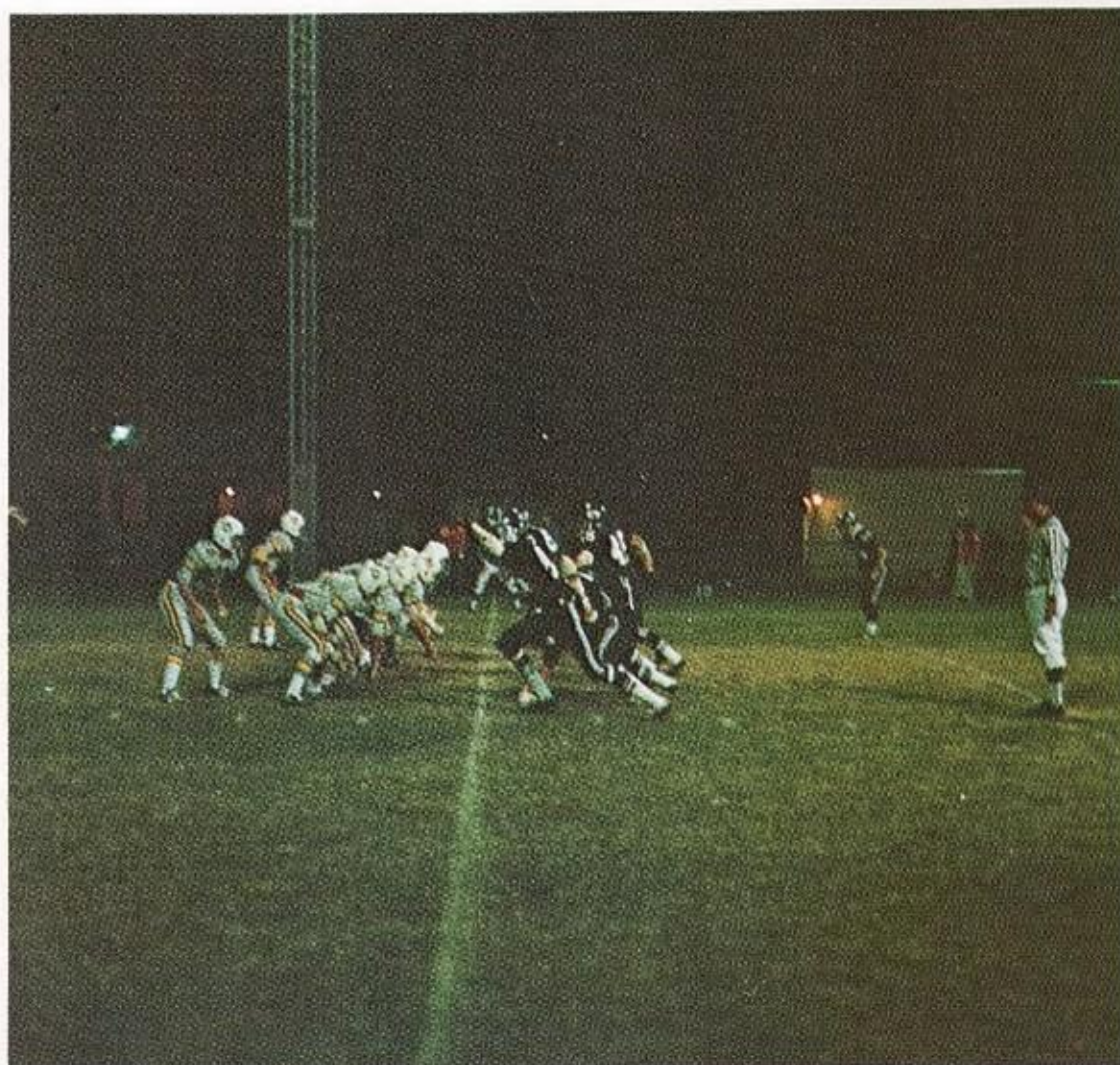

1 - Yon Chavez and John Mitchell use the phones in Ms. Hays's office that are available for student use. 2 - Coach Voge and Dan Daniels "put the rap" to Margarita Griego and Kathy Merwin during lunch. 3 - As the band performs during halftime, Terry Brandenburg haphazardly toots her horn. 4 - Bill Bell tries to humor Theresa Sherred while he takes her underclass picture. 5 - For the spectators' enjoyment, Vikettes perform during halftime. 6 - Many Vikings participated in the October International Balloon Fiesta as spectators and as members of chase crews. 7 - The Vikes go for yardage against the Del Norte Knights.

Highlighted by the gridgers' victory over Rio Grande High School, October passed quickly for busy Vikings. The volleyball team defeated Eldorado to take the second annual Cibola Classic and finished fourth in 2AAAA district.

Ben Sandoval, Marc McNeely and Brett Truskowski distinguished themselves with outstanding performances in October's cross country meets.

Albuquerque's skies were filled with balloons at the third annual balloon festival. Many of the balloons came down on and near the Valley High School Campus. Bill Bell took the underclass pictures on October 13 and 14. Ms. Hayes made it possible to have Spinning Wheel, a professional band, to come play at a buy out assembly at the beginning of October.

Over 100 Vikings Turn Out For H'coming Decorating

Homecoming Activities began with the igniting of one of the biggest bonfires Valley has ever had. The bonfire ignited Valley's spirit week.

For the first time students wore each of the different school colors on particular days.

Most homerooms participated in the traditional decorating of their doors. Although there were many decorated doors, they were only the beginning of the decorating that took place. In the gym, the seniors and student council members were busy decorating for the climaxing Homecoming Assembly. Queen Gloria Romero reigned over the 1976 Homecoming dance held at the UNM Ballroom on Saturday night.

Court Chosen From Top 21

Interested seniors attended a night assembly to elect top 20 girls for Viking Court try-outs. Twenty-one were chosen because of a tie between two contestants.

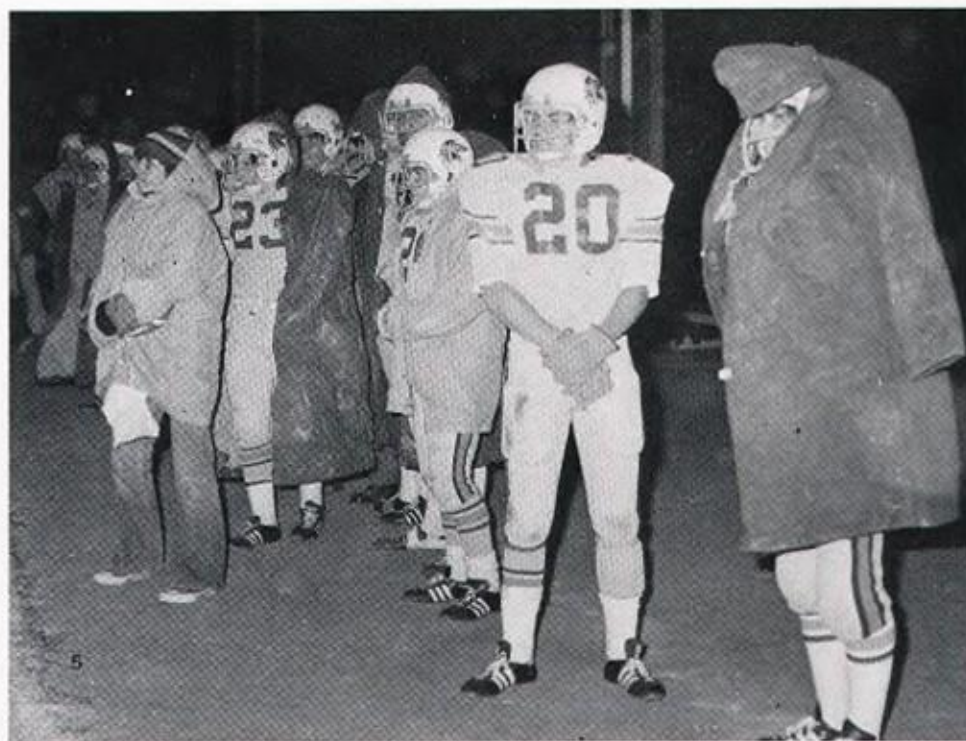

A multiple theme, "Days of Futures Past," was used in creating and decorating the gymnasium for the '76 Homecoming assembly November 12 when the court was presented and the Queen and Princesses were crowned.

1 - Lady Debbie Austin. 2 - Lady Judy Cotinola. 3 - Lady Catherine Rio 4 - '76 Homecoming Court. 5 - Lady Sandy Martinez. 6 - Lady Debbie Chavez. 7 - Lady Patricia Kozlowski. 8 - Lady Renee Beach. 9 - Lady Beth Long. 10 - Lady Emiko Komatsuzake. 11 - Lady Ingela Ronn.

Cougars Spoil Viking Homecoming

1 - The Valley Vikings hurry on the field to battle with the Cibola Cougars. 2 - Mike Lundstrum, better known as Victor Viking, helps lead cheers at halftime. 3 - David Otero finds it hard to run against the Cibola Cougars. 4 - Loyal Viking fans brave the bitter cold. 5 - The offensive team awaits chance to regain possession. 6 - Jerome Silva talks over strategy with Coach Helton. 7 - Terri Warrick, Susi Miera, and Connie Gutierrez try to spark enthusiasm. 8 - Tony Perkins is tackled after a gain of three yards. 9 - David Otero is brought down by two Cibola defenders.

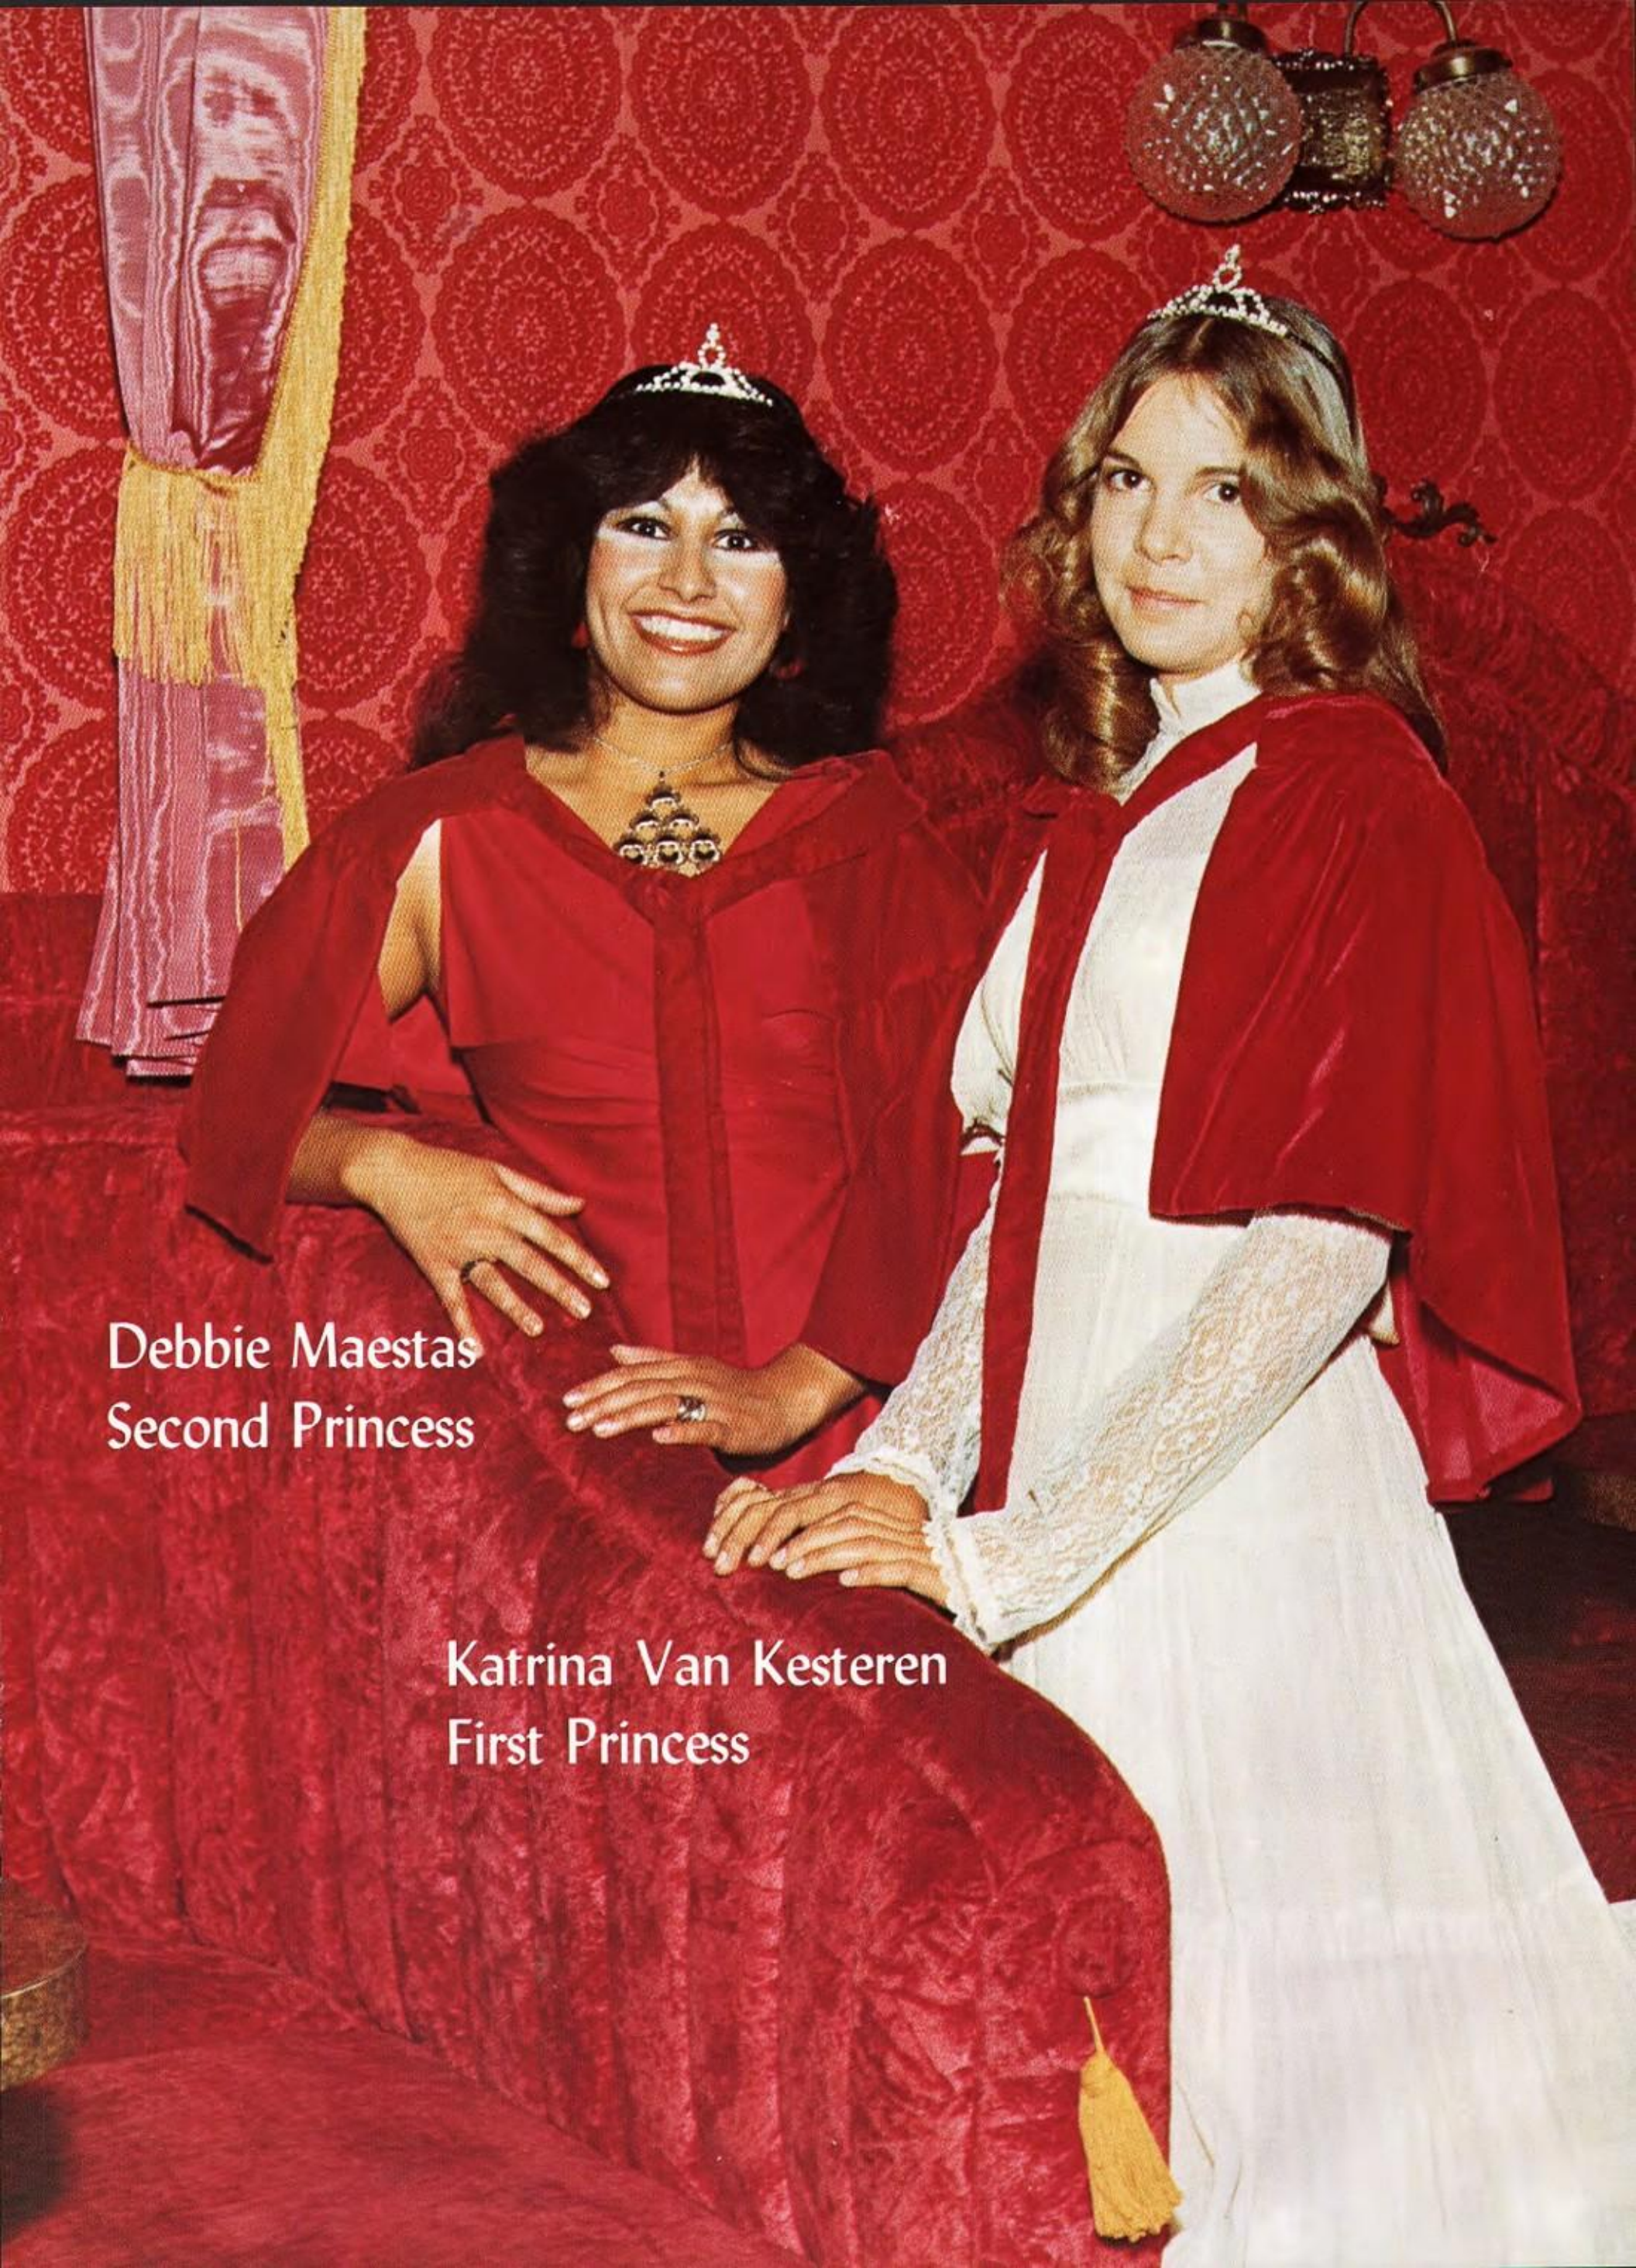

Viking Day ended in disappointment, as the Cibola Cougars upset the Vikes 24-14. In spite of blowing snow, Judge Chavez managed to complete 10 of 14 passes for one touchdown. A run by Tony Perkins resulted in the other score.

Viking fans and alumni were also disappointed when, because of the freezing weather, Queen Gloria Romero and her princesses were unable to participate in the traditional halftime festivities.

Won 2 Lost 8

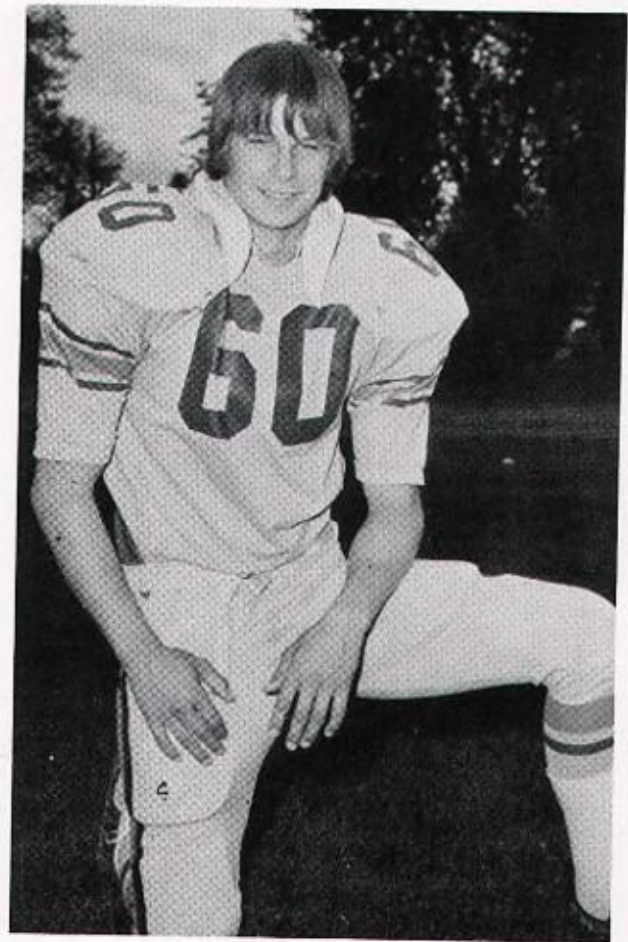

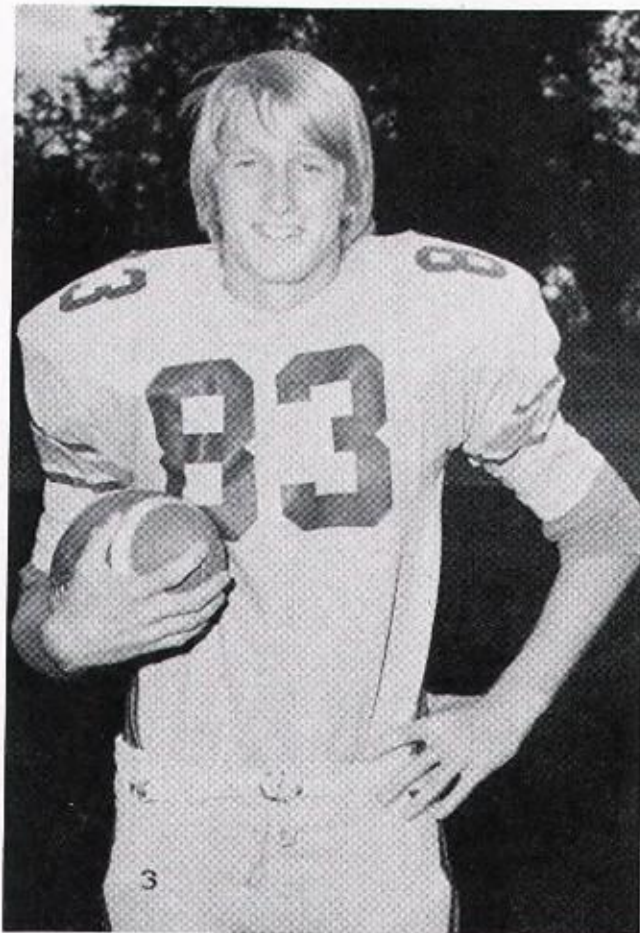

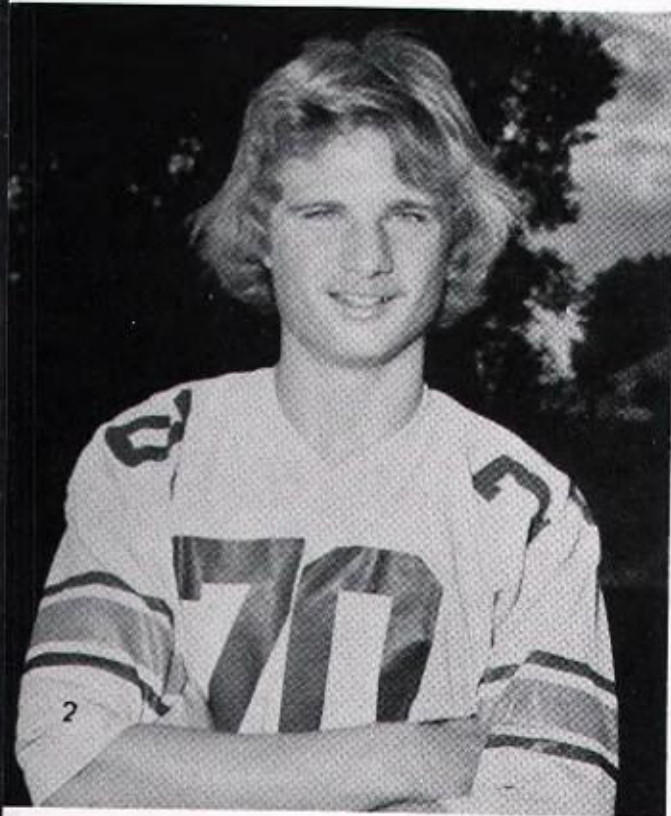

Back in the summer of this year hopes were high for a season that wouldn't end in a losing fashion as past seasons had. Del Helton and his staff were eager to get things under way, but as the season progressed, it turned into a up and down battle for a victory each week. The gridders started their season against West Mesa which ended in disaster. The team ended the season with the Homecoming game played in the wind and snow - only to lose to Cibola.

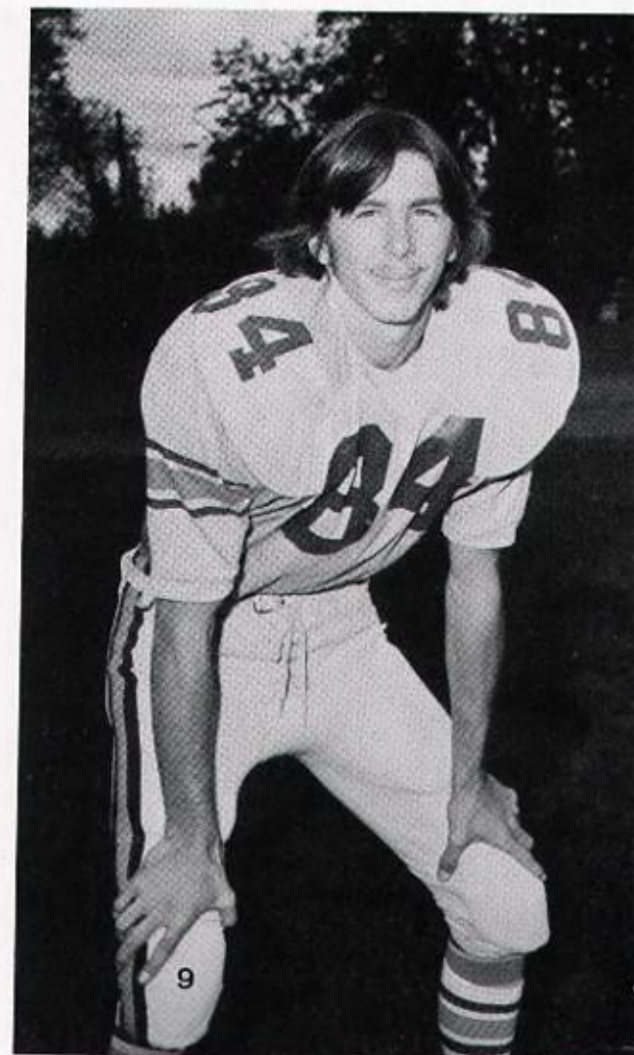

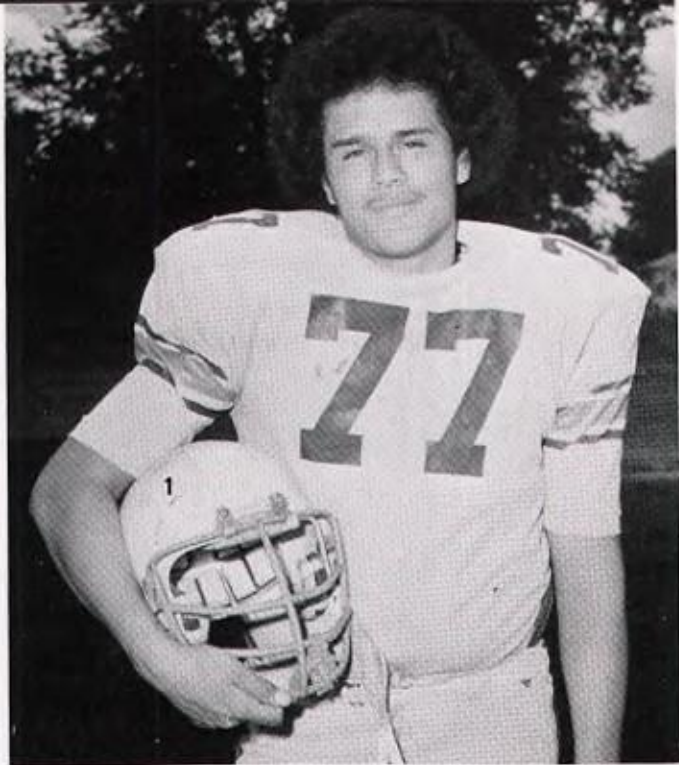

1 - Gil Quintana-defensive tackle. 2 - Lawrence Padilla-tackle, defensive noseguard. 3 - Jerome Silva- tailback, defensive back. 4 - "Judge" Chavez-quarterback. 5 - Mike Gallegos-end, defensive end. 6 - Pat Gonzales-guard, defensive end. 7 - Tony Flores-guard, defensive noseguard. 8 - Team members include first row Manager Randy Casaus, Bret Herring, Pat Candelaria, David Otero, Robert Inge, "Judge" Chavez, Robby Westerfield, Mike Garcia, Mike Abraham, Manager Felix Encinias; second row Tony Flores, Danny Baca, Pat Gonzales, William Cervantes, Jerome Silva, Albert Martinez, Ed Scales, David Tollardo, David Allen; third row Gary Bishop, Mike Gallegos, Tony Perkins, Matt Gutierrez, Danny Romero, David Dropinski, Lawrence Padilla; fourth row Coach Bill Steadman, Coach Jerry Duffey, Mark Duran, Dominic Villescás, James McGovern, L.B. Vasquez, Del Aragon, Scott Phillips, Tug Herig, Scott Weaver, Randy Longenbaugh, Gil Quintana, Coach Del Helton. 9 - Albert Martinez-flanker, defensive back. 10 - David Otero-fullback, defensive back.

Albert Martinez, Scott Weaver Lead City in Pass Receiving

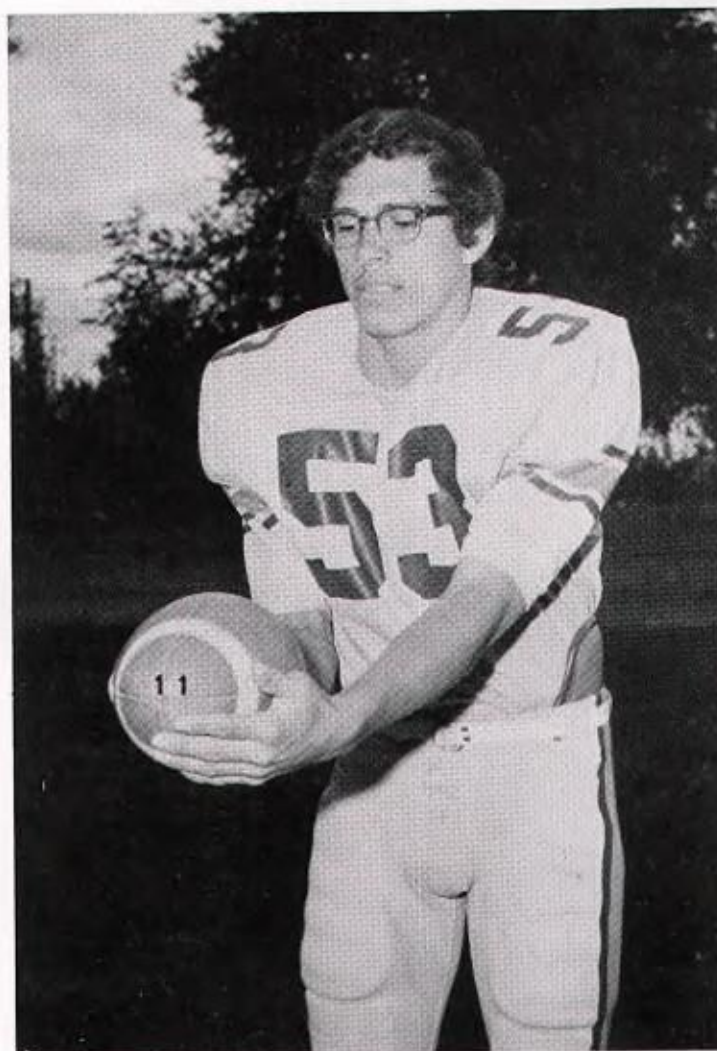

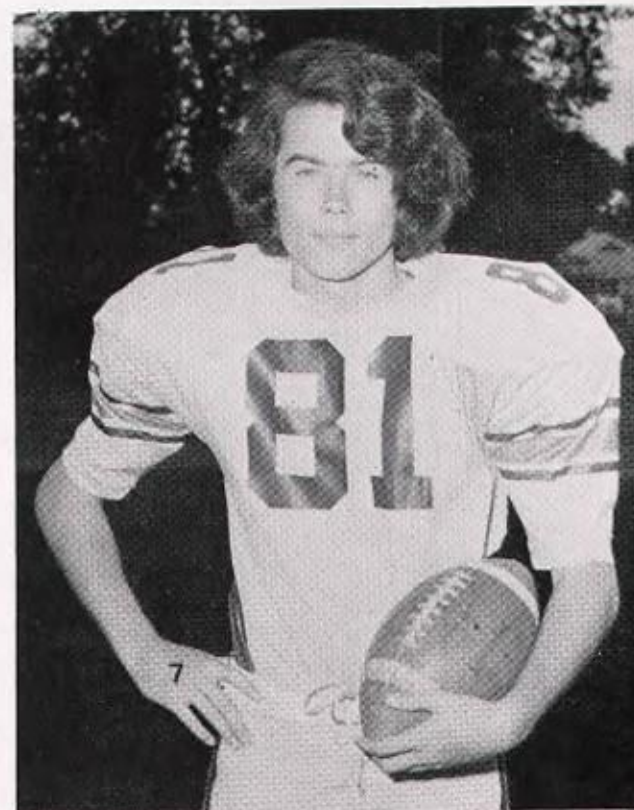

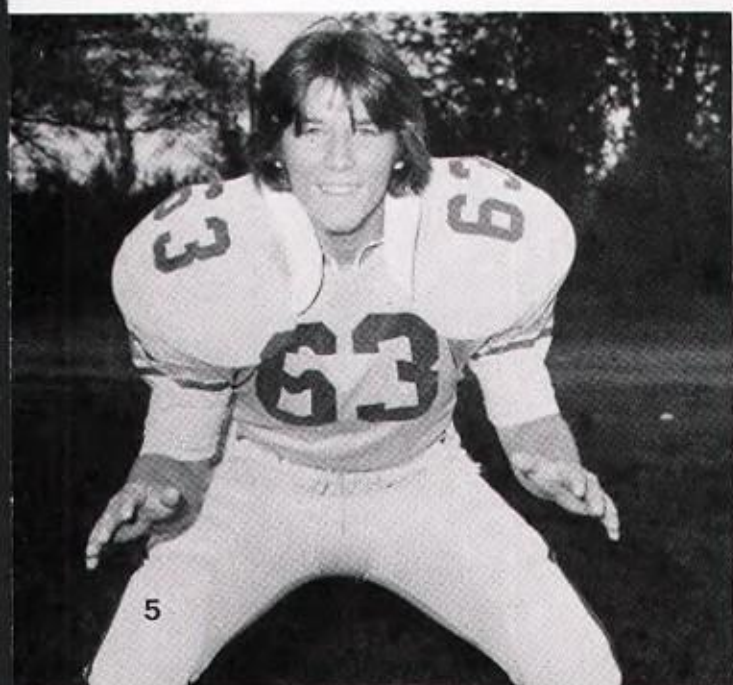

1 - L.B. Vasquez-tackle, defensive tackle. 2 - Randy Longenbaugh-tackle. 3 - Scott Weaver-end, defensive end. 4 - David Allen-guard, backer. 5 - David Tollardo-center, backer. 6 - David Otero finds hole and makes his way down field. 7 - Gary Bishop-end, defensive end. 8 - Bret Herring-fullback, defensive back. 9 - James McGovern-end, defensive back. 10 - Scott Weaver and "Judge" Chavez come off the field after a hard to get touchdown. 11 - Robert Inge-center, backer.

Although this year's gridders didn't end with the best season in Valley's history, they had two receivers and a quarterback that placed high in city standings. Albert Martinez placed first with Scott Weaver close behind at third. "Judge" Chavez added to the team by coming in fourth in passes completed.

Coach Helton and his staff worked hard with their players and tried to get them going for each week of play. This could account for the team members placing high in city. But even though the record didn't show it, this was Valley's most explosive team in over ten years.

Coach Ken Kloeppel and Roger Cordova worked with one of the biggest B-teams in over seven years. Although the season's record of 0-10 (two of these games were lost by only a few points) the record didn't show how bad the other team was battered. Andy Herig, a first-year quarterback, came out and got the team going by handing off to Bobby Maes and throwing passes to Gary White. Next year's varsity has a lot coming up and should prove to be tough.

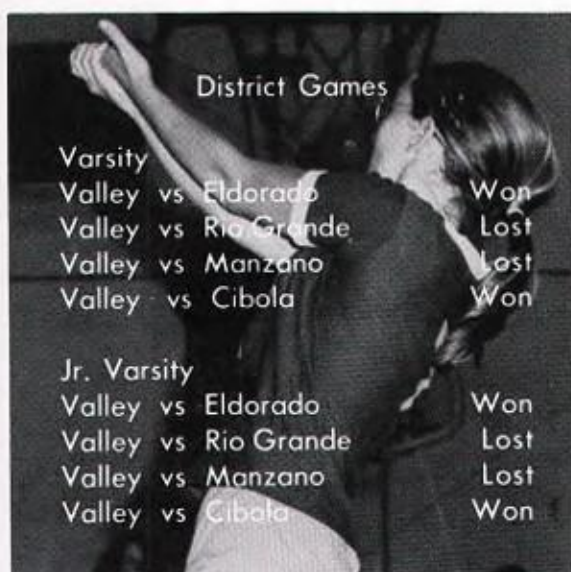

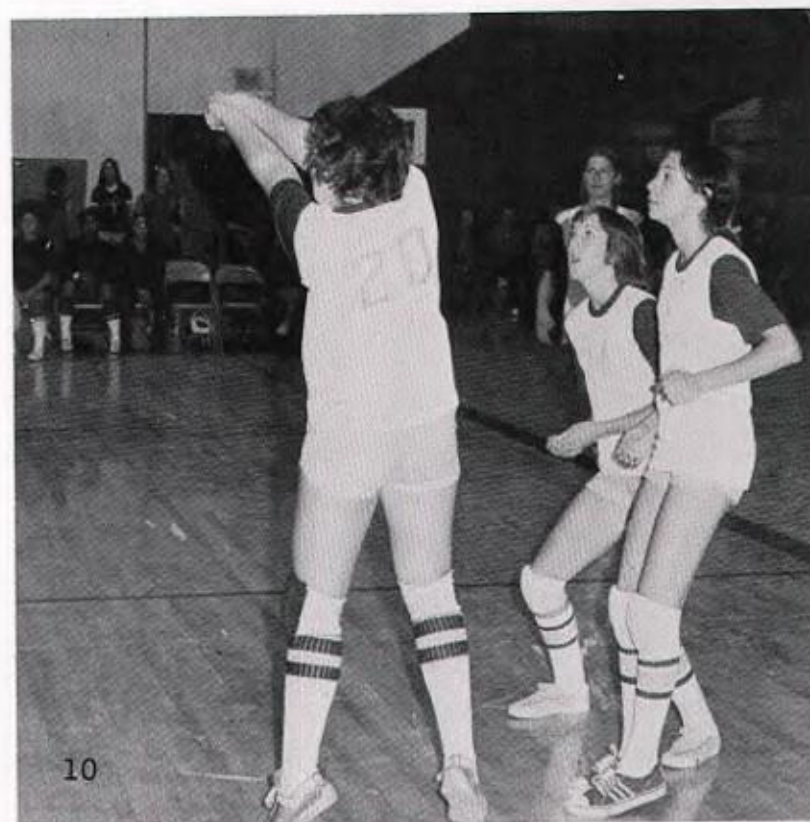

1 - Randy Longenbaugh makes running room for Davis Otero. 2 - David Dropinski and Robbie Westerfield head for the locker room at halftime. 3 - Another point is chalked up as the ball goes through the uprights in the Belen game. 4 - Junior varsity goes over a few plays during spring practice. 5 - The band performs at halftime during the Rio Grande game. 6 - Robert Inge catches a Manzano runner behind his blockers. 7 - Norsemen team members include (first row) Perry Montoya, Pete Guzman, Rick Gares, Andy Griego, Ron Duncan, Ken Maestas, Gerald Duran; (second row) Mgr. Felix Encinias, Louis Valencia, Eddie Gutierrez, Rick Guintana, Dominic Orozco, Marcus Lopez, Robert Munoz; (third row) David Kozlowski, Arelio Tollardo, Brook Cleff, Mike Heister, Bobby Maes, Mark Padilla, David Gonzales; (fourth row) Johnny Garcia, Coach Ken Kloeppel, Victor Chavez, Mike Martinez, Andy Herig, Dominic Salas, Bobby Jaramillo, Dirk Taylor, Coach Roger Cordova. 8 - Coach Steadman awaits outcome of an offensive drive.

1 - Marie Maestas, manager, prepares the score table before a game against Cibola. 2 - Kari Henrikson saves the ball in a victory over Eldorado. 3 - Kathy Lamkin sets the ball back to Gloria Griego. 4 - Varsity team members include (first row) Coach Yvonne Estrada, Eleanor Tafoya, Kari Henrikson, Debbie Branda, Debbie Harrison, and Linda Luna; (second row) Gloria Montoya, Becky Gastian, Gloria Griego, Kathy Lamkin, Susan Garcia and Dana Bobroff. 5 - An attempted block is made by Susan Garcia and Gloria Griego against Rio Grande opponents. 6 - Becky Gastian bump sets the ball for a spike by Susan Garcia. 7 - Fans watch Viking "netwomen" defeat the Eldorado Eagles. 8 - Diana Ozanich bumps to Lisa Champion for a save in the Santa Fe Game. 9 - Jr. Varsity team members include (sitting) Edwina LaGrange, Patty Warwick, and Becky Lomax; (kneeling) Chris Branda, Frederica Carnes, Joyce Nuanes and Rachel Zietlow; (standing) Barbara Lujan, Diana Ozanich, Lisa Champion, Vicki Diamond, and Coach Donna Wrenn. 10 - "Hustling" Chris Branda receives ball and is backed up by Lisa Champion and Barbara Lujan. 11 - A net play by Chris Branda chalks up the winning point for Valley against Bernalillo.

Consisting of eight seniors and three juniors the varsity volleyball team copped seven wins out of twelve games.

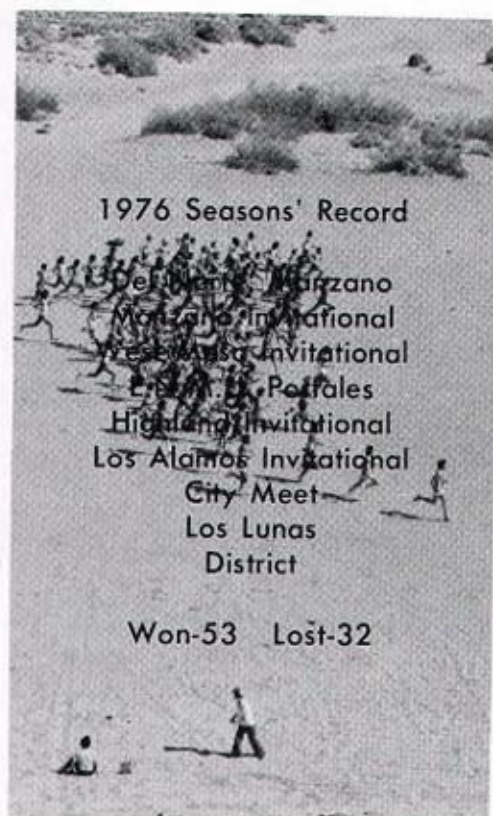

Going to the Cougar Classic, the varsity took first place and all the team members received awards. Kari Henrikson received another award for "best spiker".

The varsity team members were sent to district and placed third after being defeated by Cibola. Susan Garcia and Kari Henrikson received All District Player Awards at District.

Harrier Ben Sandoval Qualifies for State

After a winning season in regular competition, Coach Dean Voge went into District with high hopes for State. After the District qualification meet for State, however, there was only one person who had qualified for State: Ben Sandoval.

When the team started practicing in the summer, it seemed to be one of the most impressive seasons the Valley "harriers" had had. In regular season, the Viking squad ended up with 56 wins and 32 losses. Although Cross Country is a gruelling sport, team members worked hard in practice and it paid off for the team at the end of the season.

1 - Ben Sandoval, Junior letterman. 2 - Lambert Eustace strides in the final few yards after a meet at Hell's Hill's. 3 - Anthony Trujillo pushes on to the finish after running the Manzano Course. 4 - Marc McNeely and Ed Chavez, Senior lettermen. 5 - George Gonzales and Jeff Romero, Senior lettermen. 6 - Cross Country team members include (first row) Phil Villescas, Lee Mosley, Ben Sandoval, Xavier Padilla, Joe Cole, Al Richman, Lambert Eustace; (second row) David Herrera, Joe McMinn, Andy Silva, Mark Rowe, Anthony Trujillo, Ed Chavez, Andrew Othole, Jeff Jack; (third row) Coach Tom Malone, Danny Monk, Phil Gutierrez, Jeff Romero, Michael Lundstrom, Brett Truskowski, Marc McNeely, George Gonzales, Coach Dean Voge. 7 - Brett Truskowski tries to gain yardage to place high in a meet at Hell's Hill's. 8 - Ben Sandoval places high after a hot meet run at the University Course.

Staters Learn Democracy at Boys', Girls' State

Outstanding Valley students were selected to attend Girls and Boys State. These students were selected on basis of their interest in the United States Governmental System of Law. These students were selected last year at a question and answer session conducted by last years Staters.

Staters include (first row) Dirk Taylor, Theresa Anaya, Katrina VanKesteren, Tony Flores, Liz Hernandez, David Otero, and Lynn Anderson; (second row) Matthew Montoya, Marc McNeely, Glen Holmen, David Baumgartner, Debbie Branda, and Gary Bishop.

Girls State was held at Highlands University in Las Vegas, New Mexico and Boys State was held at New Mexico Military Institute in Roswell.

Six Qualify for Quill and Scroll

Quill and Scroll is an international honorary organization for outstanding journalists. Members were chosen by their scholastic writing achievements. Quill and Scroll members sponsored the national current events quiz which gave high scorers a chance for a scholarship.

1 - Quill and Scroll members include Sandy Gore, Miranda Eastham, Regina Salazar, Beth Long, Lisa McIlhaney, and Mercy Montoya.

Six Heads Are Better Than One

For the first time, the B-Team cheerleaders no longer had a head cheerleader. Every two weeks they took turns being head. "We all like the idea of no longer having one head cheerleader; the responsibilities don't all fall on one person," said Kim Blachly.

Kim Blachly, Delfina Deleon, Theresa Garcia, Susan Sandoval, Troyce Sisneros, and Troylyn Sisneros were the girls chosen to be the B-Team cheerleaders. The girls spent much of their time after school practicing and making signs for various school activities. They cheered for all B-Team sports, both girls and boys. During basketball season, they cheered for two teams, the Norsemen (junior varsity), and the Oarsmen (C-Team) which meant cheering for two games in a row. The girls had bake sales, a raffle, and a playnight for fund raising projects. Their sponsor was Ms. Paula Schotter.

1 - B-Team Cheerleaders lead a cheer during football pep assembly. 2 - Troylyn Sisneros. 3 - During B-Team cheerleader tryouts, Troylyn Sisneros announces her cheer. 4 - Kim Blachly. 5 - Delfina Deleon. 6 - Clockwise, starting from top: Troylyn Sisneros, Delfina Deleon, Troyce Sisneros, Susan Sandoval, Theresa Garcia, and Kim Blachly. 7 - Susan Sandoval. 8 - Theresa Garcia 9 - Troyce Sisneros.

Administration Prepares For Big Freshman Conversion

Merl Riggs, along with the staff and faculty, worked long hours with North Area Office and Taft and Garfield teachers and administrators in order to prepare for the ninth grade conversion in the fall of 1977. They searched for possible trouble areas and coordinated schedules for the planned conversion. With less than a year before the freshmen were to arrive, construction began last winter on a new science and fine arts building southwest of the gym to help in accommodating increased enrollment. Mr. Riggs also planned to add a large number of portable classrooms.

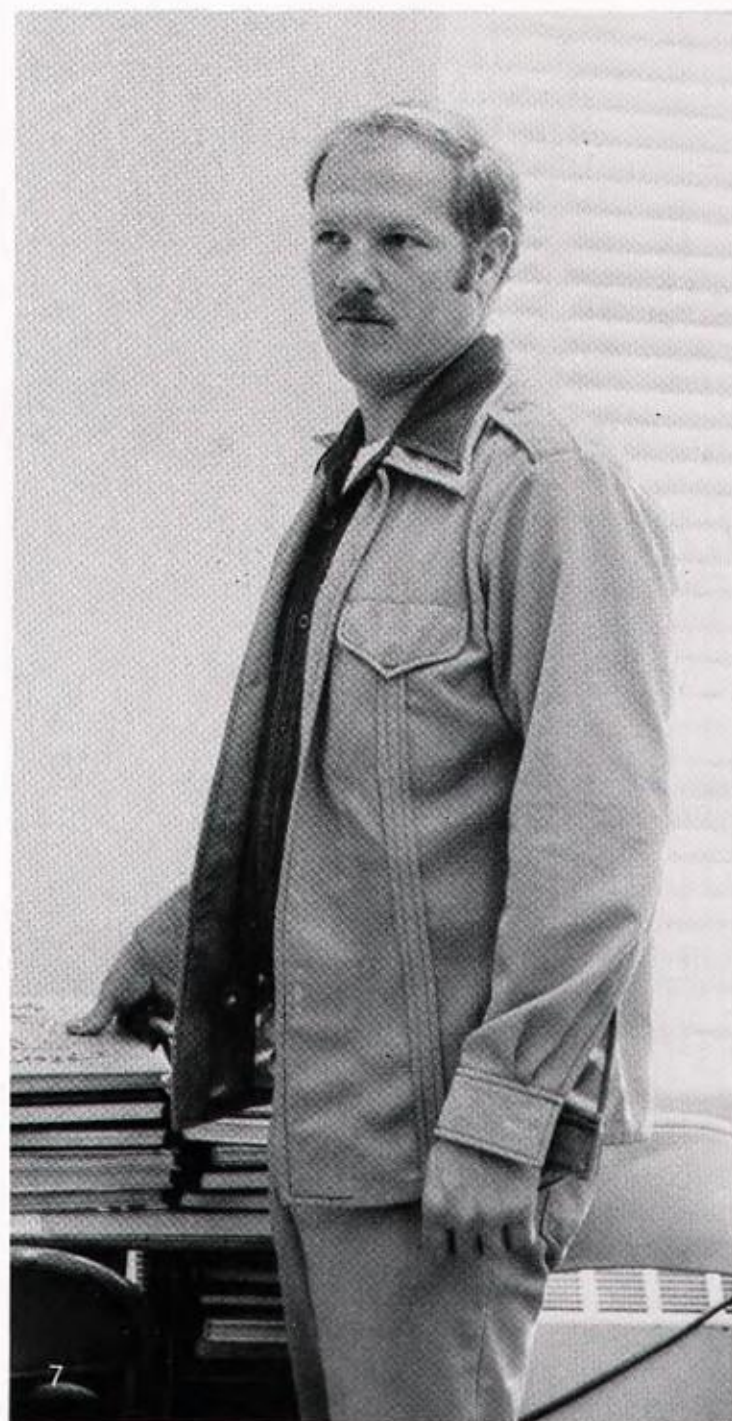

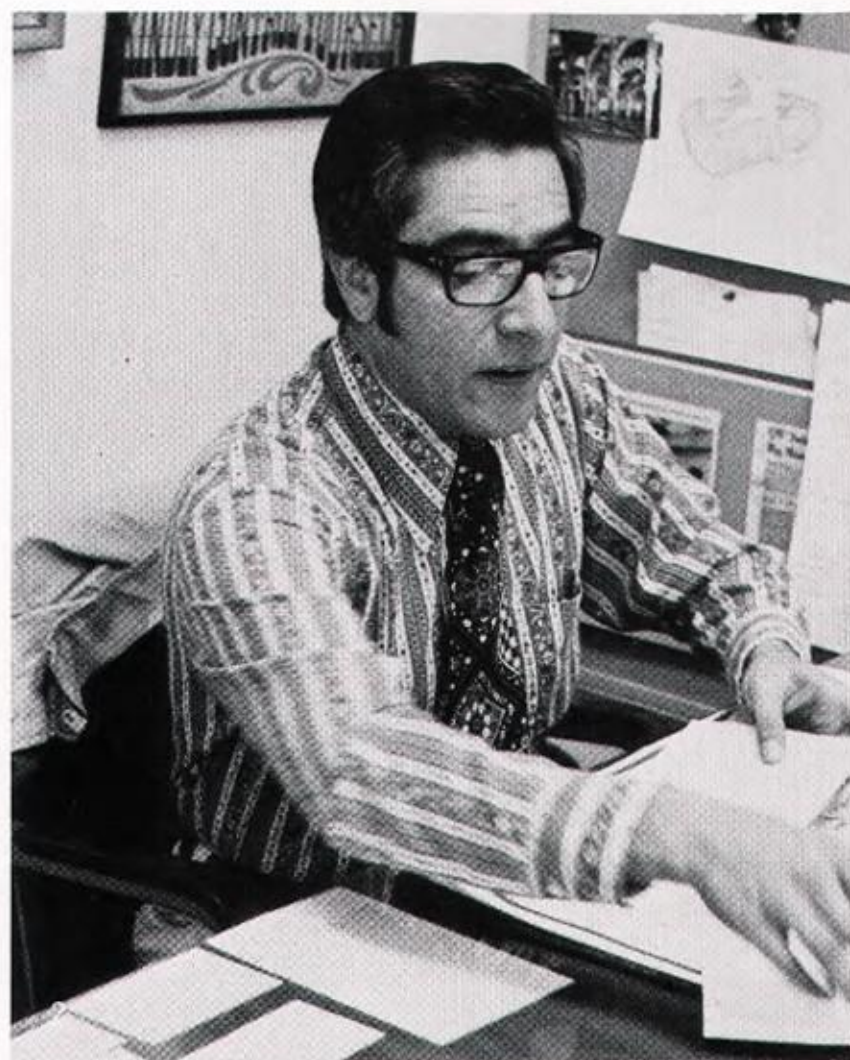

1 - Marlene Dunaway - MA in Educational Administration; assistant principal.
 2 - Sam Sandoval - MA in History and Social Science; assistant principal. 3 -
 Merl Riggs - MA in Educational Administration; principal. 4 - Mel Gonzales -
 MA in Educational Administration; assistant principal. 5 - Eileen Neal - assistant principal's secretary. 6 - Marie Hays - BS in Physical Education; activities director. 7 - Eleanor Phares - assistant principal's secretary. 8 - Lois Morris - assistant principal's secretary. 9 - Joann Romero - attendance office; and Dolores Garcia - data processing. 10 - Diane Schnepfer - bookkeeper and principal's secretary.

Counselors Aim to Meet Student Individual Needs

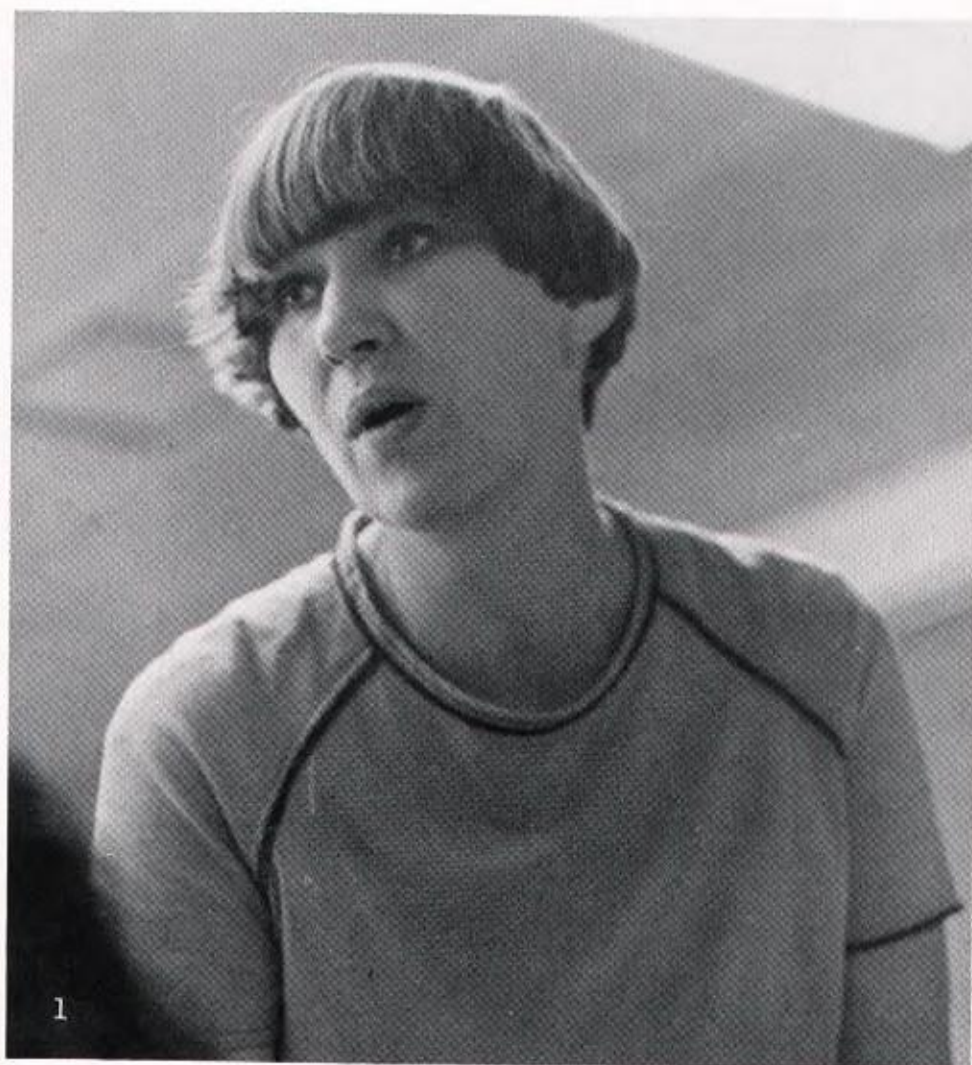

The counselors' main goal this year was to try to have each senior come in and have a conference with his or her counselor, to make sure they have enough of the right classes and/or credits in order to graduate. According to Ms. Sandra Shoon, counselor, another one of the goals was to start preparation for the arrival of the freshmen to be here next year. "It took a lot of time and effort to get everything organized for them", said Ms. Shoon.

College Fair Day made a big impression on Valley students. A large number of seniors interested in going to college made an effort to be present November 16. Colleges from around New Mexico and surrounding states were here giving advice, brochures, applications, and "what not" for entering the college of their choice. More than 26 different colleges sent in their representatives to participate in this annual event.

1 - Pat Vigil, campus aide. 2 - Floyd Vasquez, M.A. Guidance, counselor. 3 - Florence Thomson, R.N., B.S. Nursing Ed., nurse. 4 - James Magill, campus aide. 5 - Sandra Shoon, M.A. Guidance, counselor. 6 - Sarah Lucero, counselors' secretary. 7 - LeRoy Haslett, APD detective. 8 - Betsy Yost, M.A. Guidance, counselor, Indian Counselor. 9 - Bill Craig, M.A. Guidance, head counselor, first semester.

English Department Stresses Basic Skills

"Are we having grammar again?!" was the cry heard in many English classes this year. The answer was almost unanimously "yes", as the English department added a study of grammar to nearly all courses. Most English teachers took a grammar workshop from Ms. Mary Margaret Rhodes, department head in the spring of 1976, and, allowing for differences in individual teaching styles, standardized their approach to the teaching of the subject.

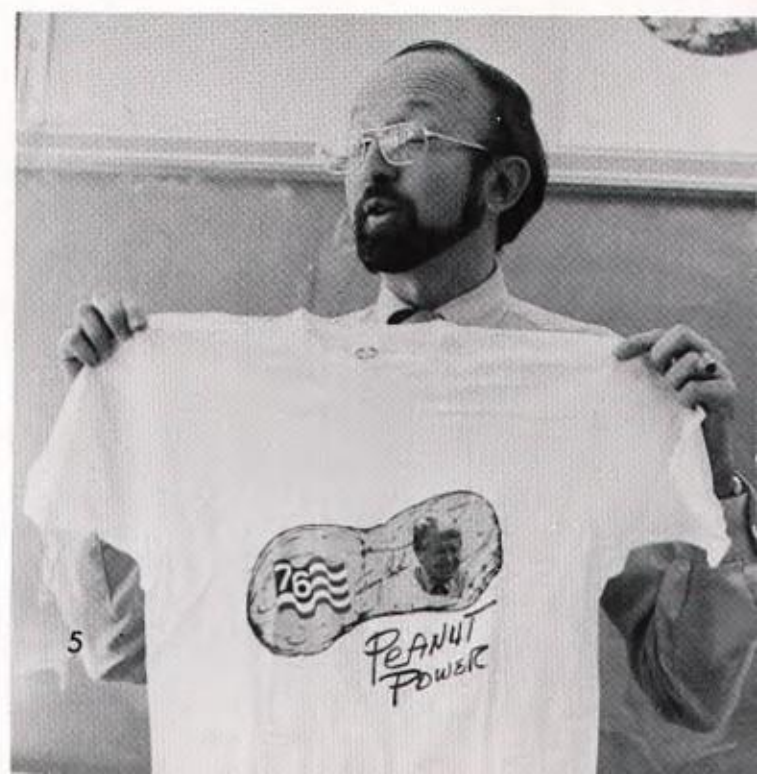

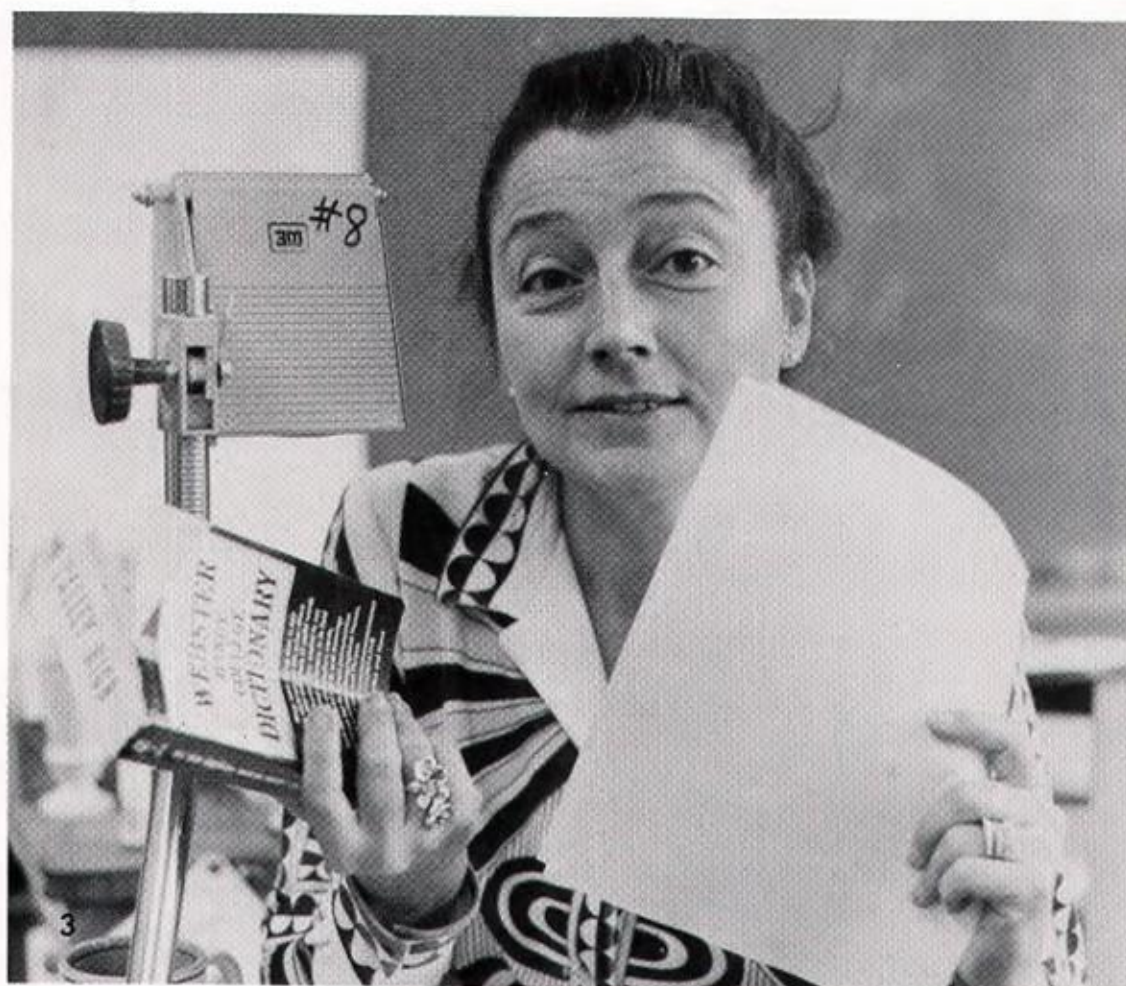

English teachers also emphasized writing in nearly all courses in an attempt to build up basic skills. Reading was stressed by English teachers who were involved in a pilot program for sustained silent reading.

In an effort to coordinate work with the feeder schools, and build upon the skills students learn in junior high, English teachers spent many hours talking with their counterparts at Taft and Garfield. This articulation of goals and ideas helped prepare for the ninth grade conversion in the fall of 1977, as well as continued the effort toward building language skills through all English Department courses in a sequential manner.

1 - Sharon S. Ball - MS in English Education; Reading Experiences, English II CP, Saga, Legend. 2 - Kathy Knittle - BA in Education; English 10 CP, English 11, Reading and Writing Improvement. 3 - Barbara Salazar Jaynes - BA in Education; English 12, English 10, English 10 Honors. 4 - Kathleen Fiske - MA in English; English 11 Honors, English 11 CP, Reading Experiences, Creative Writing. 5 - John Robledo makes like the "Fonz" in his English class. 6 - Bonnie Ann Sheehan - BA in Education; English 10 CP, English 10. 7 - Jane Murphey - MA in English; English 12 CP, English 12 Honors, English 11 CP.

1 - Shane Yost, Gina Bandoni, and Mary Moore listen to Ms. Murphey during their English class. 2 - Dolly J. Wier - BA in History and English; Reading and Writing Improvement, English 10 CP, and English 11. 3 - Mary Margaret Rhodes - MATE; department head, Bible as Literature, Review of the Language, English 10, English 10 CP. 4 - Felix Encenias gets some assistance from Ms. Wier. 5 - James Vannoy - BA in English; English 12 CP, English 12. 6 - Colleen Seeley - BA in Education; US History, English 10. 7 - Ms. Rhodes lectures to her Bible as Lit class. 8 - Bonnie Milholland MA in Secondary Education; Drama I and II, Filmmaking, Practical English. 9 - Felipe Perea - BA in English; English 10. 10 - Bill Kirby MA in English; English 10, Practical English.

Students Agree American Schools Are More Enjoyable

All four of Valley's foreign exchange students agree that America is "a place for youth" and that high school in America is easier than their comparable schools in their respective native countries.

Mike Lundstrom, who is registered as a senior, is from Sweden and lives with Brent and Brett Truskowski. An involved student, Mike ran with the cross country team and played the male lead in the all-school play, "Arsenic and Old Lace." Mike has also boosted school spirit as our mascot, Victor Viking.

Living with the Moore family, Ingela Rönn, also from Sweden, has been able to "see a new country and relate to a different culture which has been easy to adapt to." She says she enjoys Valley's friendly atmosphere and has not become homesick.

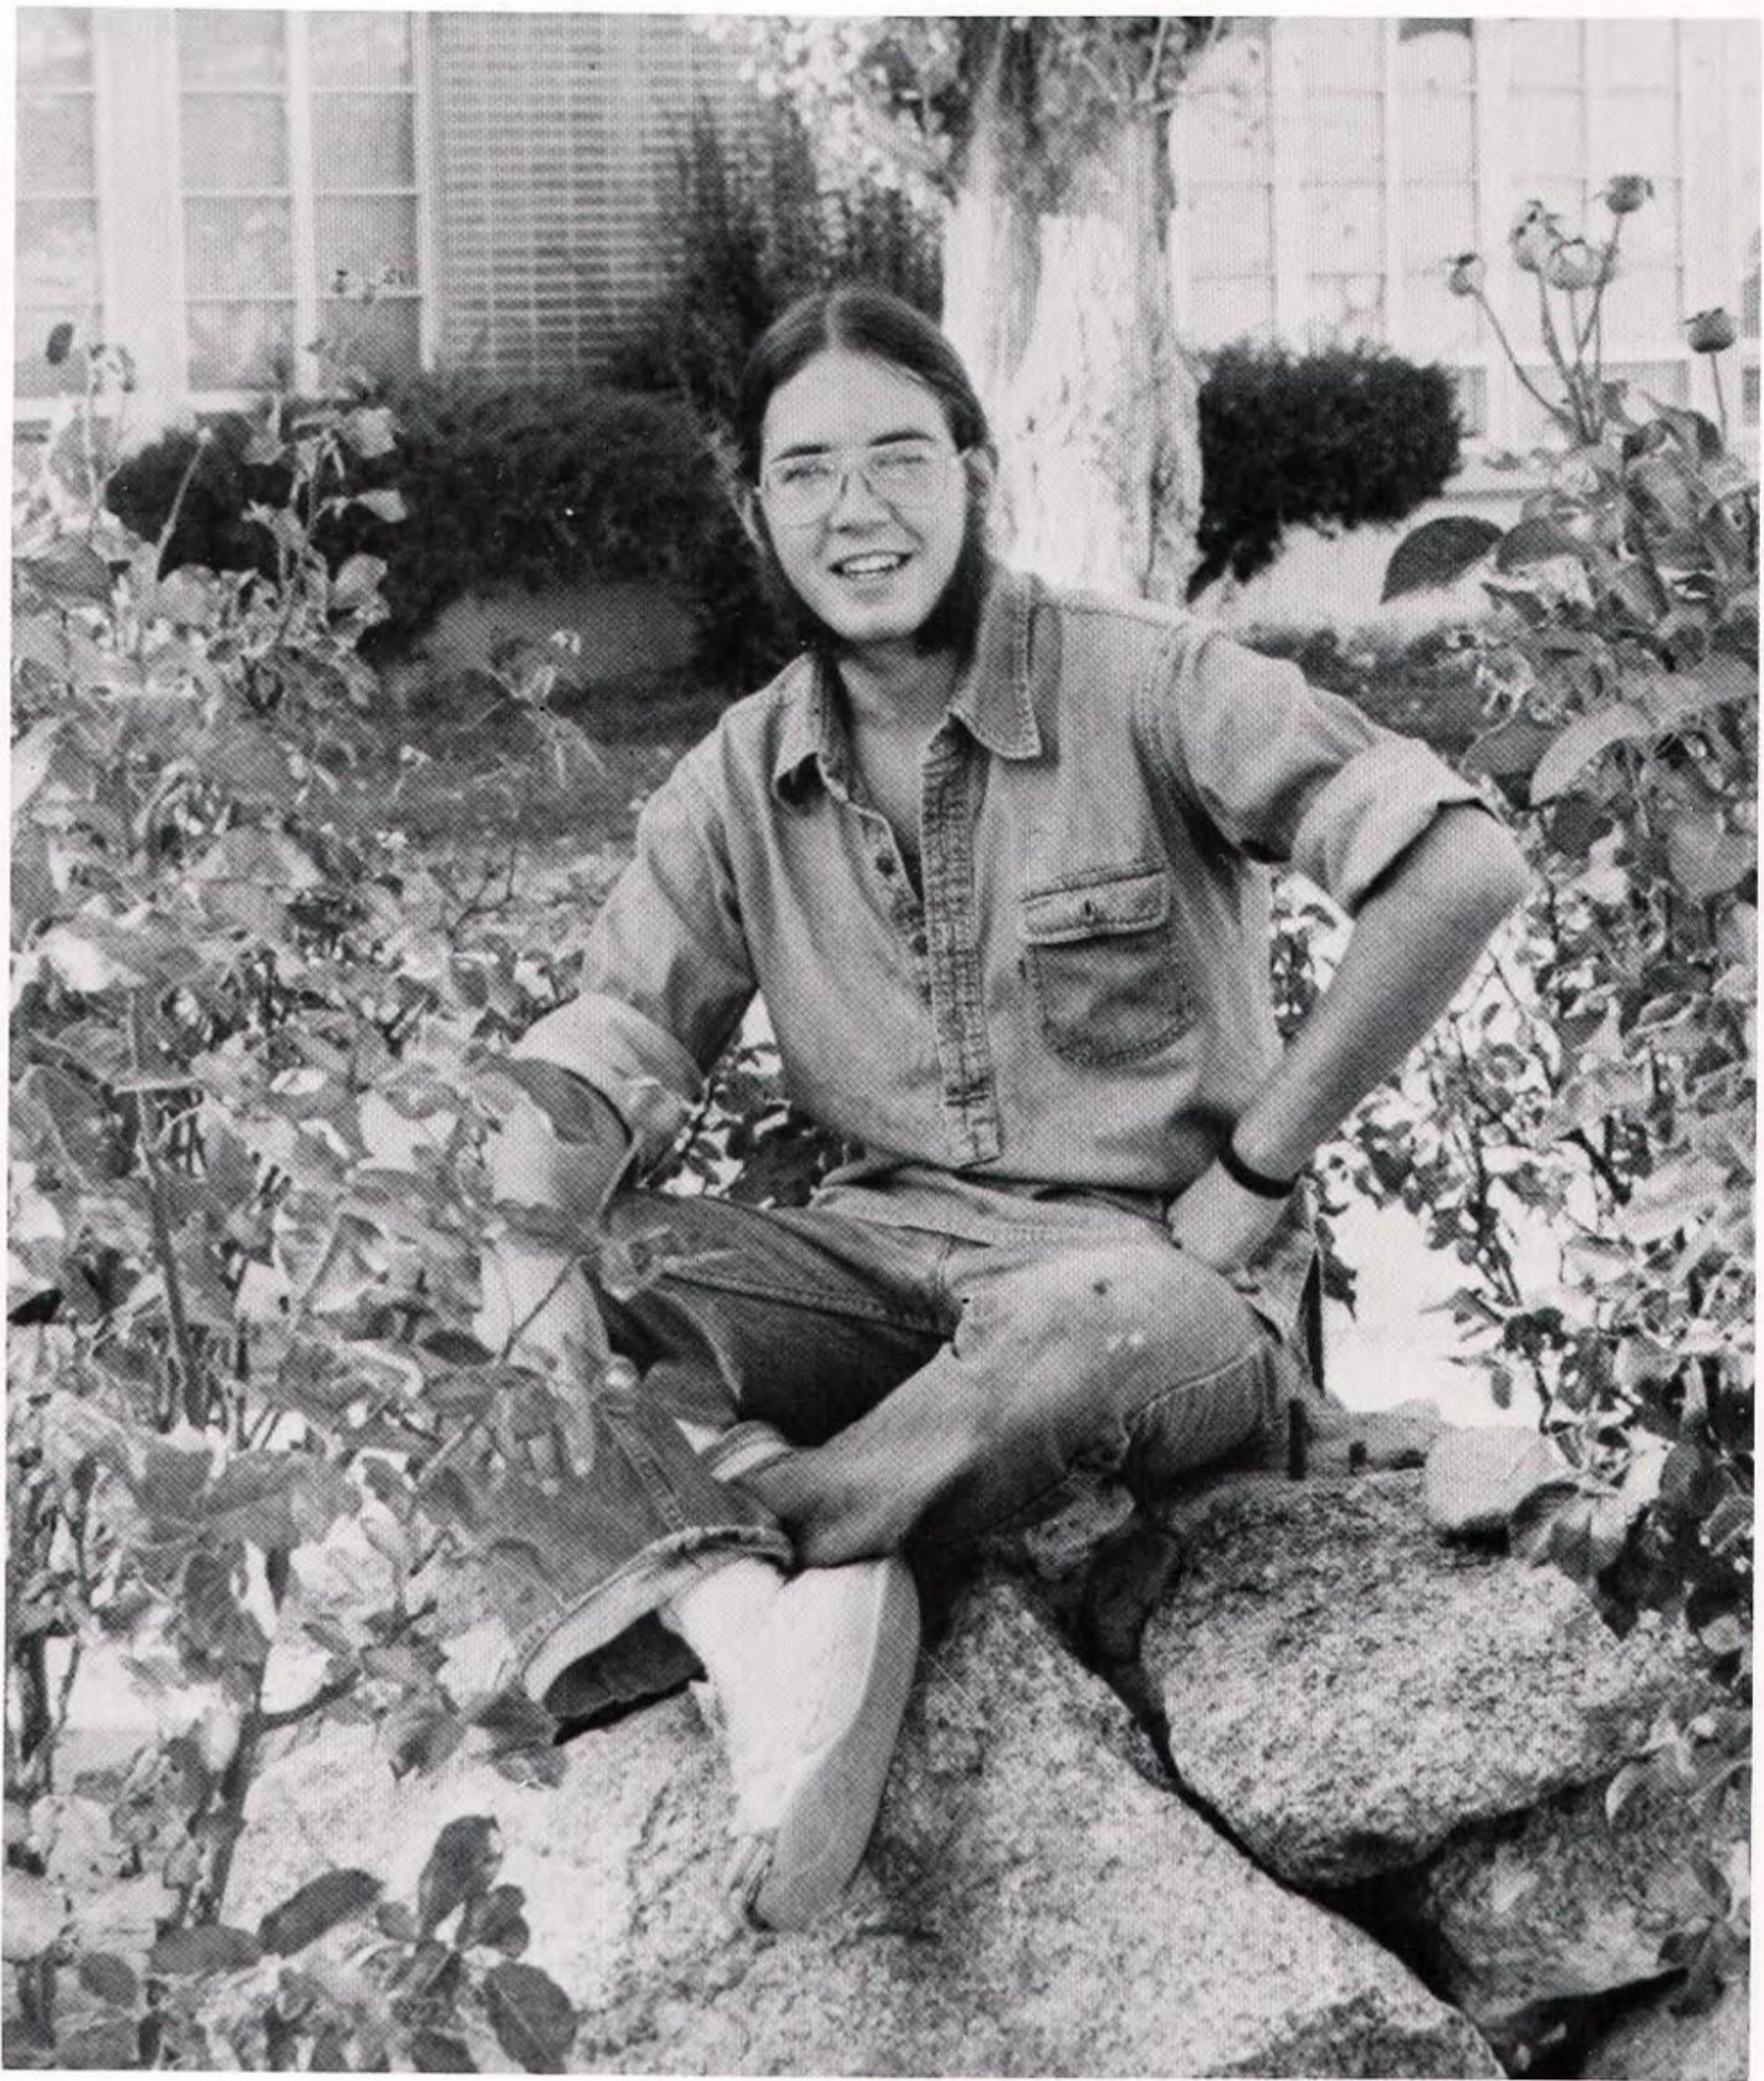

Emiko Komatsuzaki, our foreign exchange student from Japan, says she finds Valley students very pleasant. Emiko, also not homesick, comments that "America is great for young people because young people have so much freedom."

Our French foreign exchange student, Catarina Rio, is living with Anne Sanchez during her stay in New Mexico. She says that she is enjoying her year at Valley and that she has observed a great difference in student life here in America. She says school in France is strictly a place to study and learn with no extra-curricular activities.

1 - Emiko Komatsuzaki glances through a magazine in the Media Center. 2 - The new telephone in front of the Media Center is put to good use by Catarina Rio. 3 - Daring to sip "poisonous wine" in the all-school play "Arsenic and Old Lace" is Mike Lundstrom as the leading man. 4 - Valley's foreign exchange students are Mike Lundstrom, Catarina Rio, Ingela Rönn and Emiko Komatsuzaki. 5 - Emiko Komatsuzaki is an exchange student from Japan. 6 - Clowning in one of the trees in the patio is Ingela Rönn. 7 - Mike Lundstrom leaves school after cross country.

Student Body officers are Theresa Anaya, secretary; David Baumgartner, treasurer; and Brett Truskowski, vice president.

Student Council Prepares for Change To Four-Year High School

1 - "Spinning Wheel" performs at the year's first buyout assembly sponsored by Student Council. 2 - Senior Student Council members include (first row) Richard Ogorrek, Kathy Wilson, Katrina Van Kesteren, Bernadette Leal, Debbie Chavez, Jackie Garcia, Rosie Parra, Barbara Gonzales, Mercy Montoya, Diana Salazar, Patricia Kozlowski; (second row) Marc Sternhagen, Glen Holmen, Darlene Velasquez, Theresa Martinez, Elizabeth Anstine, Julie Rolland, Jane McCollum, Ronna Reed, Lisa McIlhane, Sandy Gore; (third row) Alvin Armenta, Marc McNeely, Wendy Hall, Rudy Chavez, Kathy Harris, Vicki Peacock, Debbie Austin; (fourth row) Lyle Holmen, Merrillou Powell, Ruthie Oldfield, Sarah Plante, Debbie Branda, Mike Lundstrom, and Jeff Romero. 3 - Junior Student Council members are (first row) Shelley Gunn, Tami Myers, Gerald Saavedra; (second row) Ann Lackey, Lynette Burt, Carolyn Rose; (third row) Regina Quintero, Tricia Brady, Tammy Raymond, Kathy Allen, Fernando Martinez; (fourth row) Frederica Carnes, Sandy Templeton, Bruce Lomax, Rene Fugate, Kelly Kloeppel; (fifth row) Gabriel Lucero, Mitchell McCann, Shane Yost, and George Gonzales. 4 - Advisory Council members include (first row) Marc Sternhagen, Brett Truskowski, Lee Keller, David Baumgartner, Theresa Anaya, Sheila Rose; (second row) Katrina Van Kesteren, Michelle Bennet, Brenda Harris, Shane Yost, Kathy Wilson, Rene Fugate, Tamara Garner, and Carolyn Rose. 5 - Student Council members decorate gym for the homecoming assembly. 6 - Sophomore Student Council members are (first row) Jo McMinn, Sharon Hanratty, Scott Phillips, Amy Dixon; (second row) Rose Van Damme, Diana Patrick, Laurie Harris, Kelly Watson, Carmen Chavez, Lori Tabet, Roma Arellano, Michelle Bennet, Clara Gonzales, Sonya Chavez, Tamara Garner; (third row) Becky Lomax, Mary Sedall, Deirdra Granados, Monica Lucero, Steve McIlhane, Tommy Griego; (fourth row) Chris Branda, Julie Davis, Damian Duran, Brenda Harris, and Brent Truskowski. 7 - Marc McNeely helps with gym clean-up on the Sunday after homecoming. 8 - The bonfire that Student Council sponsored promotes spirit before the homecoming game with Cibola.

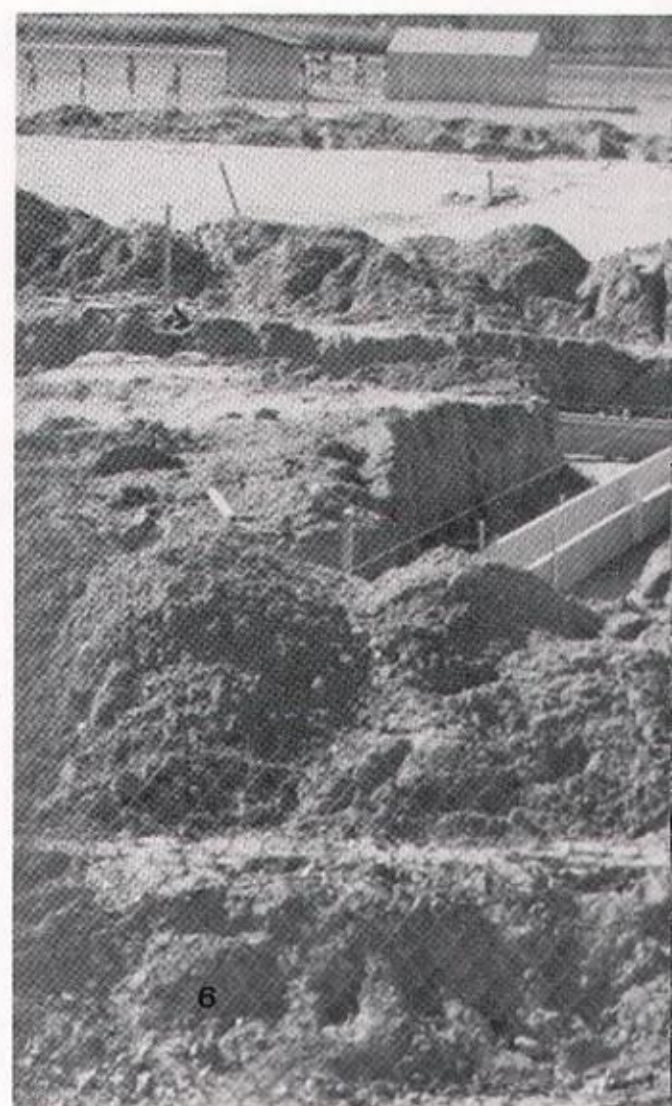

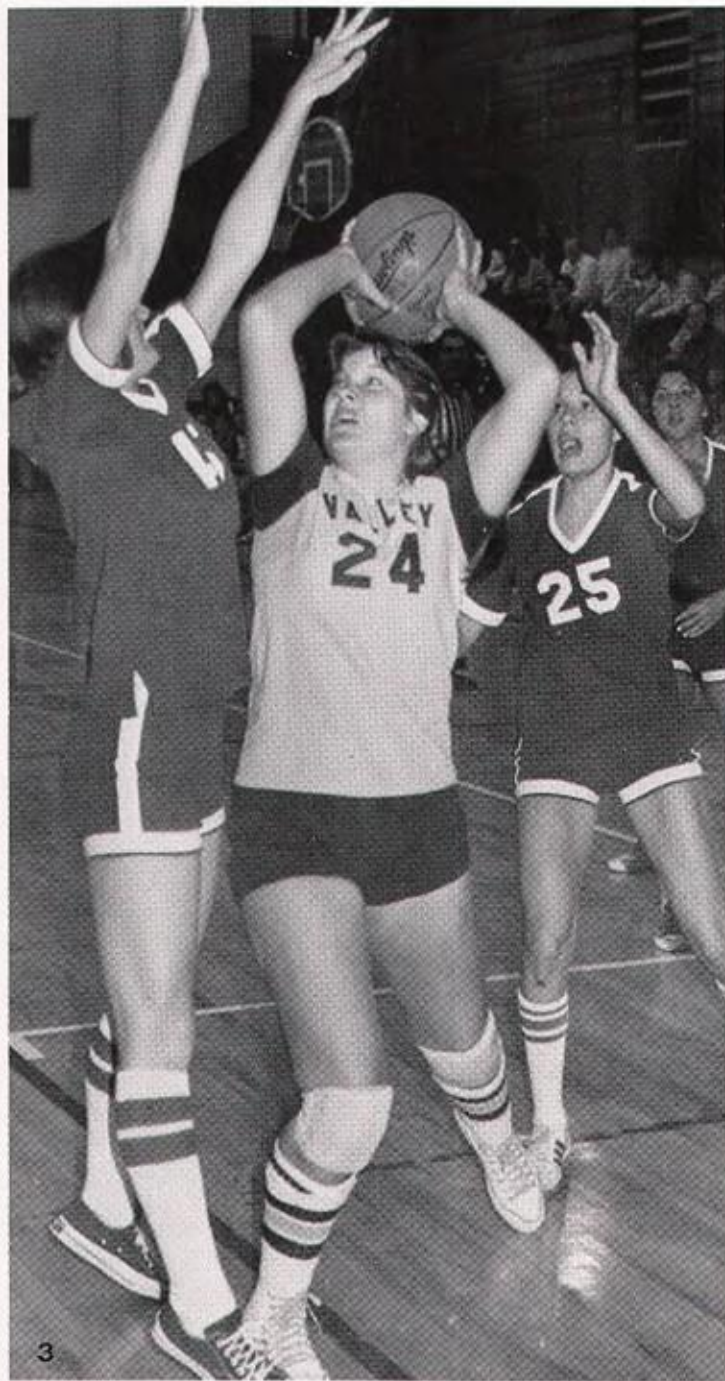

An extra large Student Council combined the use of a few successful money raising activities to make enough money for the expense of homecoming. They helped get the school year rolling by sponsoring the first dance with Jade playing. The first buyout assembly was a huge success as "Spinning Wheel" brought the house down with their music and humor.

It was Student Council's responsibility to help make the change to a four-year high school a smooth one. The format of assemblies and other activities had to be changed to accommodate the extra students.

Construction on New Building Begins in Earnest

1 - Ms. Fakelman acquaints Diana Ozanich with some of the basic information concerning University of Notre Dame at the College Fair. 2 - Ms. Hays helps out at the gym clean-up after the Homecoming assembly. 3 - Anne Sanchez shoots for two in the girls basketball season opener with Albuquerque High. 4 - Christy McMinn puts her creative talent to work on a Homecoming banner. 5 - Beth Long, Gloria Romero, and Katrina Van Kesteren await their turn at the first Vi-Queen elimination. 6 - The ground is broken and the work begins on the new art and science building. 7 - Marc McNeely takes time out from the gym decorations to show off his best side.

Homecoming was the highlight of November. As the traditional series of Vi-Queen tryouts kept everyone in suspense, a few dedicated workers were getting the decorations for the gym and dance ready to put up. Spirit Week found the student body in a dither of excitement and anticipation about the upcoming events of the week. No one was disappointed because the activities afforded more than enough thrills for everyone. With the fun comes the not-so fun as the gym had to be clean for the following Monday. For some people, the Sunday after the Viking Day Dance was one of hard work to get the clean-up job done.

Valley was invaded by heavy machinery and construction crews as work started on the new building designed to help accommodate the incoming freshmen. The facility will provide four art rooms and four science rooms both of which are needed badly.

Winter Sports Get a Start During November

November brought on a month full of excitement and anticipation. Student activities ranged from Homecoming to preparing for winter sports.

The counseling department sponsored College Day at Valley with over 30 colleges participating.

Winding up fall sports, the girls volleyball team wrapped up the Cibola Classic by taking first place. Ben Sandoval finished the cross-country season by placing ninth at State. While fall sports were ending, boys and girls swimming and basketball teams were busy preparing for their tough upcoming seasons.

The blood mobile visited Valley and had a turnout of 37 people. While construction was well underway for the new building, the blowing of dust was a typical scene on campus.

Four Fine Arts Classrooms Under Construction

With the freshmen class moving into Valley, the Fine Arts department planned to expand. Four arts and crafts classes were to move into the new building which was under construction all year.

The Fine Arts department included all arts and crafts, band, orchestra, vocal classes and all beginning and advanced art classes.

1 - Mr. Beasley demonstrates the art of sculpture to Eileen Blachford. 2 - Antoinette Montoya practices her guitar skills during the guitar and folk singing class. 3 - Marie Robertson - BA in Music Education; Orchestra. 4 - Mary Lou Sauters - BA in Art Education; Jewelry I, II, III, and IV. 5 - James Beasley - BA in Fine Arts; Art I, II, and III. 6 - Betsy Townsend - MA in Art Education; Art I, Advanced and Beginning Crafts. 7 - Tom Kelly - BA in Music Theory. 8 - Robert Sheets - MA in Music Education; Concert Choir, Mixed Chorus, Folk Guitar and Singing.

Sophomores are "Babies" for Last Year

"Babies" for the last time, Valley's class of '79 had a great year. Bakesales, carwashes, and raffles were some of their biggest fund raising projects. Their most important projects were the sweetheart dance and decorating the lobby for Homecoming.

For First Year, B-Teamers

Winter

Viking Grapplers Defeat Matadors For First Time In Ten Years

During December Viking spirit was boosted with beginning of three winter sports: basketball wrestling, and swimming. Viking Cagers opened their season December 3 and ended the month with a 7-1 record in non-district competition. The reorganized, new-look Viking grapplers, led by new head coach Bill Kirby, took to the mats December 1 to defeat the Sandia Matadors for the first time in ten years. The swimming team also had a new coach, Connie Curtis. The team worked very hard and expected to take about ten swimmers to state.

Besides sports in December, students looked forward to Christmas as the Home Ec. Department put on an imaginative Christmas Bazaar, and Student Council held their annual Christmas party for Greigos elementary school students. Juniors received their Christmas presents early when their class rings were delivered. The school month ended with the all-school Christmas assembly on December 17.

Home Ec Launches Christmas Season with Annual Bazaar

1 - Campus aide Jim Magill plays Santa Claus for the Student Council Children's Christmas Party. 2 - Santa Claus sings along with the chorus. 3 - Ingela Ronn and Michael Lundstram tell Valley students about Christmas in Sweden. 4 - Saga's beautiful Christmas tree is loaded down with 47 candy canes. 5 - James Saltz seems to be a little tired after participating in all of the activities of the Children's Christmas Party. 6 - Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus (better known as Bobby Dogger and Beth Long) read letters from anxious Vikings as their elves look on. 7 - One of the children from Duranes Elementary School takes a swat at the pinata. 8 - Santa's elves Liz Doolittle, Gloria Romero and Debbie Austin clown around with Mrs. Claus, Beth Long.

The Christmas season was launched by the Home Ec Department's annual Christmas Bazaar. They sold a variety of things including wreaths and corsages. It was held in the Media Center on December 9 and was open to the public.

Student Council held a Christmas Party for the children from Duranes Elementary School. Each homeroom sponsored a child and bought him or her presents.

On December 17 Valley held its annual Christmas assembly. Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus played by Bobby Dogger and Beth Long were the MC's. The Chorus sang Christmas carols with the accompaniment of the orchestra and the band.

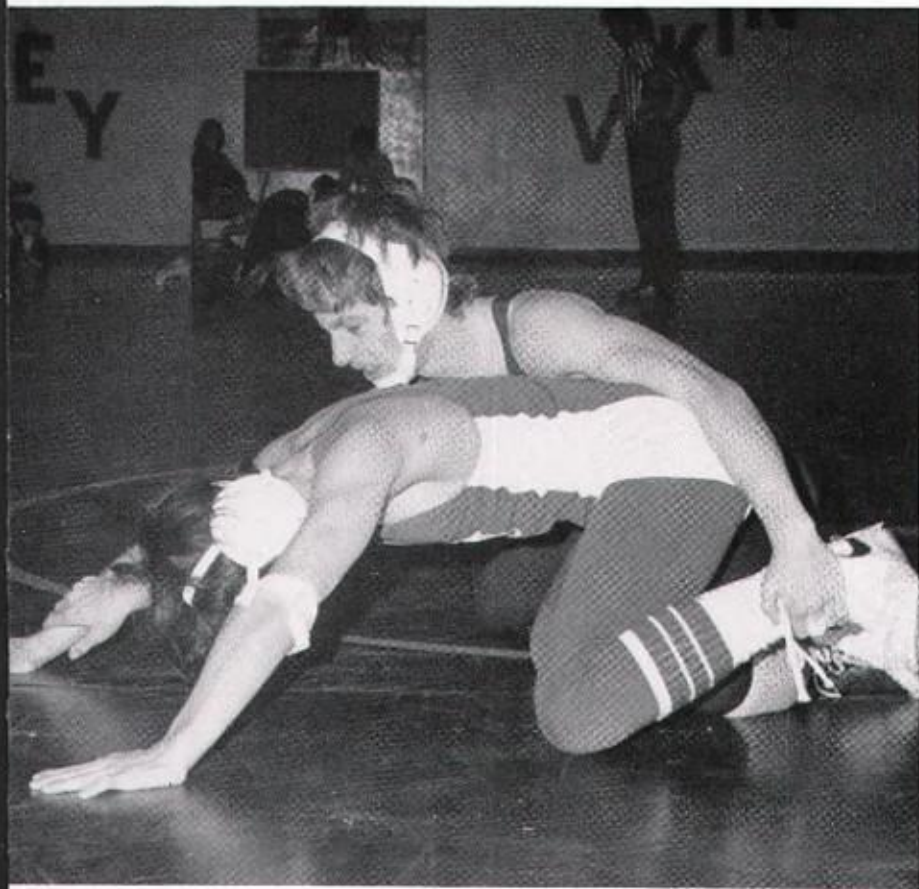

January Introduces New Year Excitement

January burst on the scene with all kinds of exciting activities to begin the New Year. Boys and girls basketball, wrestling and swimming were all in full swing. For almost the entire month the boy cagers were ranked #1 in the state. Grappler Gilbert Lucero was ranked #1 in the state in his weight class. The Viking "pool sharks" continued to prepare for State in February.

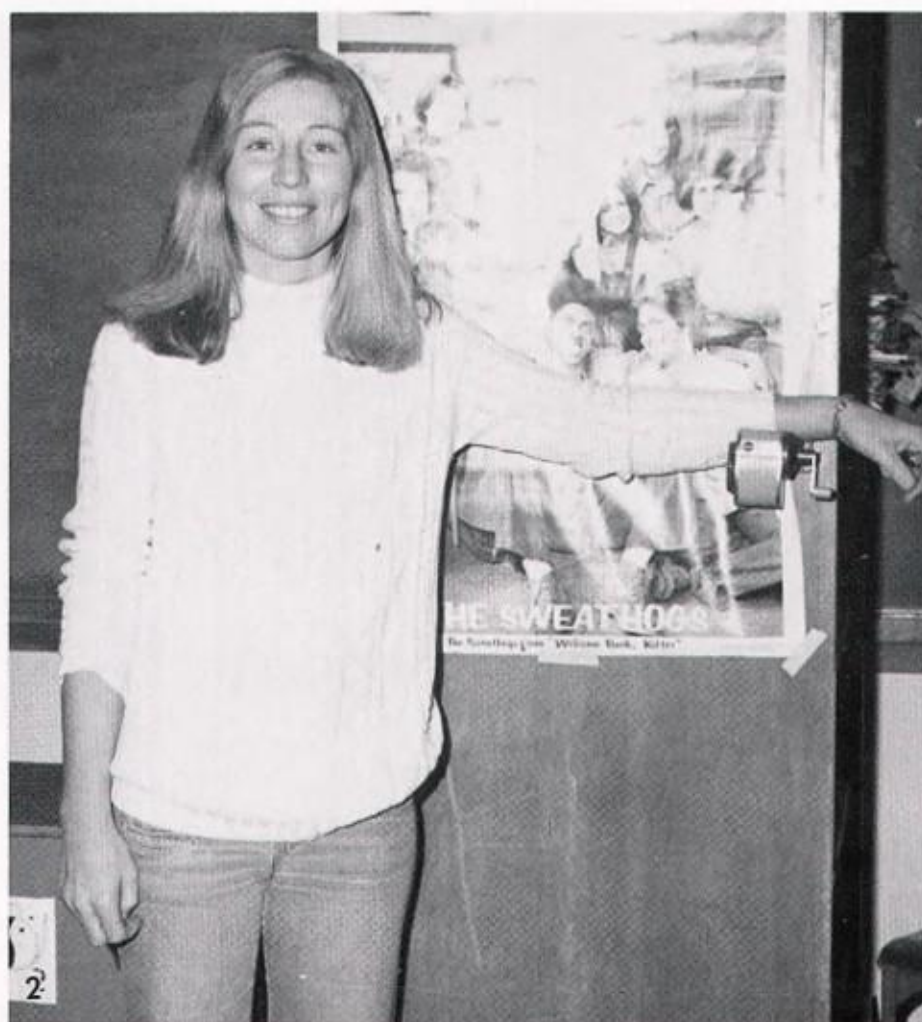

A musical group, Up With People, gave the Vikings an exciting visit during an afternoon assembly. The seniors broke all records in the UMOC contest by collecting $720.49, and Spirit Sweetheart elections got underway. Bringing the month to a close was the State Drill Team Competition where the Vikettes returned with a first place divisional trophy.

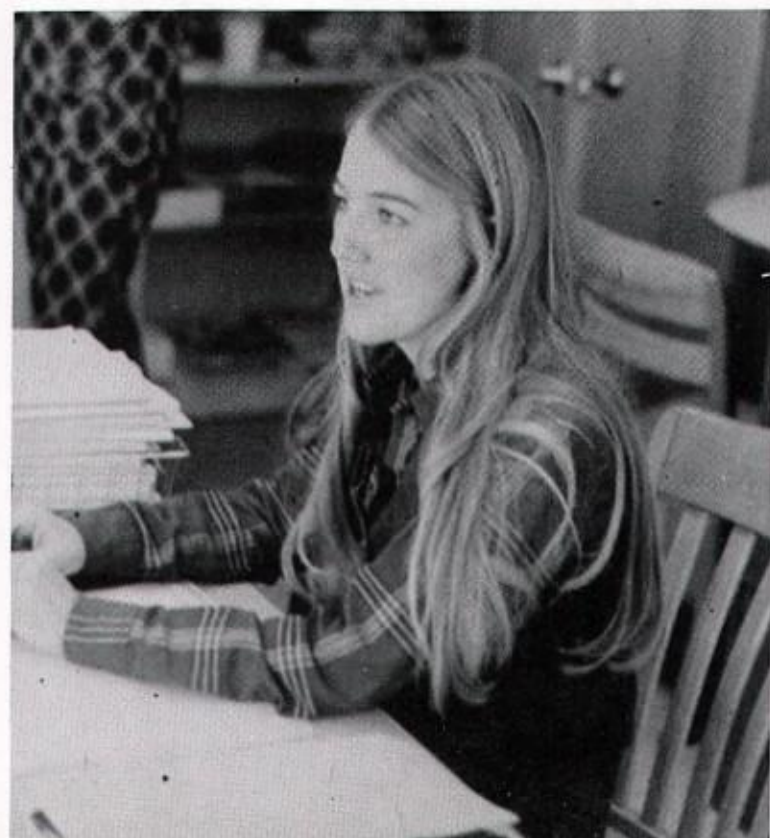

1 - Water Polo brings out the viciousness in Kenny Faber. 2 - James Jaramillo plows through his opponents and puts it up for two. 3 - Up with People express the joy of music to Valley Vikings at an afternoon assembly. 4 - Demonstrating their acting ability in "Mime" are Carla Atencio and Denise Greigo. 5 - Measuring up to his senior year, Tim Gill gets his order set for his cap and gown. 6 - Determined for a pin is grappler Dirk Taylor. 7 - Small but spirited John Doudoich joins in the music with the Valley Band. 8 - Confused. . . are Jenetta Gabaldon and Danny Sanchez at second semester registration. 9 - Sipping soda and deadlines keep Saga members busy as they near the completion of their book.

Variety of Classes In Work Study Program

Work Study was a program that consisted of a variety of classes. Some of these classes dealt with helping students find jobs. The students that participated in these classes, that were juniors or sophomores, worked part-time. They attended school for three classes in the morning and worked in the afternoon. If the students were seniors, they could work full-time all week and go to school for only one class.

Other classes in the program helped students to work with money. One class taught students to balance checks and figure out income tax.

1 - Delia Sanchez - Educational Aide. 2 - Jane Marianetti - BA in Special Education; Special Education. 3 - Paula Still - BS in Special Education; Special Education. 4 - Cecilia Prelo - BS in Special Education; Special Education. 5 - Before turning his paper in, Harold Romero checks his spelling. 6 - Barbara Lister - BA in Special Education; Resource Room. 7 - Preparing for an assignment is Lawrence Saiz. 8 - Geri C'deBaca - BA in Education; Special Education. 9 - Paula Schotter - BA in Special Education; Resource Room. 10 - Before class begins, Bill Hand gets in some extra studying.

History Department Prepares For Incoming Freshmen

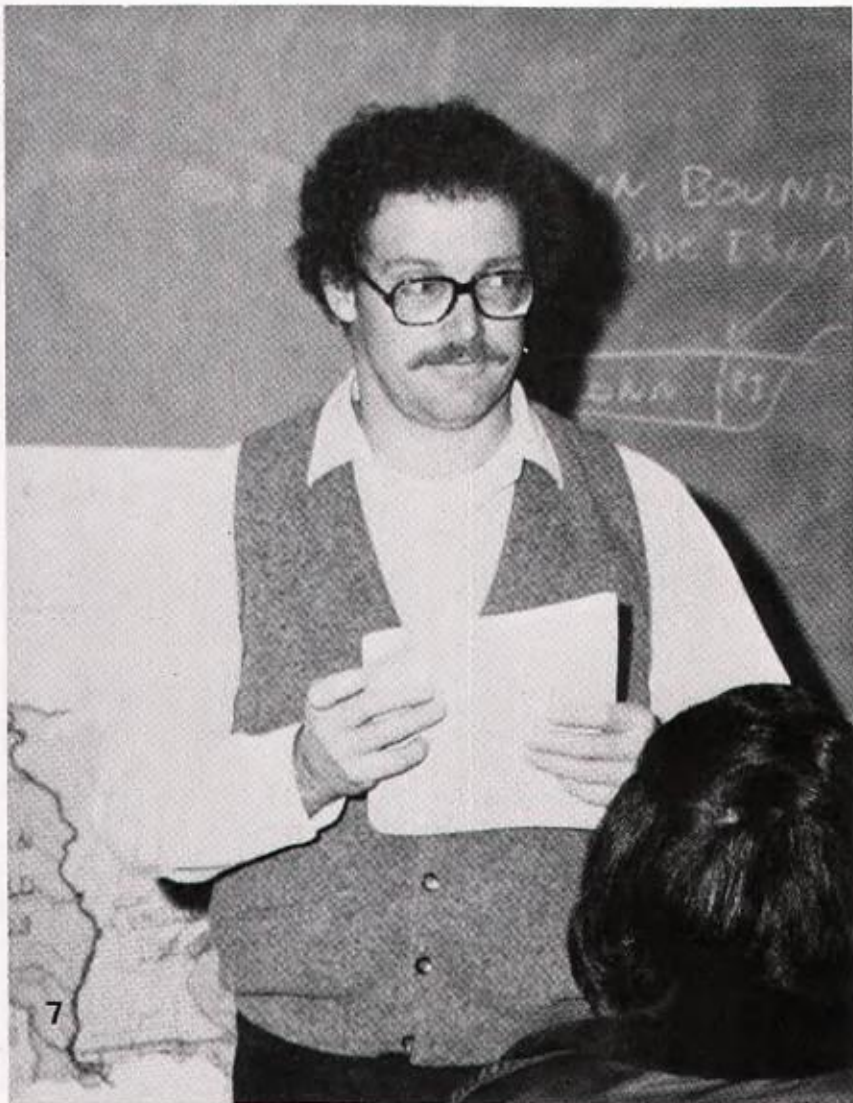

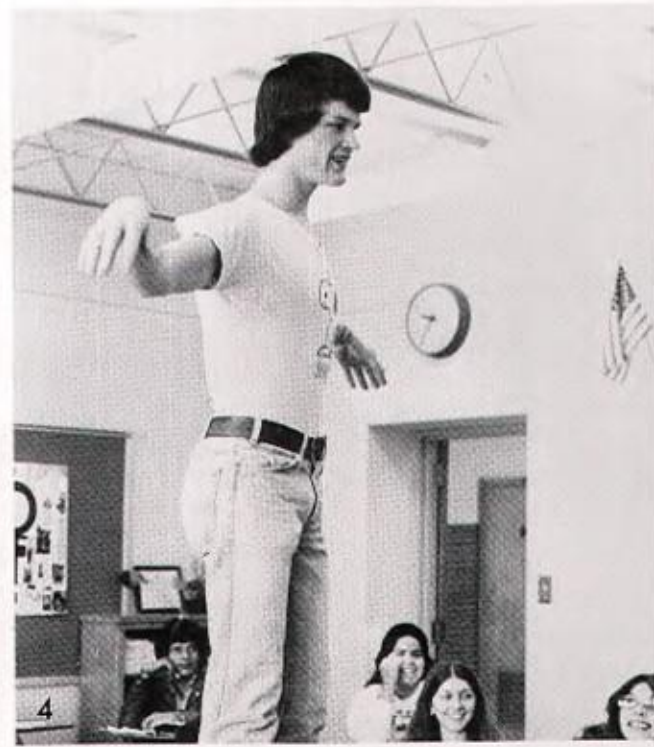

Headed by Mr. Frank Chambers, the Social Studies Department was busy this year preparing for the big change that will come with the freshmen next year.

Plans were made for a survey course which will include studies in Anthropology, Economics, Geography, and general history. The teachers hoped that students would explore these areas further.

But the biggest change for the department was the preparation for the incoming 300 ninth graders and the hiring of two to three new teachers.

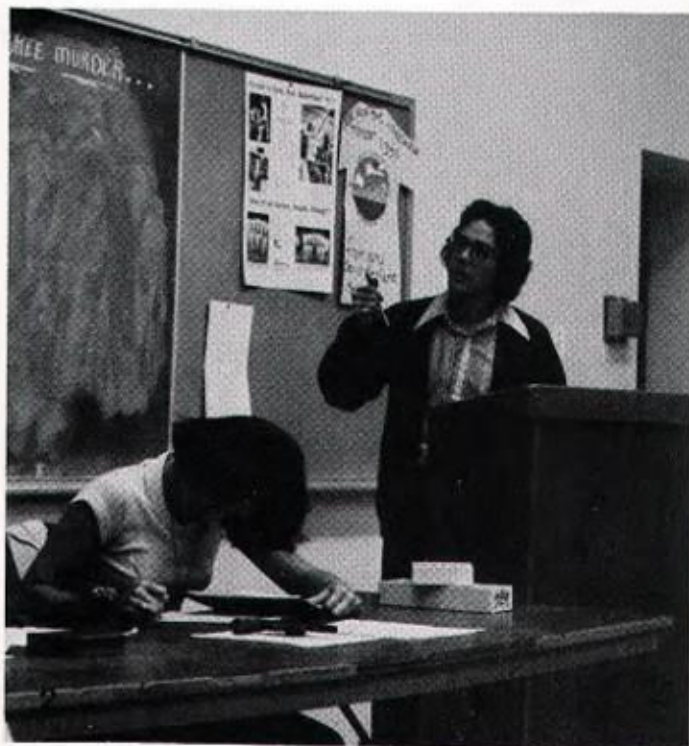

An economics class was also considered along with other courses for sophomores.

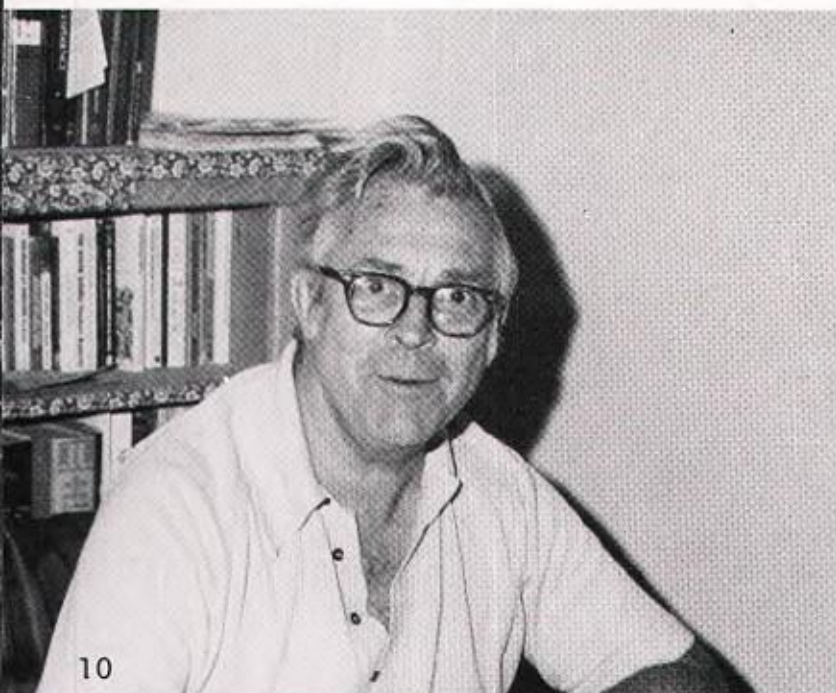

1 - Christine Willis - MA in Psychology; Sociology, World History. 2 - Marlene Lucero checks the selection of books for a report in U.S. History. 3 - Preparing a report for his world history class is Anthony Flores. 4 - Tim Kinne uses emphasis to demonstrate a point for his sociology class. 5 - Ms. Seeley gives help to Michael Peshlakai. 6 - Simmie Plummer - MA in Liberal Arts Education; U.S. History, Anthropology, Great Ideas. 7 - James Brown - MA in education; Ancient, Military, Medieval, U.S. History. 8 - Lawrence Cook - MA in Special Education; Reading and Writing Improvement, U.S. History, Reading Coordination. 9 - Donna Valdez concentrates on a U.S. history test. 10 - Colleen Seely - BA in Education; U.S. History, Sophomore English.

Frank Chambers Heads History Department

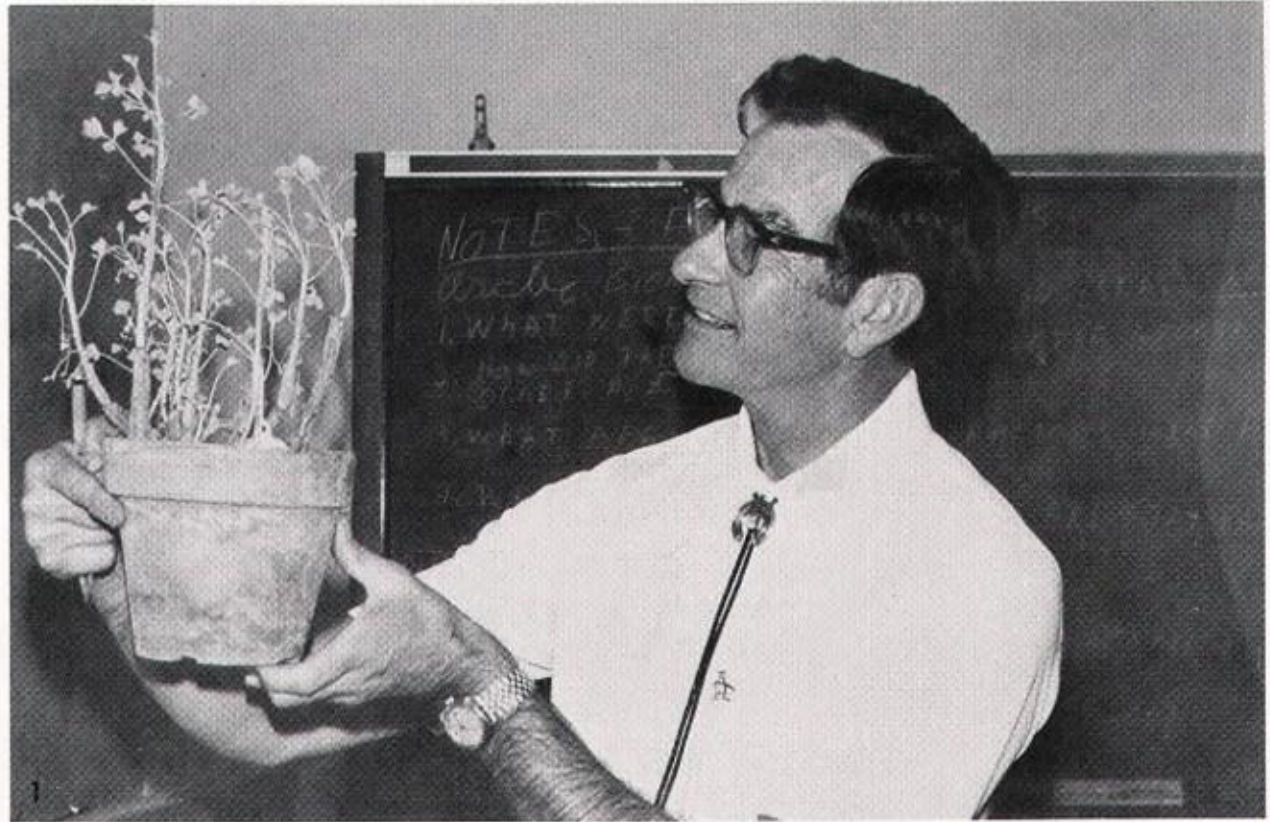

1 - Mr. Chambers, new head of Social Studies department, discusses topics for a quiz. 2 - Victor Cansino, student in Mr. Ewing's Government class acts as assistant defense attorney in Mary Ann Mann's mock murder trial. 3 - Anne Moore works on World History project in the Media Center. 4 - Buddy Robertson - MS in Administration and Physical Education; History of Sports 5 - Phillip Ewing - BS in Education; U.S. History, Comparative American Government, Comparative World Communism. 6 - Mr. Ewing lectures on Civil War in his U.S. History class. 7 - Frank Chambers - MA in Administration; U.S. History, Social Studies. 8 - Defendant Mary Ann Mann confers with assistant defense attorney Victor Cansino in her mock murder trial. 9 - Nancy Lasell Rector - BA in English and Social Studies; Social Psychology. 10 - Jack Phillips - MA in History; World History, U.S. History. 11 - How to handle large crowds was topic in Ms. Plumbers Social Studies class.

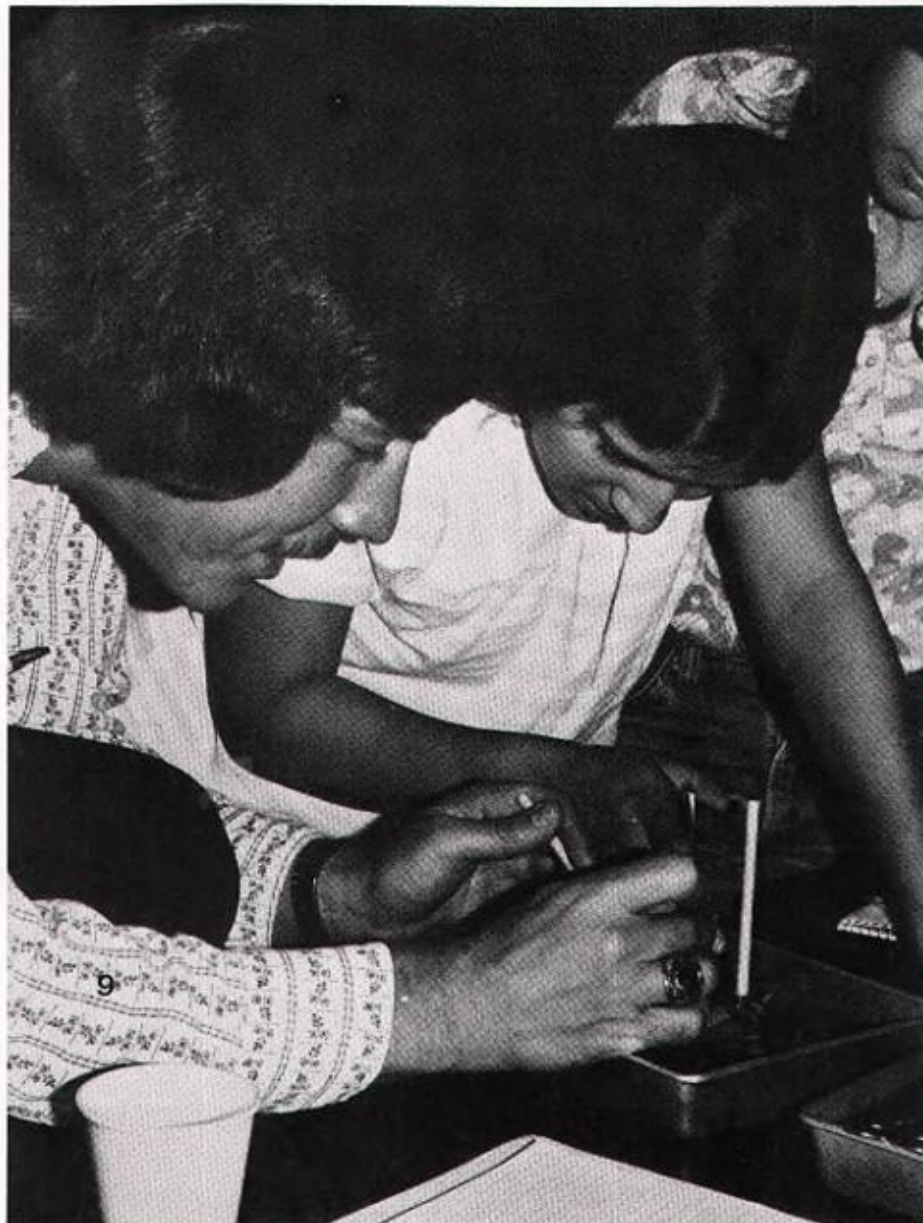

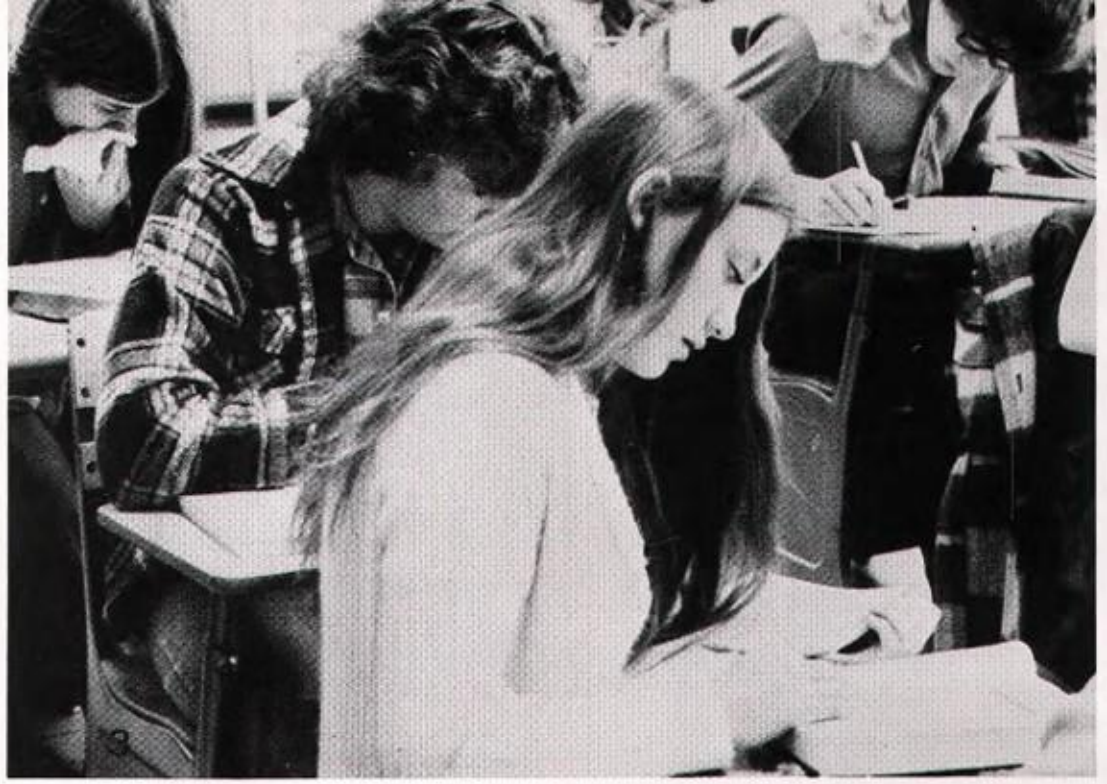

Science Department Looks Toward Split

1 - Plant structure is explained by Mr. Iden. 2 - Jack Harney's pencil serves as an appropriate tool for examining bacteria growth. 3- Susie Garrison tries to comprehend what is said to be the impossible chemistry. 4 - George Gonzales - USAF Rt.; ROTC, Aerospace Education. 5 - Mr. Sord takes a quick glance away from his book during his physics class. 6 - Victor Cline - BS in Science; ROTC, Aerospace Education. 7 - Biology II students watch as Mr. Gruner attempts to open the mouth of a dead snake. 8 - Assisting one of his students, Mr. Duffey explores the insides of a frog.

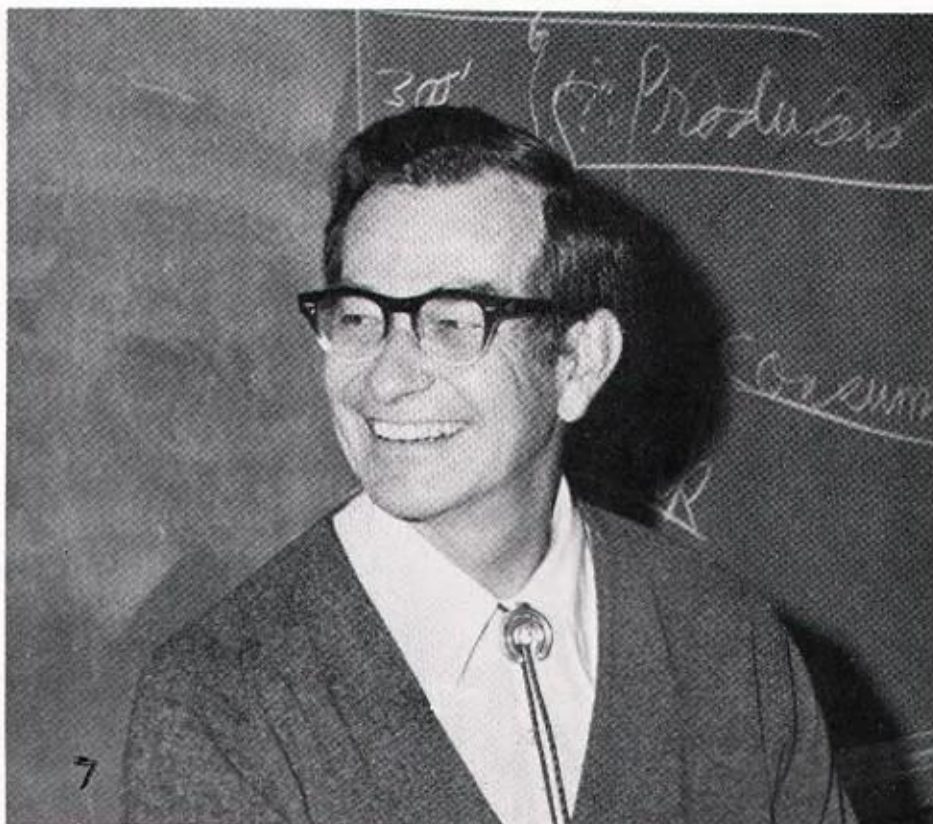

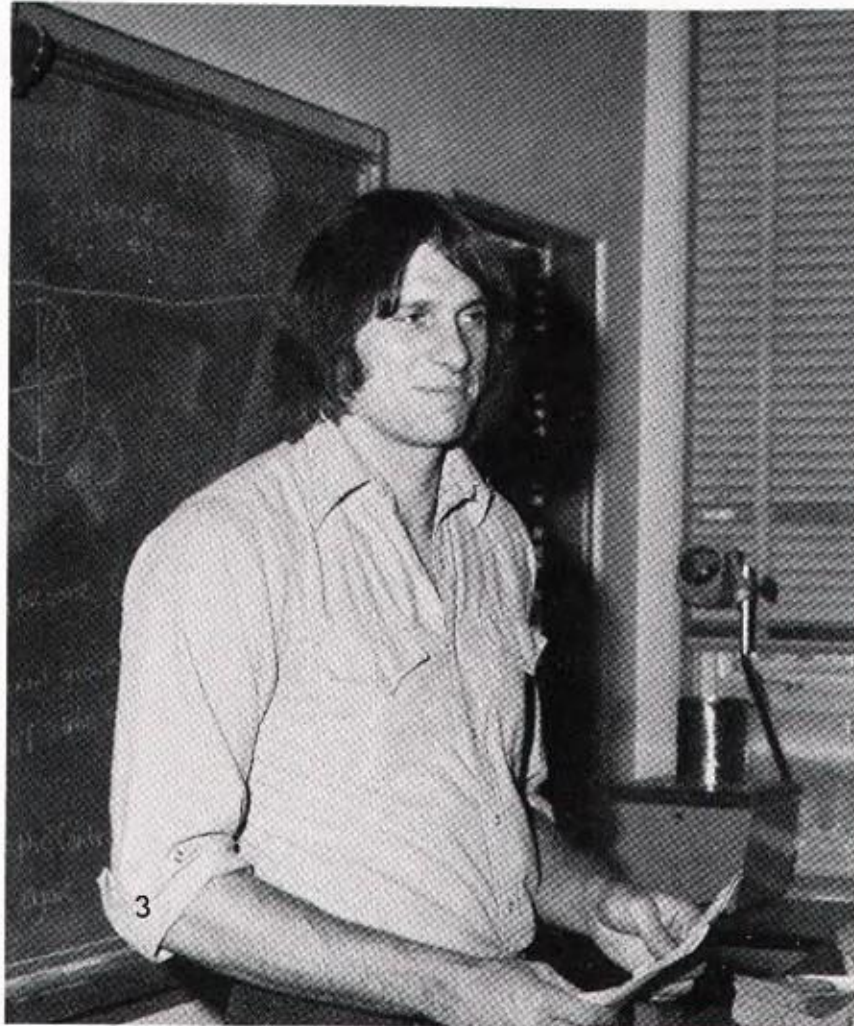

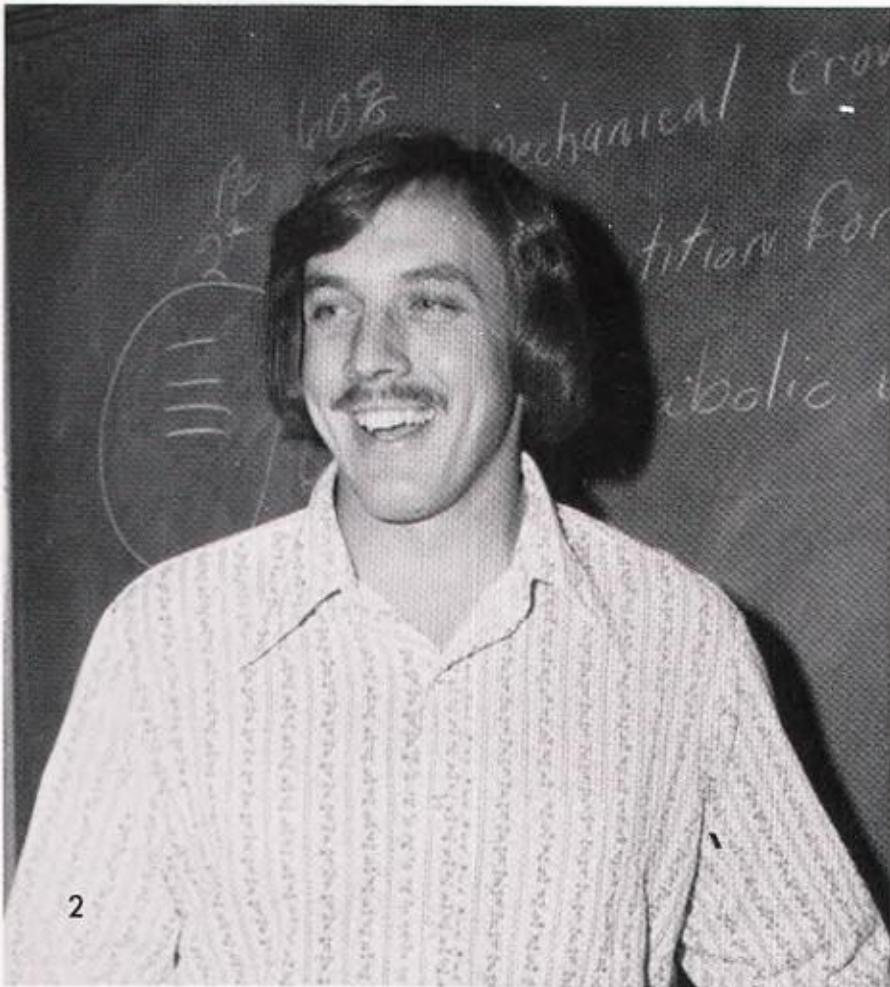

To prepare for next year's freshmen, the Science Department set up a new system of class choices. The system itself will offer many more class selections, including an Enriched Biology I class for advanced students. Members of the department are looking forward to a big change; a new department. The department will be split into two separate buildings unlike any other school in APS.

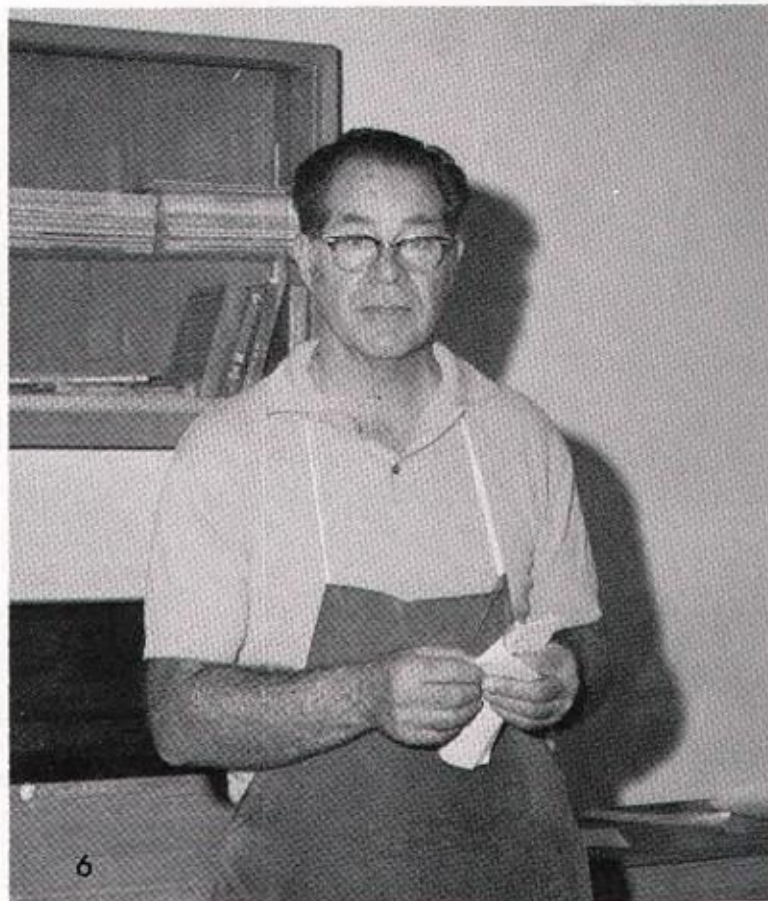

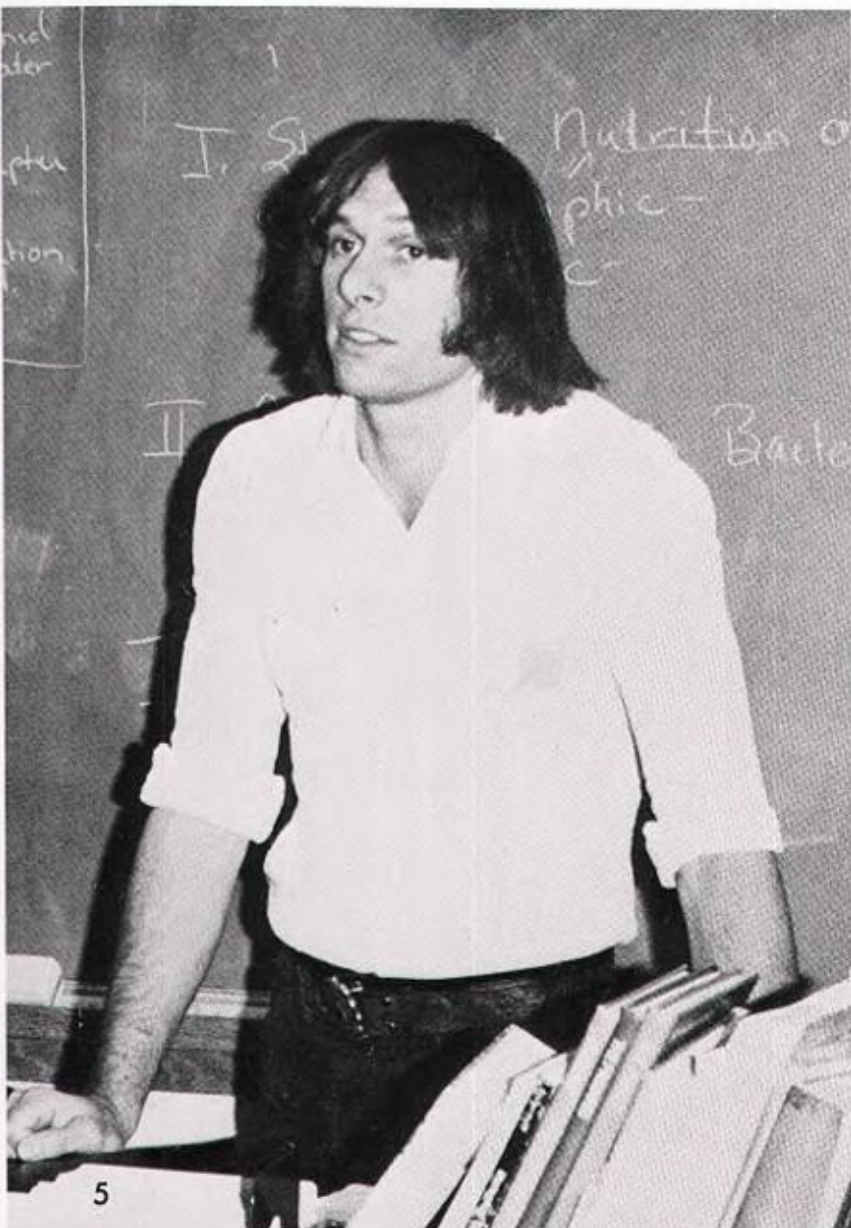

Science Department Prepares for Four Year High School

1 - Michael Gruner - MA in Teaching Science; Biology I, Biology II, Zoology. 2 - Jerry Duffey - BS in Physical Education; Biology I. 3 - John Whitson - BS in Science and Physical Education; Biology, Ecology. 4 - Microscopic interest is shown by Kathy Maxwell as she prepares for her experiment. 5 - A questioning expression over comes Mr. Whitson's face as he lectures to his class. 6 - Ed DiNello - MA in Secondary Education; Department Head, Chemistry. 7 - Robert E. Iden - MS in Science; Biology I. 8 - Mr. Duffey and his lab assistant, Nini Sanchez, prepare for class experiments. 9 - Patricia Bodwell - BS in Chemistry and Zoology; Biology I, Human Body/Animal Behavior.

For the first time ever at Valley, a girl, Debbie Branda, was selected to receive the West Point Leadership Award. The award, presented by Col. Michael Petrino, is given by the members of the West Point Association of Albuquerque, who are graduates of West Point. The other three nominees were Robert Inge, Carl Monk and Dirk Taylor. These four students were nominated by the faculty last spring. The West Point Association later interviewed each student and chose Debbie to receive the award.

D. Branda First Girl to Receive WPL Award

1 - WPL award nominee Robert Inge. 2 - WPL award nominee Dirk Taylor. 3 - Debbie Branda is presented with the WPL award by Col. Petrino while her parents look on. 4 - WPL award nominee Karl Monk.

NHS Raises Record Amount of Money For Scholarships.

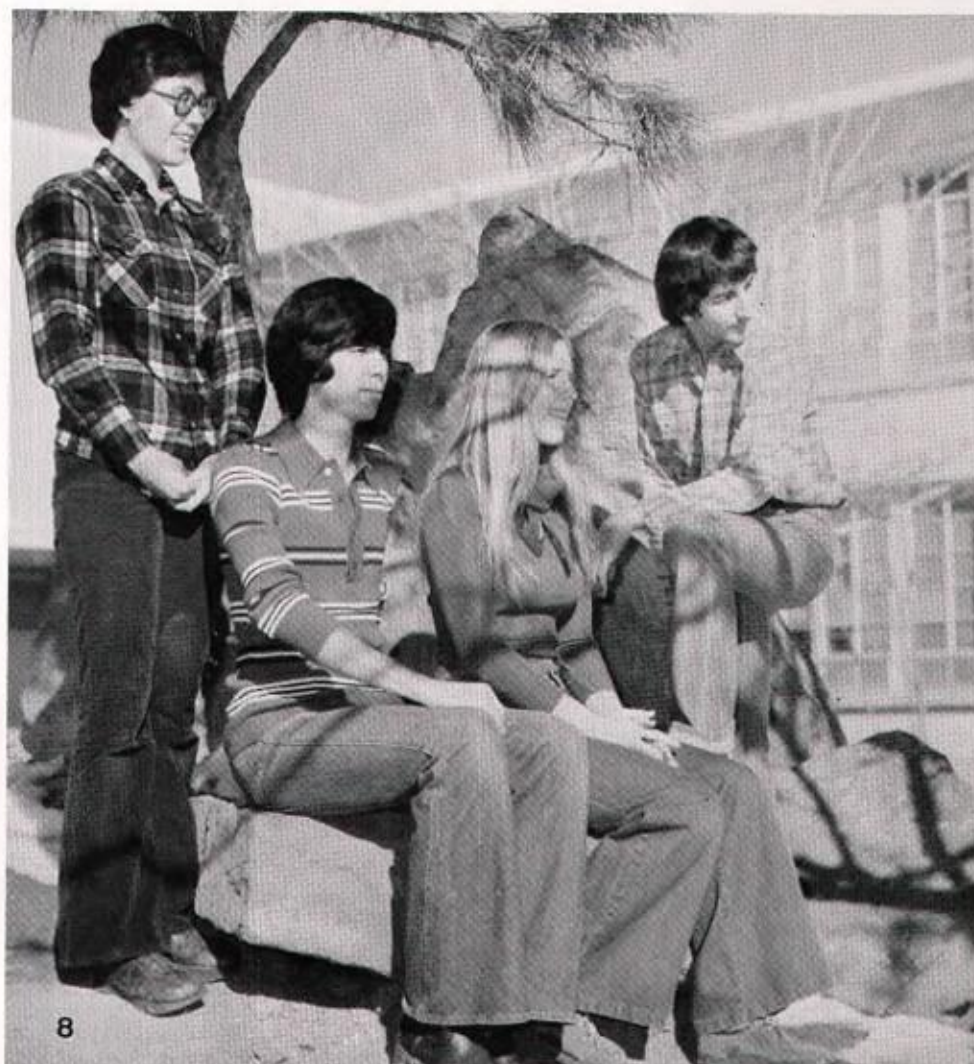

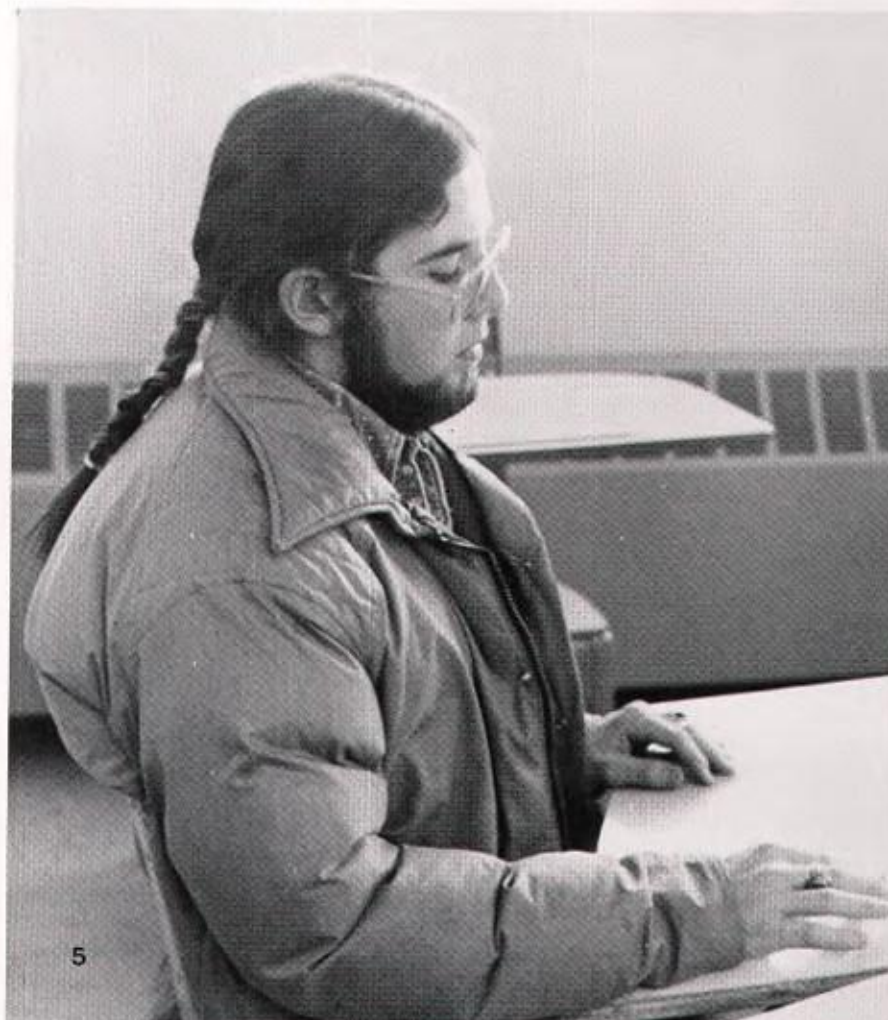

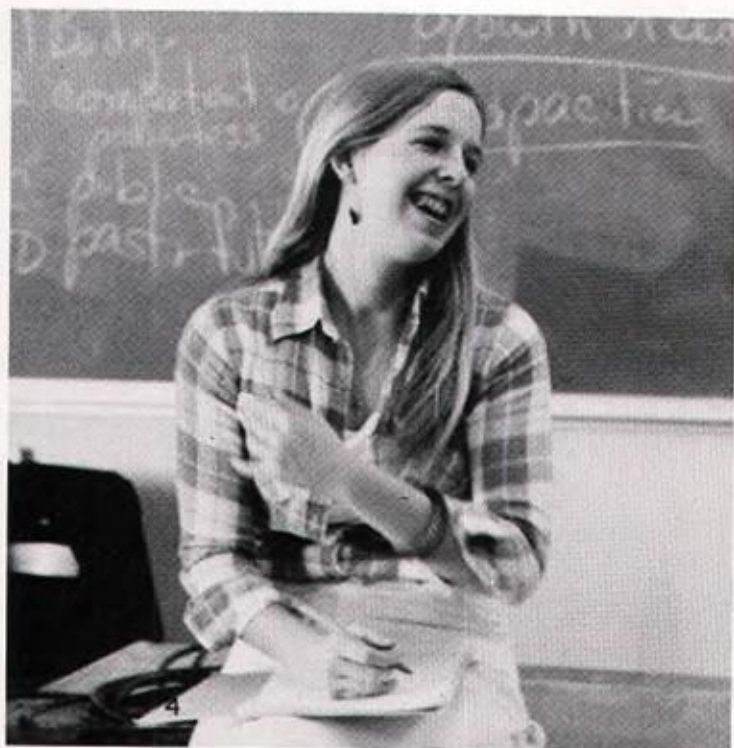

1 - Mrs. Lasell Rector, NHS sponsor, listens to an idea for a money raising project. 2 - After all the UMOC contest work is done, Kathy Merwin smiles. 3 - Members of the National Honor Society are (first row) Carl Monk, Kathy Wilson, Beth Condit, Ann Moore, Matthew Montoya, David Castillo, Mark Sternhagen, Ralph Saavedra, Clay Pryor, Linda Ortman, Lee Keller; (second row) Theresa Coats, Susan Garcia, Kari Hendrison, Lis Hernandez, Allison Gentile, Scott Reeder, Susan Long; (third row) Robert Inge, Pam Buffington, Kathy Merwin, Dirk Taylor. 4 - NHS President Pam Buffington has a good time taking notes. 5 - Lee Keller relaxes after a hard day at UMOC campaigning. 6 - Paying close attention to what the speaker has to say is Theresa Coats. 7 - Thinking their ideas out are, Pam Buffington and Anne Moore. 8 - Officers this year were Pam Buffington, president; Matthew Montoya, vice-president; Beth Condit, secretary; Ralph Saavedra, treasurer.

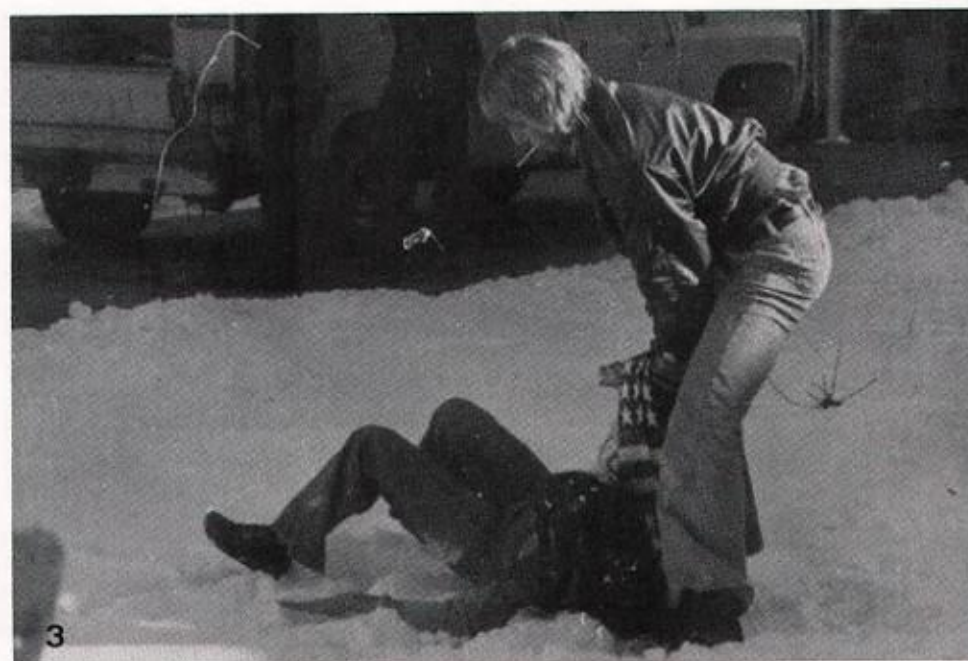

In National Honor Society's annual Ugliest Man on Campus contest, the ugly men (selected by their respective class senates) raised $1,085.28 as a "tribute to their ugliness". Randy Longenbaugh, keeping up a family tradition began by his brother Mark (class of '75), topped his underclass competitors with a total of $720.49. Junior Chris Long followed with $269.44; Sophomore Phil Houser was last with $95.35.

Student Members of NHS maintained a GPA of 3.5 in their sophomore and junior years and were selected by faculty vote.

Theresa Anaya Elected First Female Key Club President

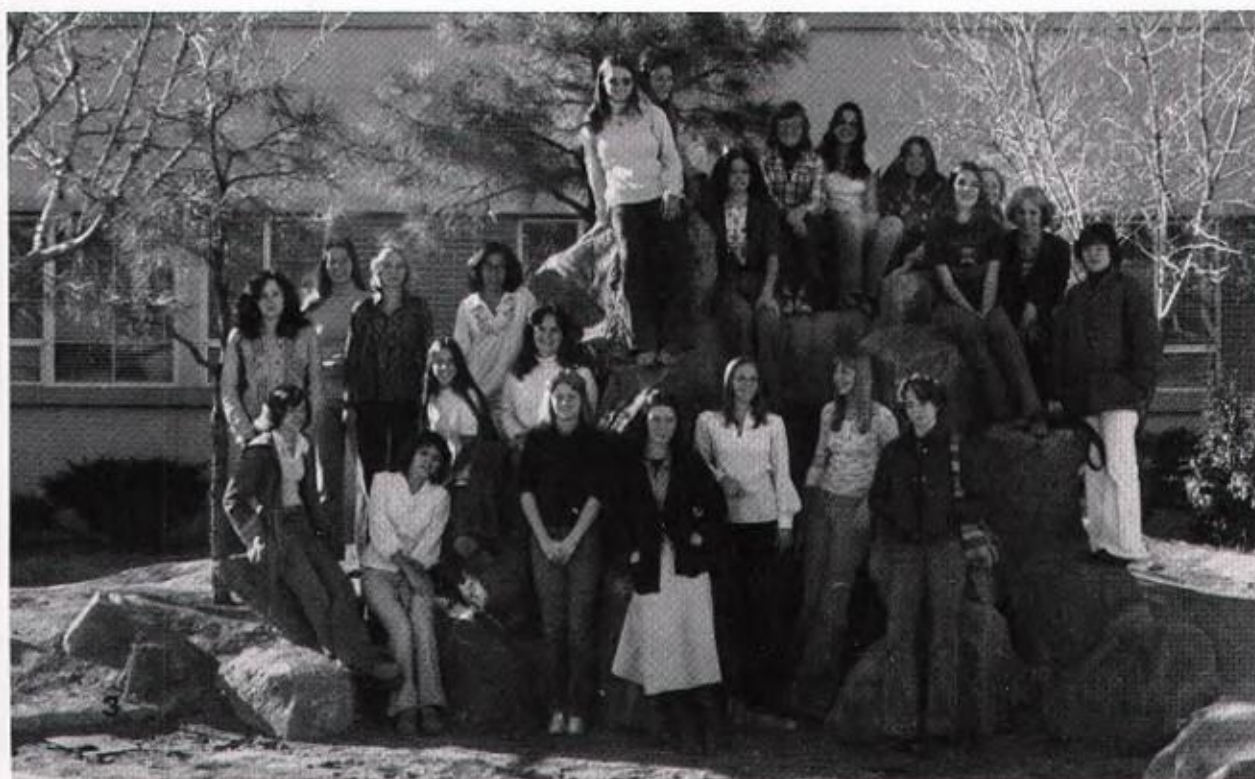

Key club started its second year as a co-ed club by electing its first female president, Theresa Anaya, and vice president, Lynn Anderson. What was once an exclusively boys' club had a membership of almost all girls as only two boys joined. Selling Halloween insurance and working a booth at the Boosters Chili Dinner were some of the group's projects.

1- Theresa Anaya, Scott Weaver, and Sandy Gore "monkey around" in the Media Center. 2- Key Club members include (first row) Darlene Velasquez, Katrina Van Kesteren, Ellena Sandoval, Kathy Allen, Ann Lackey, Theresa Anaya, Rene Fugate; (second row) Lynn Anderson, Rudy Chavez, Frederica Carnes, Sandy Gore, Scott Weaver, Ronna Reed, and Tricia Brady. 3- Scott Weaver terrorizes a fellow Key Club member after a snow storm. 4- Key Club officers are Lynn Anderson, vice president; Theresa Anaya, president; and Kathy Allen, secretary.

Club Raises Money for French Classes

Les Amis Francis lived up to its name, "The French Friends," by raising money to buy educational aids for the French classes that were otherwise unaffordable on School funds. Candy sales were the real money makers for this project aimed at making French more relevant and exiting.

Les Amis Francais attended their annual Univeristy of New Mexico-sponsored French students' retreat in Glorieta, New Mexico. The students learned about the culture, language, and geography of France.

1- Ann Lackey and Lynn Anderson work on some translations before a meeting. 2- Francie Smith hosts the Les Amis Francais Christmas party in her home. 3- Club members are (first row) Sharon Orwat, Diana Ozanich, Marni Frauenglass, Ingela Ronn, Tricia Brady, Janine Brackett, Ann Lackey, Ann Blue, Mary Ann Mann, Rachel Zietlow, (second row) Theresa Coots, Patrice Curry, Ms. Linda Barton, club sponsor; Sheryl Shea, Clara Griego, Vernae Goodwin, (third row) Kathy Pendery, Lemae Goodwin, Rebecca DeVilliers, Catherine Rio, Shelley Shea, Claudia Fickas, and Frederica Carnes. 4- Club officers include Clara Griego, president; Francie Smith, historian; Claudia Fickas, secretary-treasurer; and Mary Ann Mann, vice president.

DECA Sponsors Dance For Free Enterprise Week

Learning the inner functions of running a sales business, learning to use a cash register, learning how to cope under pressured situations and being furnished with jobs were Valley's chapter of Distributive Education Clubs of America's main functions.

Serving as a service club as well as a vocational club DECA sponsored a canned food drive and a toy drive in December. A dance, a breakfast meeting and a city wide conference were held during Free Enterprise Week in November. DECA is also responsible for running the snackbar.

1 - Checking to make sure that everything totals up correctly in the snackbar is Margaret Segura. 2 - DECA members include (first row) Debbie Lucero, Mike Levya, Lydia Martinez, Elaine Otero, Mary Chavez, Christine Apodaca, Jeanne Scherf, Pam Manzanares, Ralph Bock and Gene Wipple; (second row) Felipita Garcia, Christopher Garcia, Dennis Cordova, Leilani Rowe, Richard Garcia, Robert Miller, and Rudolph Baca; (third row) Kenny Chavez, Mark Montoya, Leroy Santillanes and Danny McCallister. 3 - An early morning cup of coffee is just what Richard Garcia and Michael Peshlakai need before a DECA meeting. 4 - DECA officers are Mel Martinez, photographer and reporter; Frank McCallister, junior vice president; Christine Baca, secretary; Kenny Chavez, chaplin; Keanna Cain, treasurer; Danny McCallister, vice president; Debbie Lucero, president; and Keith Emord, junior vice president. 5 - Ms. McMullen, Debbie Lucero and Danny McCallister prepare for one of their DECA meetings. 6 - Breakfast for Rita Torrez is one of the many pastimes before a DECA meeting. 7 - Danny Romero scarfs up his pancakes at an early morning DECA meeting. 8 - Taking inventory is one of the many duties for George Freeman.

Ski Club: "Oh, No! No Snow!"

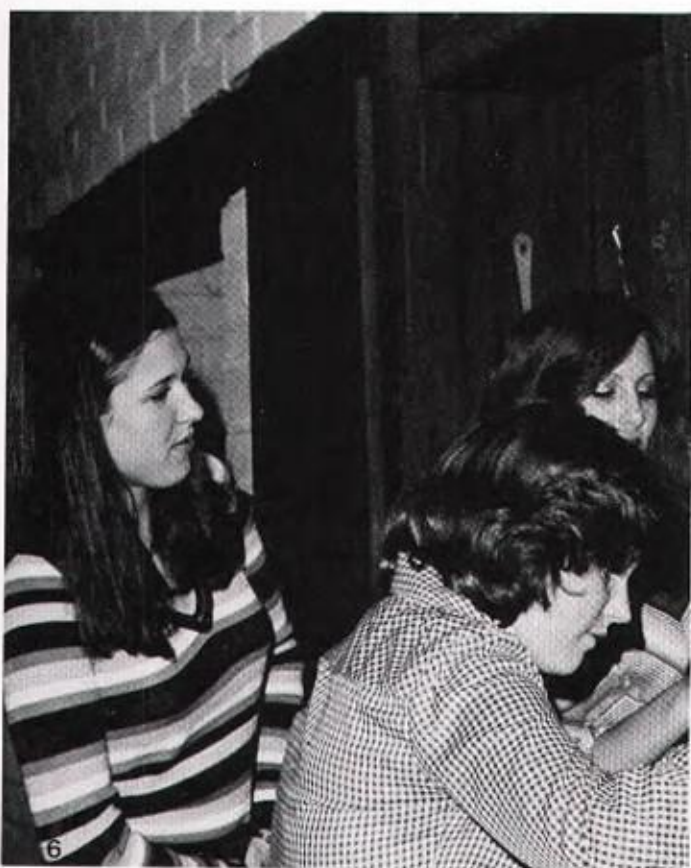

Snow??? While easterners dug out from under literally tons of snow, we westerners, especially the VHS Ski Club members gazed longingly at the sky, hoping for a few flakes—preferably about 20 inches for a base and all the powder we could get. No such luck. No snow; no ski trip to Purgatory.

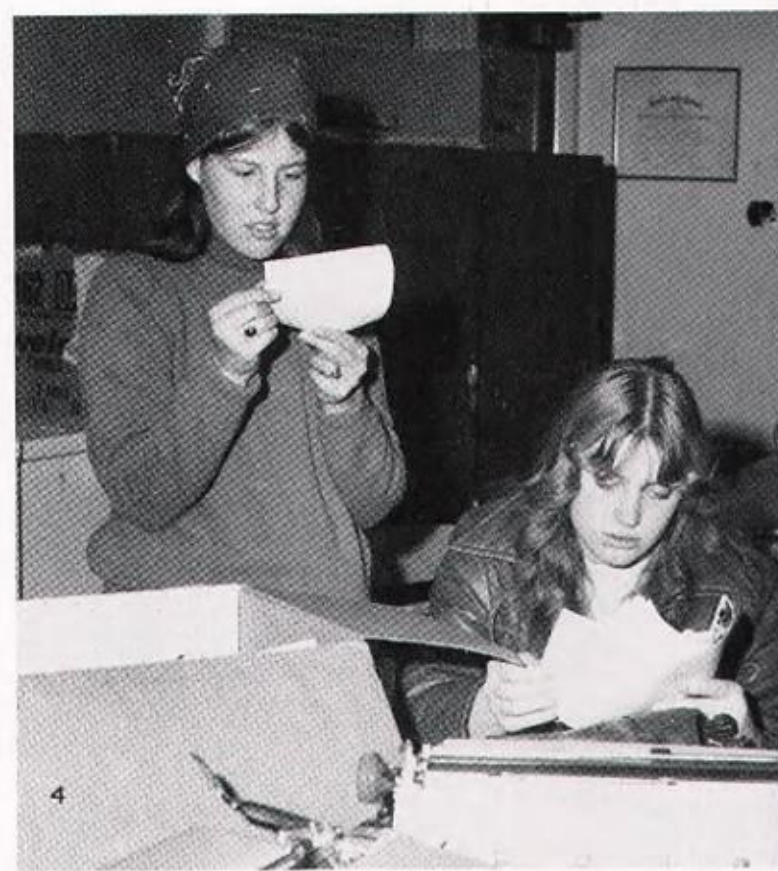

Lack of funds was no problem for a change, as the club had many money-raising projects. The members held two raffles, raffling a necklace and a ski sweater. They also sold a number of luminarias at Christmas time.

Since the money wasn't used for the trip, the skiers planned to have a big end-of-the-year party.

1 - Kathy Merwin and Liz Houston discuss other means of using their hard-earned money. 2 - Ski club officers are Annette Rael, treasurer; Claudia McCulloch, secretary; David Otero, vice president; Geri Everett, president. 3 - Enjoying another planning meeting are Shelley Gunn, David Otero, Ted Otero, and Kathy Merwin. 4 - Shane Yost prepares for a down hill race on dirt? 5 - Ski club members include Liz Houston, Carolyn Rose, Beth Long, Janet Everett, David Otero, Claudia McCulloch, Shane Yost, Sandy Gore, Ted Otero, Annette Rael, Pam Buffington, Sheila Rose, Geri Everett. 6 - Connie Hansen, Karen Smith and Leanne Shollenbarger enjoy a pot-luck dinner at a meeting. 7 - Geri Everett does her presidential thing. 8 - David Otero and Shane Yost find it difficult to hot dog in the dirt. 9 - Trying to decide whose equipment is whose are Janet Everett, Beth Long, and Sandy Gore.

Legend Adopts News Magazine Format

Three-year veteran Claudia McCulloch headed this year's Viking Legend staff through many exciting changes in format. The newspaper added four additional pages to the previous year's four-page paper, creating an eight-page news magazine. This made for crazy and chaotic, but nevertheless interesting and fun deadlines. Published once a month, the Legend's emphasis was on in-depth feature stories.

The Legend also went through various staff changes. Claudia and Miranda Eastham were co-editors during the first semester, heading the publication of three issues of the paper. Then, keeping the Legend afloat second semester by taking on all the newspaper's business responsibilities, Miranda became managing editor. Page editors throughout the year included Diana Parker, Clara Rael, Carolyn Rose, Vicki Peacock, Kathy Lamkin, James McGovern, and Jennifer Lackner. In her final year of advising the staff was Ms. Sharon Ball.

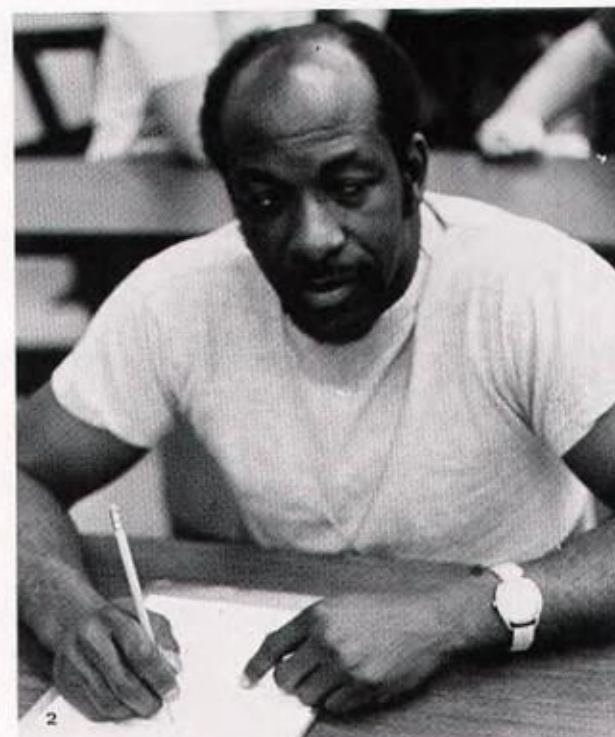

1 - Legend staff includes (bottom row), Carolyn Rose, Gilbert Valenzuela, Elaine Apodaca, Stephanie Padilla, Carla Rael, Miranda Eastham, Cheryl Garcia, Terry Ortiz, Tonia Munoz, Viola Agular, Lelani Chavez, and Dianna Parker; (top row) Charles Maes, Claudia McCulloch, Kelly Kloeppel, Vicki Peacock, Shirley Garcia, Anthony Vigil, Kathy Lamkin, Jennifer Lackner, Annette Rael, Brenda Couch, and Sandy Garcia. 2 - Legend editor, Claudia McCulloch, is debating on whether or not to put an ad on her page. 3 - Claudia McCulloch, Jennifer Lackner, Gilbert Valenzuela, and Kathy Lamkin tackle a lay out problem during Legend paste up. 4 - Dianna Parker and Brenda Couch look over some pictures for a layout. 5 - Editors include Jennifer Lackner, features; Stephanie Padilla, page; Kathy Lamkin, sports; Clara Rael, features; Carolyn Rose news; Miranda Eastham, managing editor; Dianna Parker, features; Vicki Peacock, sports; and Claudia McCulloch, THE. 6 - Clara Rael, Donna Duphry, and Vicki Peacock discuss ideas for stories in the next paper. 7 - Dianna Parker and Vicki Peacock rush to get the paste-up finished. 8 - Miranda Eastham smiles as Leslie Hill attempts to get a few ads. 9 - Carolyn Rose shows Kelly Kloeppel how to do paste-up.

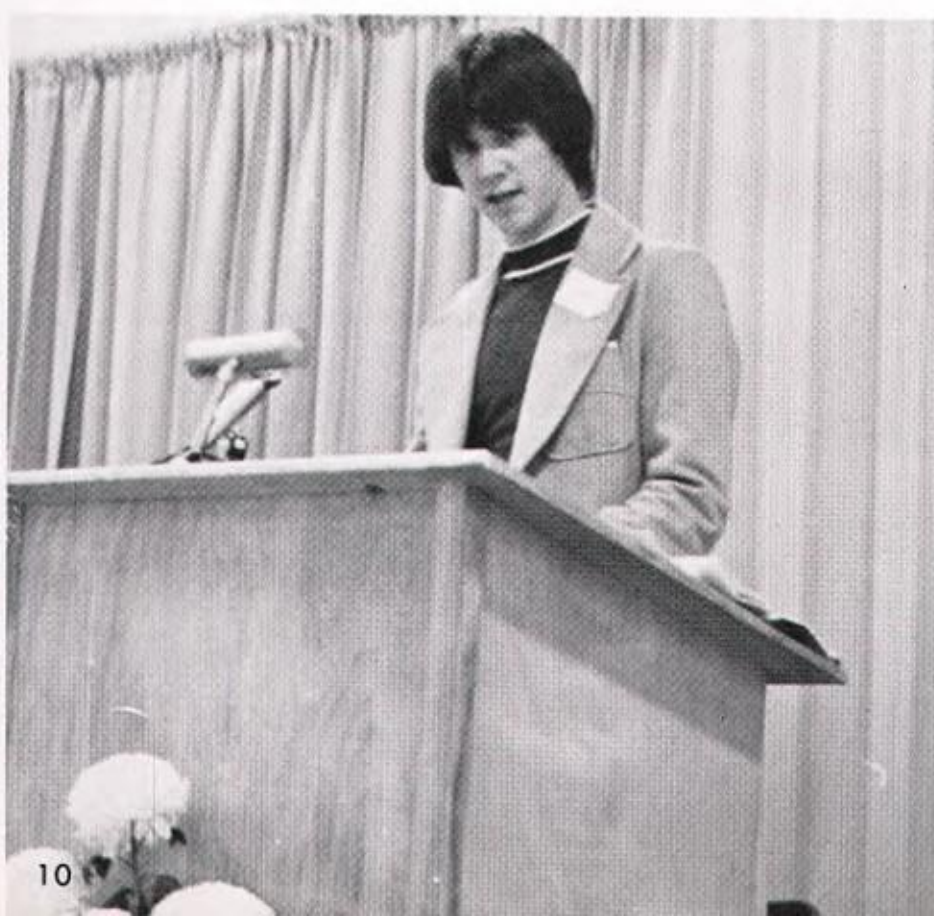

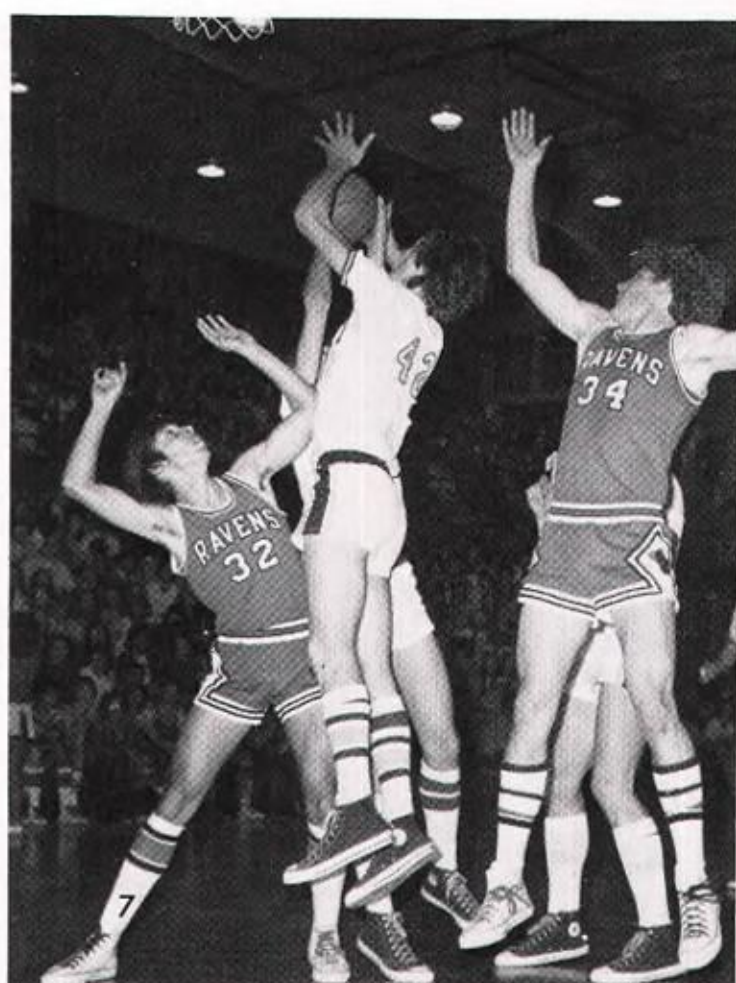

Vikes Enjoy Sun While Easterners Shovel Snow

While winter storms were freezing the rest of the nation, Valley Vikings were fired up with pride with being ranked the Number one basketball team in the state. A controversial riot broke out as rival team Manzano was the first state team to defeat Valley. After a non-district loss to Highland the Vikes dropped in rank to Number two.

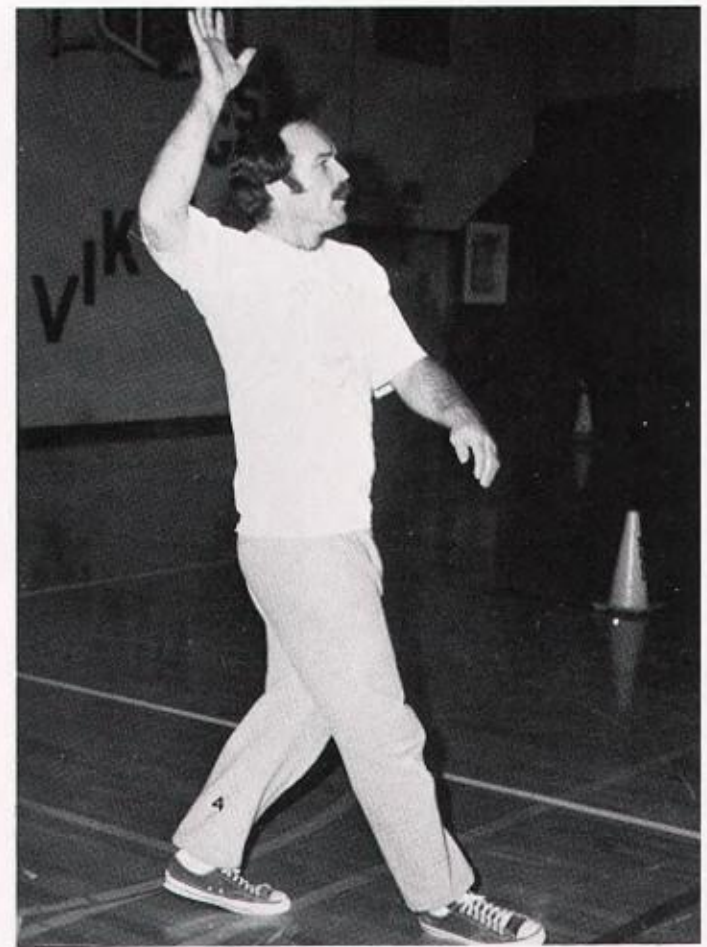

Activities on February's agenda varied from electing Antoinette Montoya as spirit Sweetheart, to going to dances and receiving measles inoculations. Student Council dedicated a week to Steve Griego, a student with leukemia. Homerooms collected money all week for cancer research and to help with Steve's hospital bills. Valley Vikes received another surprise, as Willie Goldsmith took over the position as head football coach.

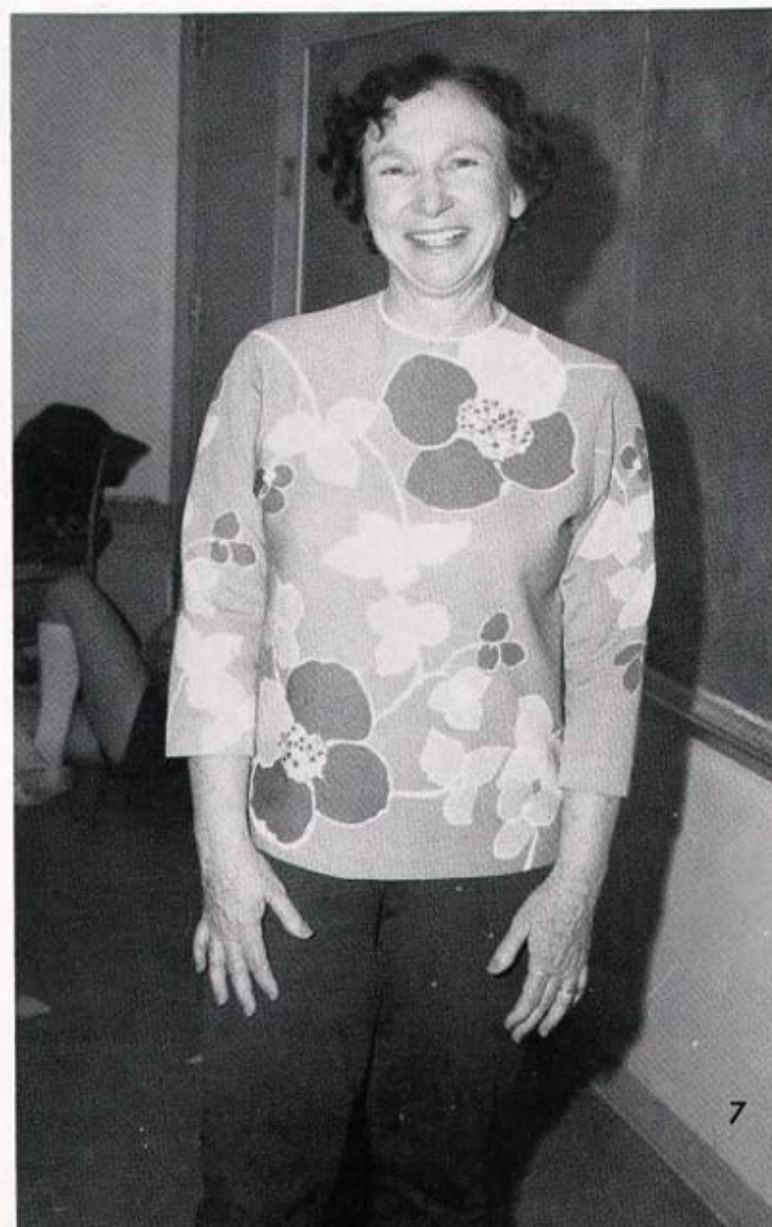

1 - Mr. Craig tells sophomores of the importance of the NEDT test. 2 - Vikes welcome new grid Coach Willie Goldsmith. 3 - Leanne Shollenbarger would gladly give her left arm for a measles shot. 4 - Connie Hansen cracks up at the annual Ski Club banquet. 5 - Disc jockey Jack Stanton from KANW plays a request from Darryl Begay for a dime to go towards the Steve Griego Fund. 6 - Anna Sandoval and Evette Madrid are elated while congratulating Antoinette Montoya for being voted Spirit Sweetheart. 7 - Stanley Sherred once again leaps for the rebound against Rio. 8 - With combined talents Linda Ortman and Glen Holmen "do their thing" at Talent Show tryouts. 9 - James McGovern limbers before the Farmington meet. 10 - Brett Truskowski presents his speech in his unsuccessful bid for State Student Council President.

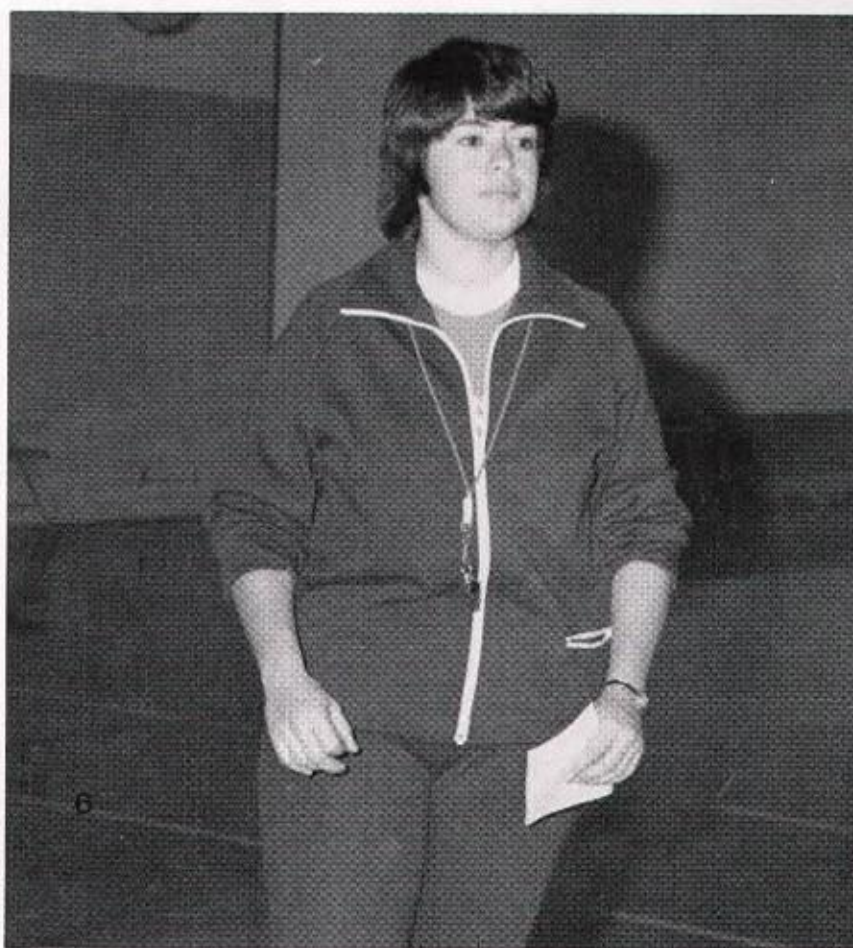

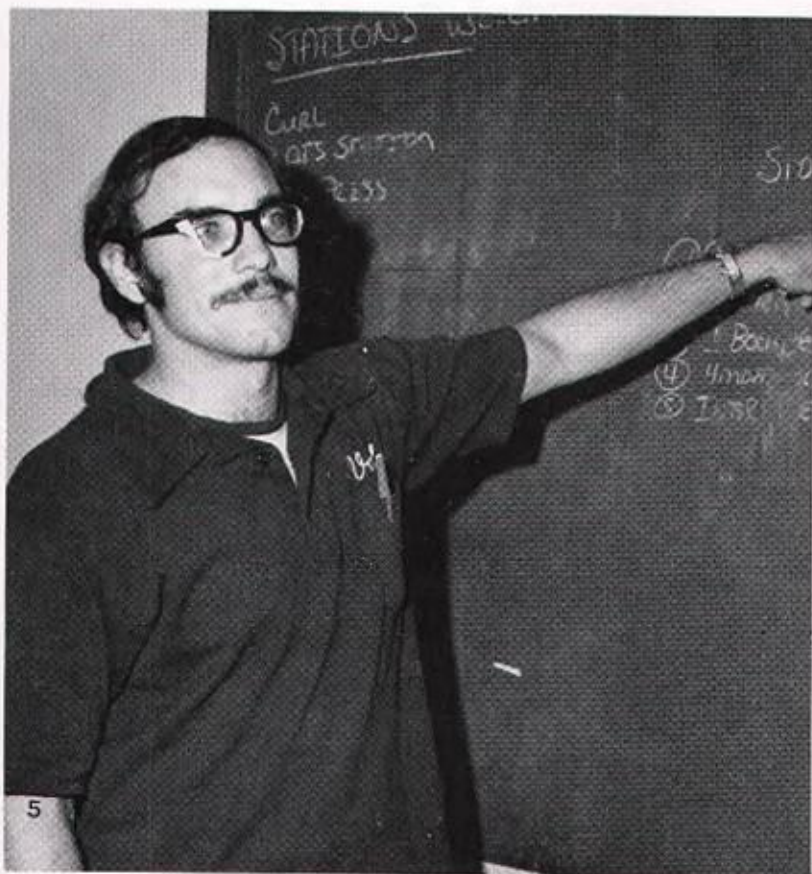

P.E. Classes Grow Exceptionally Large

With a larger number of students enrolled in PE classes and one fewer teacher, department members were extremely overloaded. Courses offered included Co-ed Swimming, Physical Fitness, Women's and Men's PE. But with only two women and three men teaching, classes were very full.

An award was given to students with outstanding athletic ability, the "Presidential Physical Fitness Super Star" program involved many students in the PE department.

1 - Dean Voge - MS, PE; Co-ed Swimming, Boys PE 10, Environmental PE, Co-ed Physical Fitness. 2 - Frankie Olson and Marty Martinez compete in handball. 3 - Dean Voge demonstrates the swan dive. 4 - Del Helton - BS, PE; Boys PE 10, Men's PE 11-12. 5 - Ken Kloeppel - BS, PE; Boys PE 10, Men's PE 11-12. 6 - Yvonne Estrada - Girls PE 10, Women's PE 11-12. 7 - Martha Eubank - MA, Education; Girls PE 10, department head. 8 - Ken Kloeppel explains to a student the proper rules for a press. 9 - Martha Eubank keeps in shape during Physical Fitness Week.

Vikes Take District

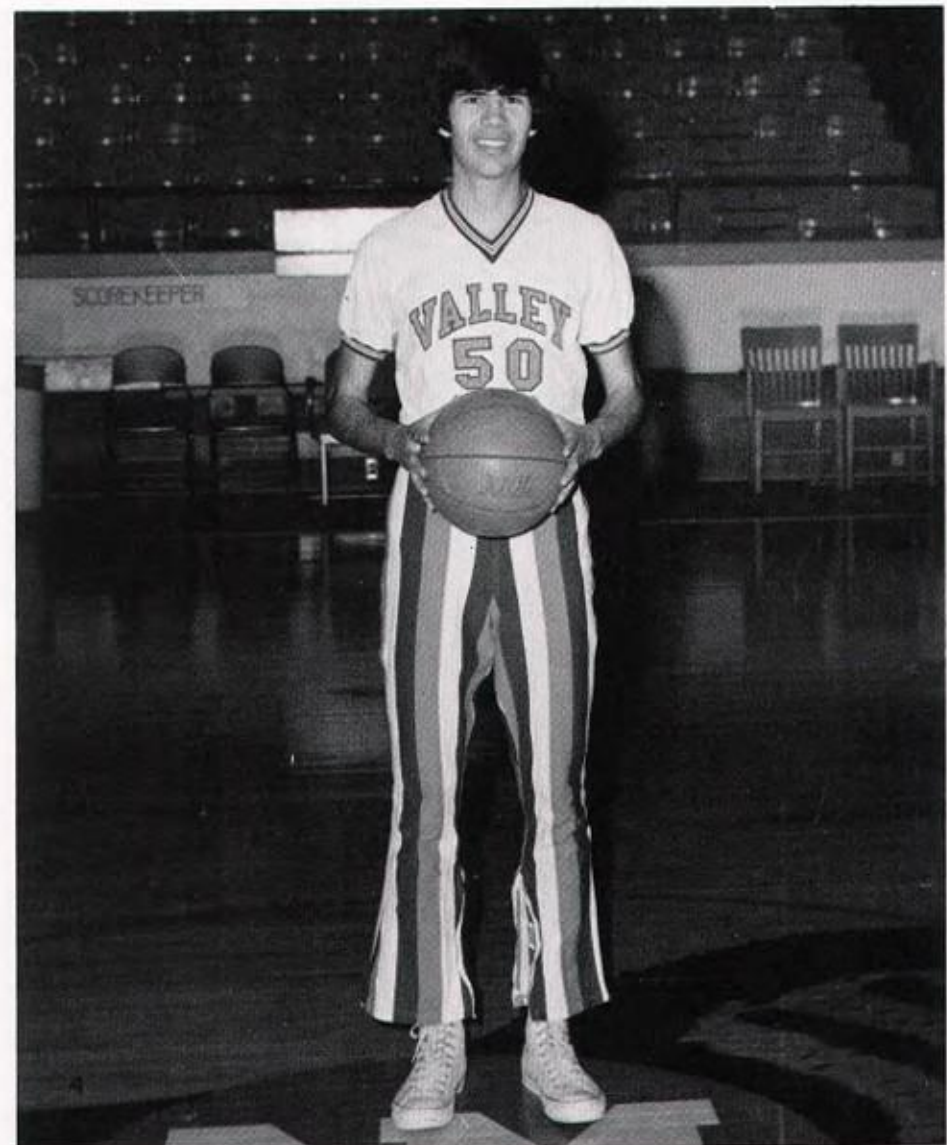

For the third time in four years, Coach Phil Ewing took his Viking cagers to the state Tournament after chalking up one of the best records in years.

During December, the Vikes posted an amazing 7-1 record, losing only to El Paso Irvin in the Hobbs Holiday Tournament. After losing in Hobbs, the Vikings went on to rack up 12 straight victories.

February was disastrous for the roundballers as they lost three of seven games to Manzano, Del Norte, and Highland. After losing to Del Norte, the team ended the season in a tie with Manzano for the regular district championship. The tie forced a play-off game against Manzano. In an exciting, see-saw game, the Vikes took the Monarchs, 67-66 to take the regular season championship for the 2AAAA District. The Vikes met the Monarchs for the fourth time in the season in the District championship game at Eldorado and were defeated, 85-65.

Named to the All-district team were Jay Bobroff, Rip Lambert, and Stanley Sherred. Sherred was also elected to the all-city team when he received more votes than any other city player. Sherred was voted the Tribune's Player of the Week twice, while Jay Bobroff received the honor once.

Going to the State Tournament, the Vikings were the only team in the state to have beaten Hobbs. They lost to them, however, in the first round of the tournament, 100-83. Both Bobroff and Sherred, turning in outstanding individual performances in the State Tournament, were named to the all-tournament team.

Norsemen captured the District 2AAAA title February 26 at Del Norte by defeating defending champions, the Manzano Barons, 58-44. Three Norsemen, Dickie Garcia, Frank Gabaldon and Mike Webster were named to the all-district team.

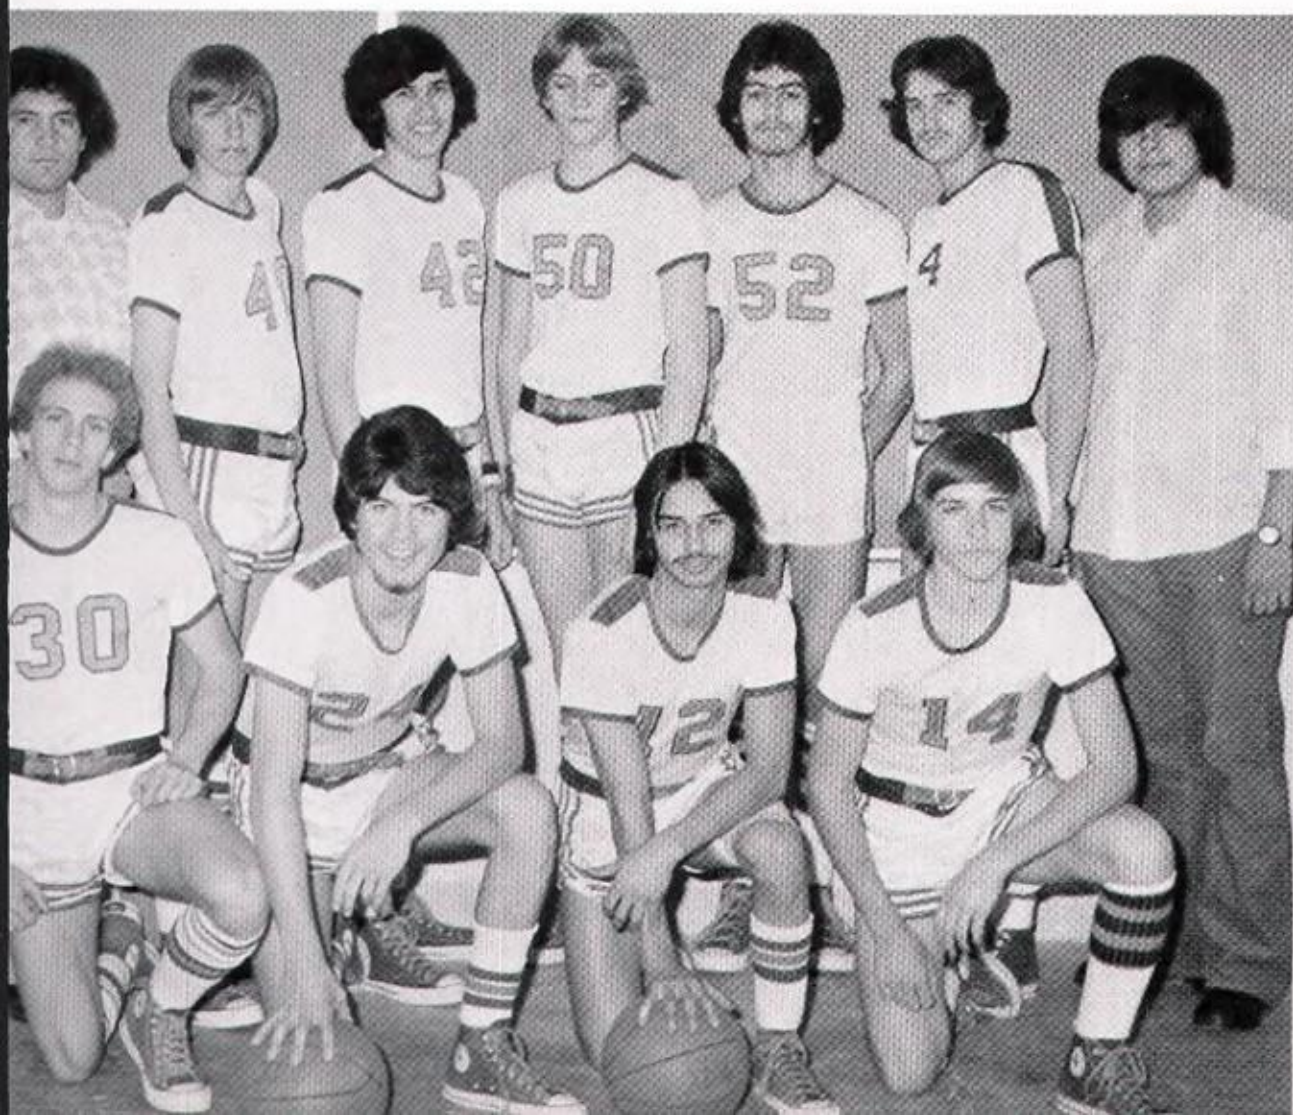

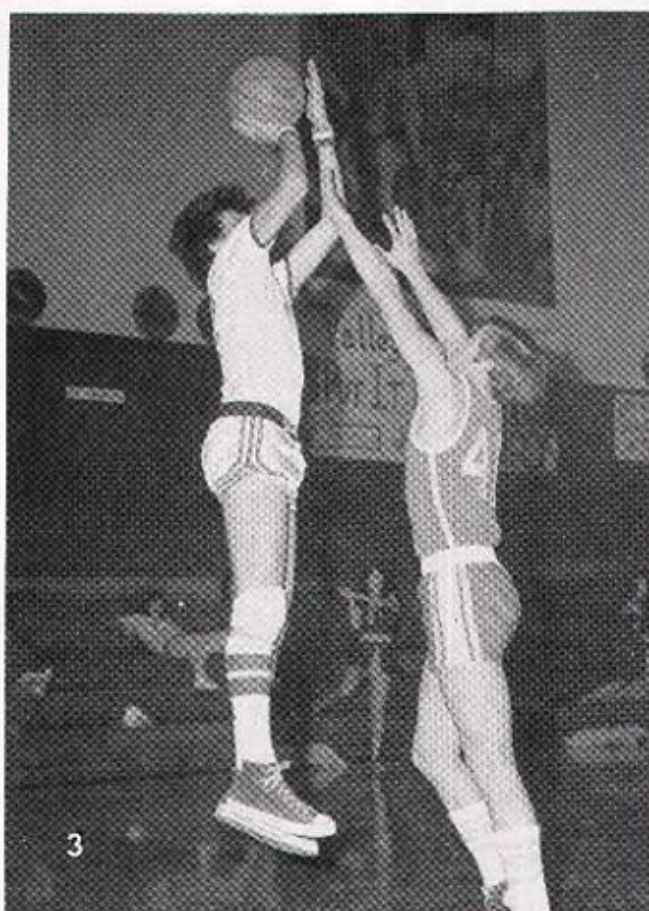

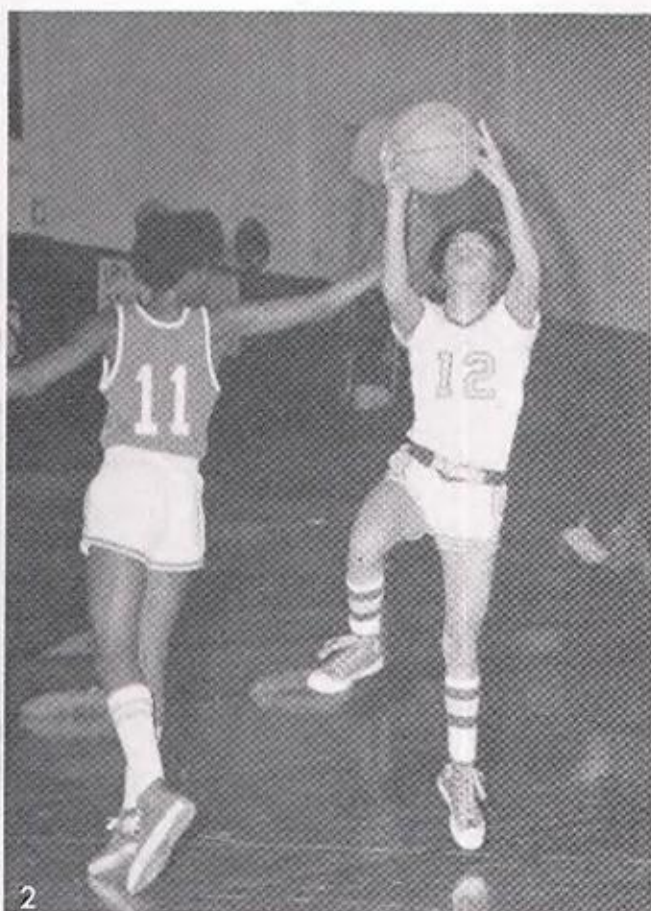

The Junior Varsity ended the season with an outstanding record of 22 wins and 1 loss, with the only loss of the season, a one-point thriller to Highland. Made up of seven juniors and four sophomores, the Junior Varsity had the best season record of any Junior Varsity team in Valley's history.

Coach Ken Kloeppel, has compiled a record of 73 wins and 39 losses in his five seasons as the Junior Varsity coach.

Headed by third-year coach Roger Cordova, the C-team emerged with a highly successful season. Winning 22 and losing only 3, the team showed good leadership and strong bench support throughout the season. The Oarsmen placed second to Eldorado in the C-team tournament, losing a close game, 63 - 60, for the championship.

Fem Cagers Lose in Semifinals to Defending State Champions

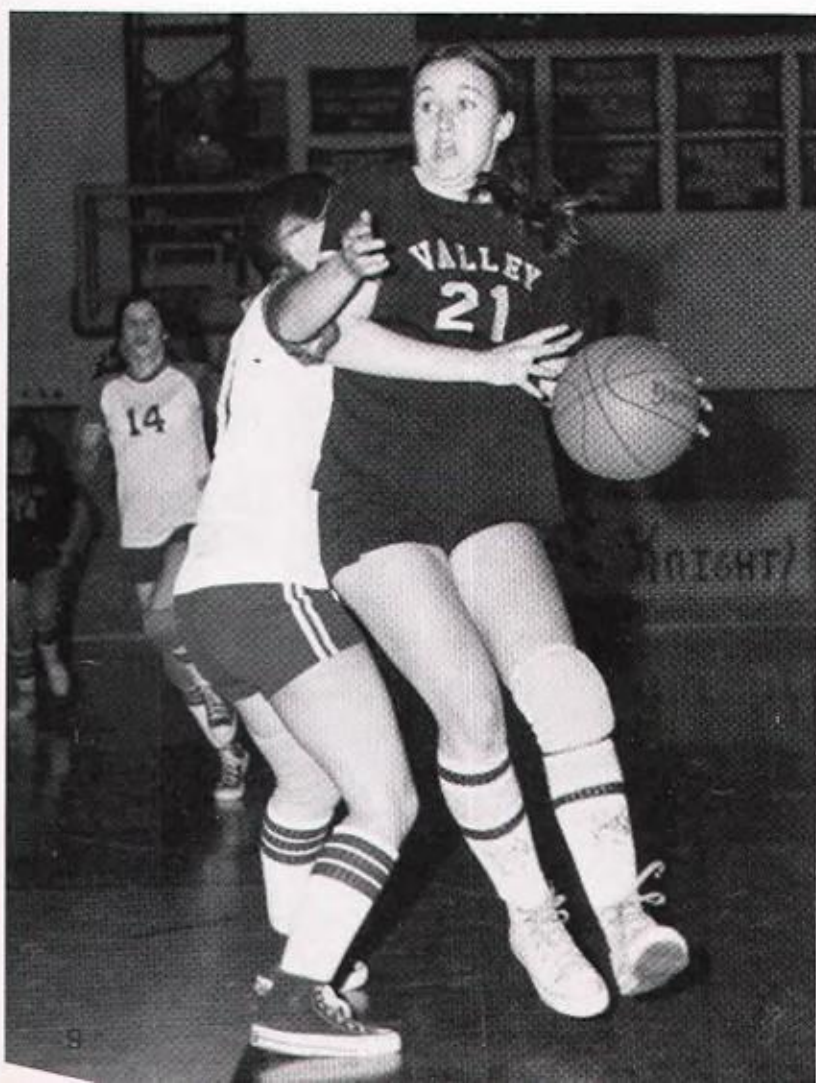

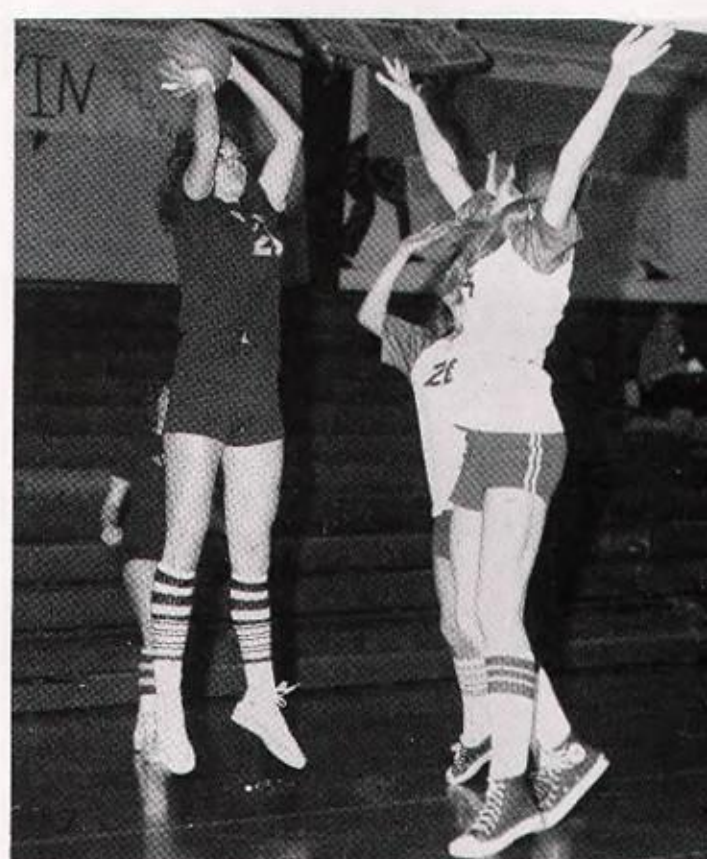

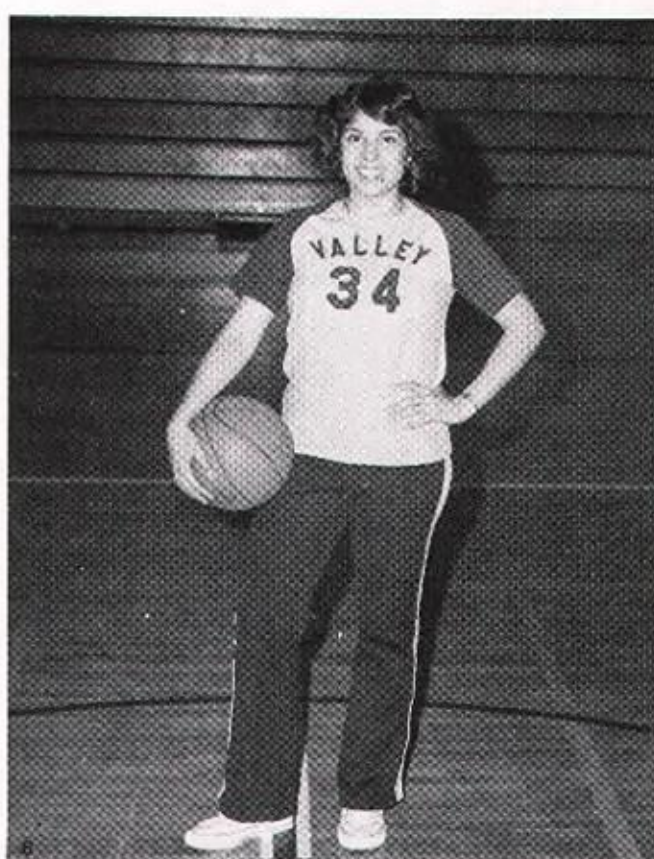

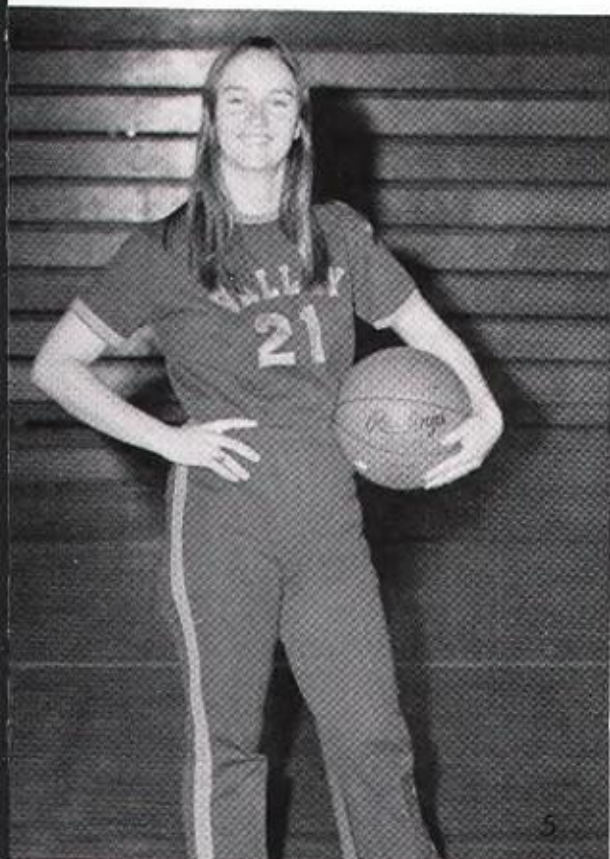

The girls varsity basketball team, coached by Ms. Donna Wrenn, finished their season with a 5 - 13 record overall. A highlight of the season was when the fem cagers beat the Manzano Monarchs in the district tournament, held at Del Norte, February 10, 11, and 12. Failing to beat to first place Eldorado Eagles, the Valley girls tied for third in the single elimination round. Other highlights of the season included a 35-31 victory over West Mesa, #1 contenders in District 1-AAAA. Valley girls ran into misfortune when in the Cibola Classic Tournament they lost Anto Montoya with torn knee ligaments. The Viking Varsity team had only five seniors, four juniors, and one sophomore. Valley girls were a very young team, only in their third year of competition, with talent, from the returning letterpersons that will hopefully play next year for the 77-78 season.

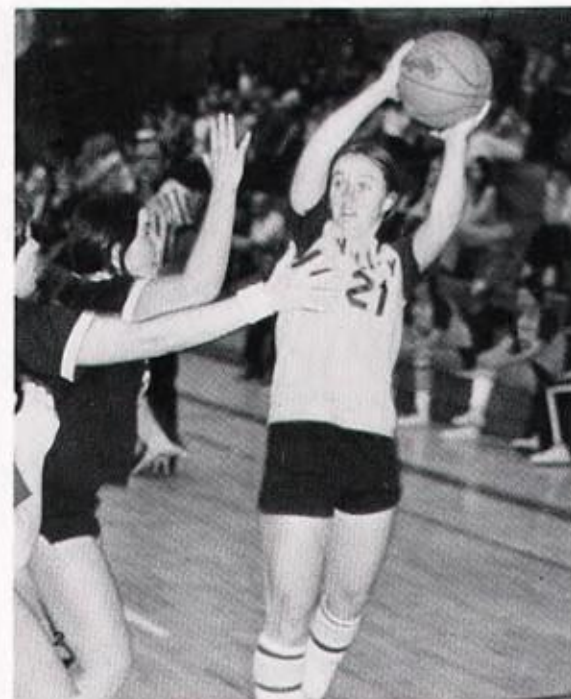

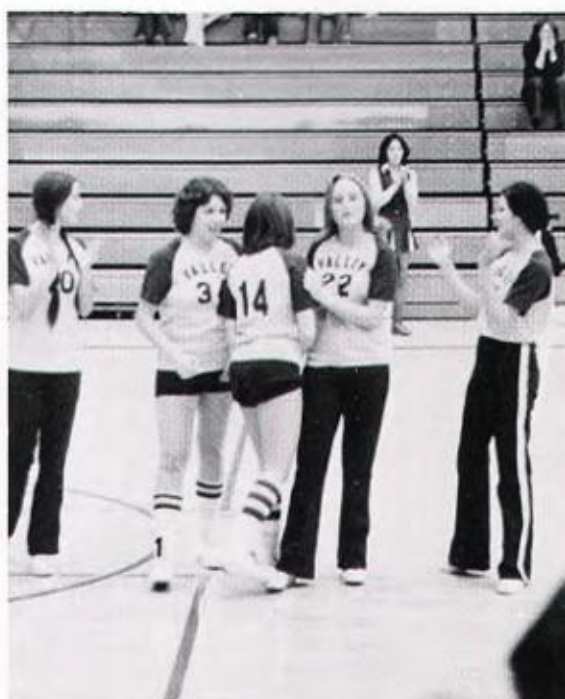

1 - Renee Beach and Susan Herring position for a free throw against two of the Cibola Cougars. 2 - Mercy Montoya, senior guard, looks back to see how close the Manzano Monarchs trail behind. 3 - Senior forward, Vicki Peacock. 4 - Diana Ozanich attempts to shoot the ball in the Valley-Cibola game. 5 - Senior guard, Kathy Lamkin. 6 - Senior forward, Renee Beach. 7 - Vicki Peacock shoots for two against Manzano in the district tournament. 8 - Varsity players include (bottom row) Coach Donna Wrenn, Gloria Griego, Kathy Lamkin, Kelly Kloeppel, Renee Beach, and Susan Herring; (top row), Kelly Watson, Tona Montoya, Anne Sanchez, Vicki Peacock, Dianne Ozanich and Mercy Montoya. 9 - Kathy Lamkin drives for the basket in the first game of the district tournament. 10 - Reviewing the rules and the refs, Co-captains Vicki Peacock and Kathy Lamkin, show no hard feelings toward the opposing Manzano captains.

Vicki Peacock, Kathy Lamkin Named Varsity Co-Captains

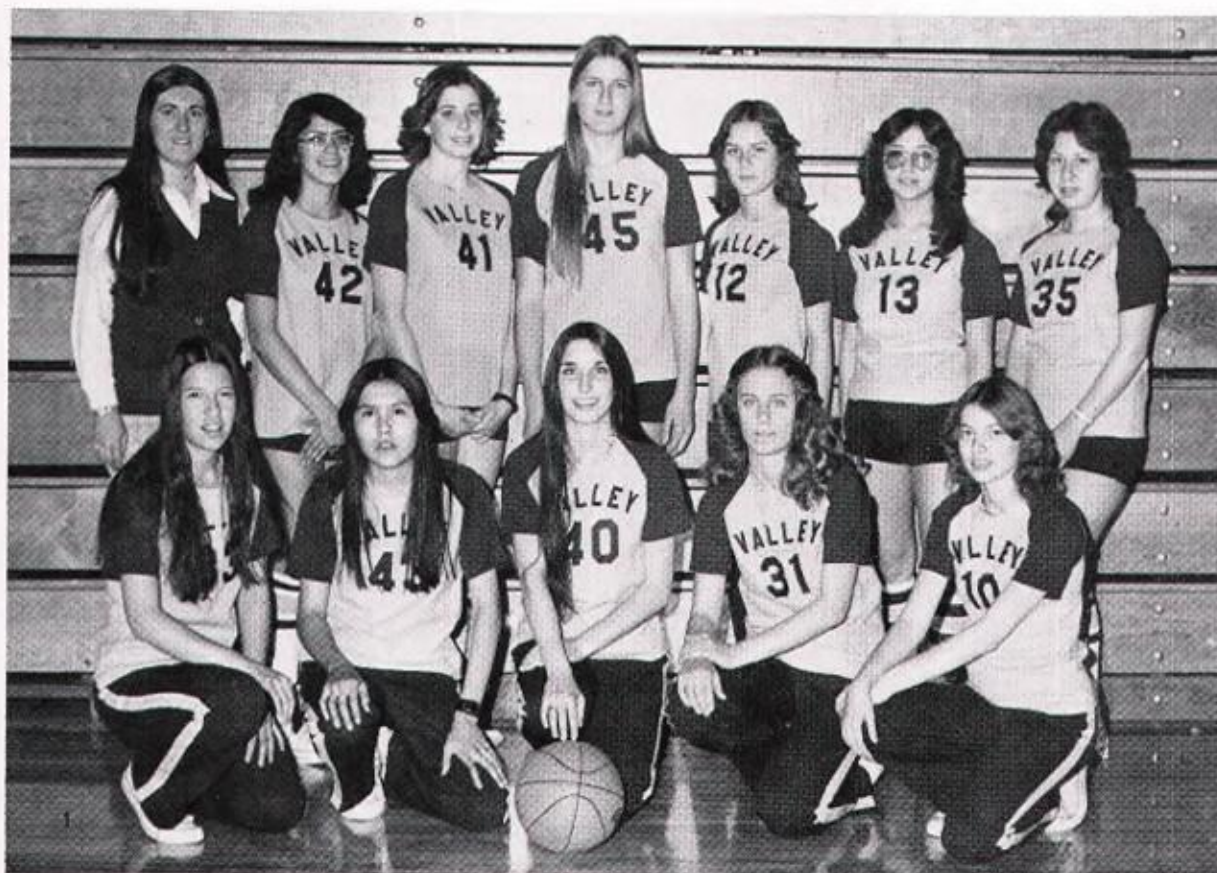

1 - Renee Beach, Susan Herring, Kelly Watson, and Mercy Montoya are introduced at the Valley-Cibola game. 2 - Kathy Lamkin attempts a pass around a Cibola player. 3 - Mercy Montoya, senior guard. 4 - Ms. Wrenn gives a pep talk to the girls basketball team before the opening tip-off of the Valley-Cibola game. 5 - Gloria Griego, Senior forward.

Many (usually) enthusiastic girls began their first season of interscholastic competition with high hopes and a great deal of energy. Coached by Donna Wrenn, they posted a 7-8 season record.

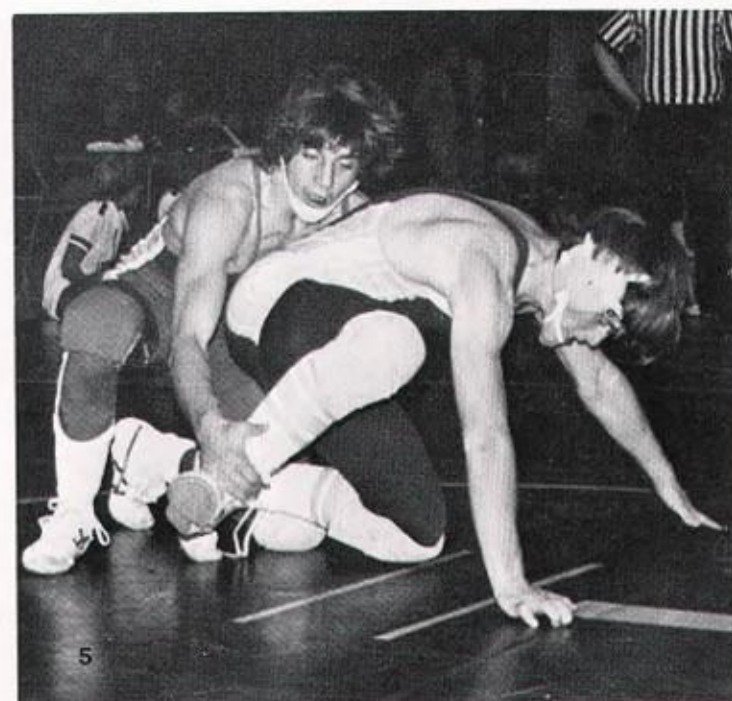

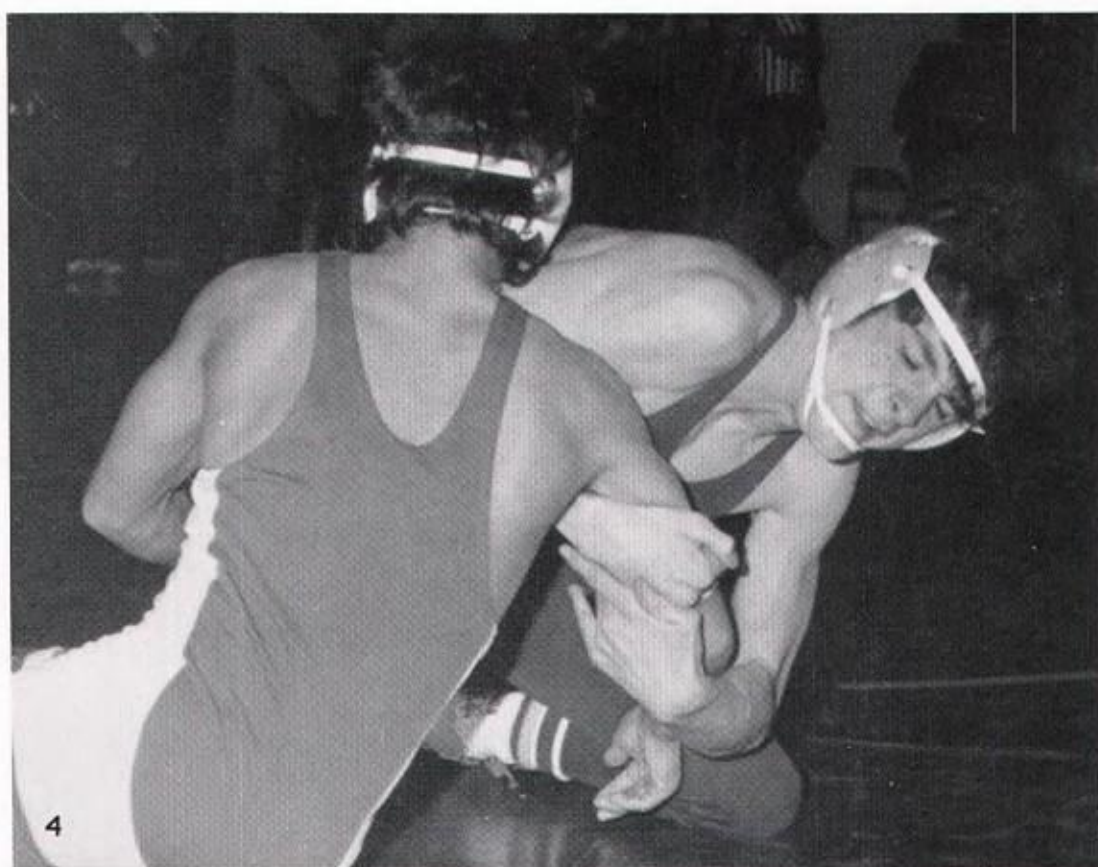

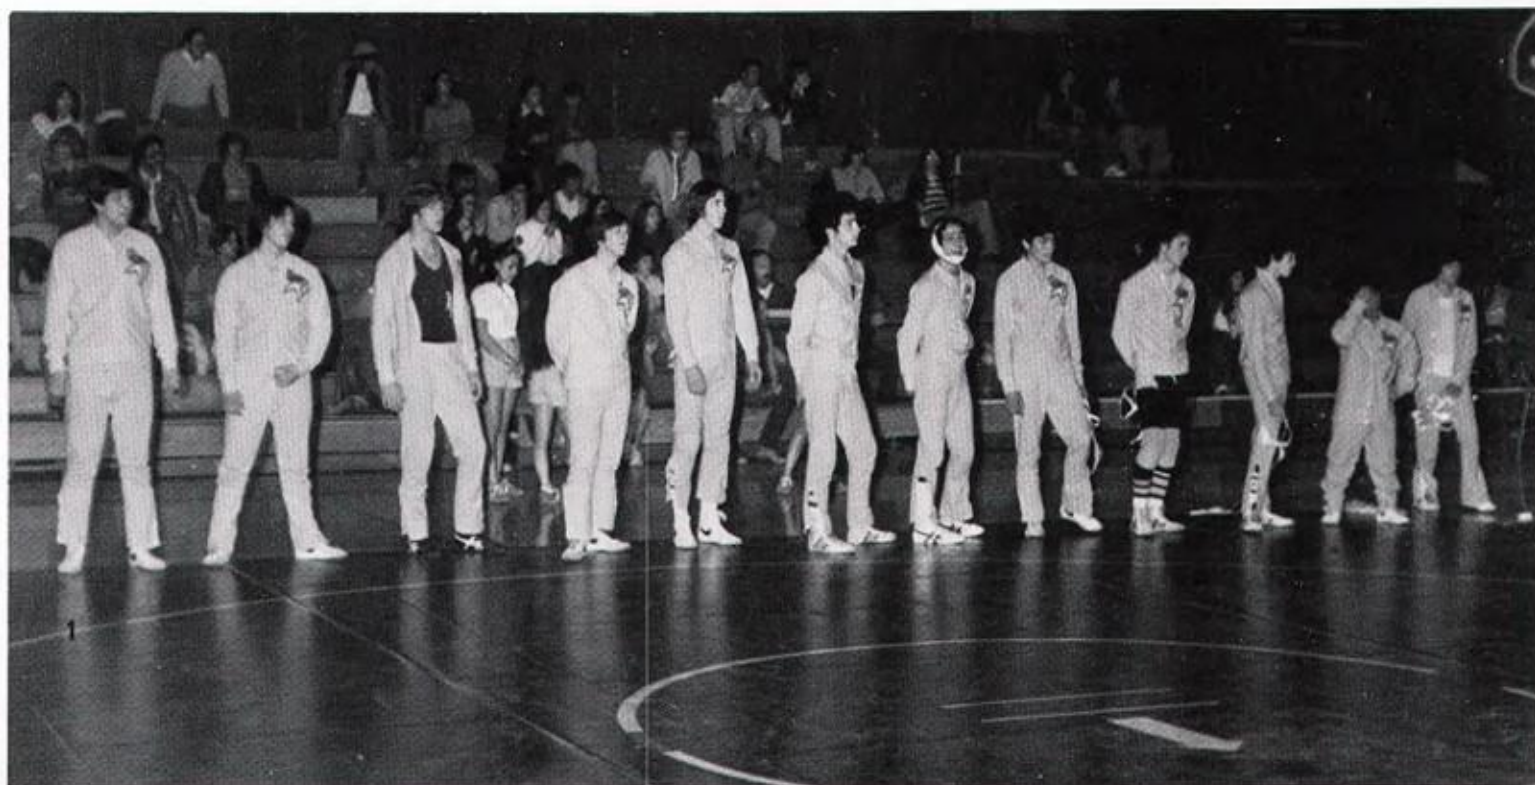

Remember Ms. Wrenn shouting, "Get your hands up!" "Don't pass to the middle!" "Hit the line!" "Move!" "Jump for those rebounds!" "Get your feet off the floor!" And finally, "Take a two-minute break." The girls: "How many suicides!?" "Can we go early?"

Remember the smell of dust in the locker room because the janitor was energetically sweeping. Everybody running into each other. Rushing to get home to take a shower because you didn't want to catch the creeping crud in the girls' locker room. Moans and groans during suicides. Everybody running into each other. The smell of sweaty bodies.

The embarrassments: The ball doesn't even hit the backboard; shooting at the wrong basket; Diana Ozanich cross-eyed as she shoots the ball. The Saga staff losing all the B-team pictures. Groan.

New Coach Kirby Inspires Grapplers

Starting off the season by defeating Sandia for the first time in nine years, the Viking grapplers had one of their best seasons in many years with superb individual and team efforts.

The team underwent two big changes in the '76-'77 season. One new addition was Head Coach Bill Kirby. He was a two-time state champion at the 126 and 132 pound classes while attending Belen High School. He then went on to UNM where he was co-captain of the wrestling team. Coach Kirby also introduced and began the new organization of Matmaids.

The team ended the season with a 4-9 record.

4 wins, 9 losses

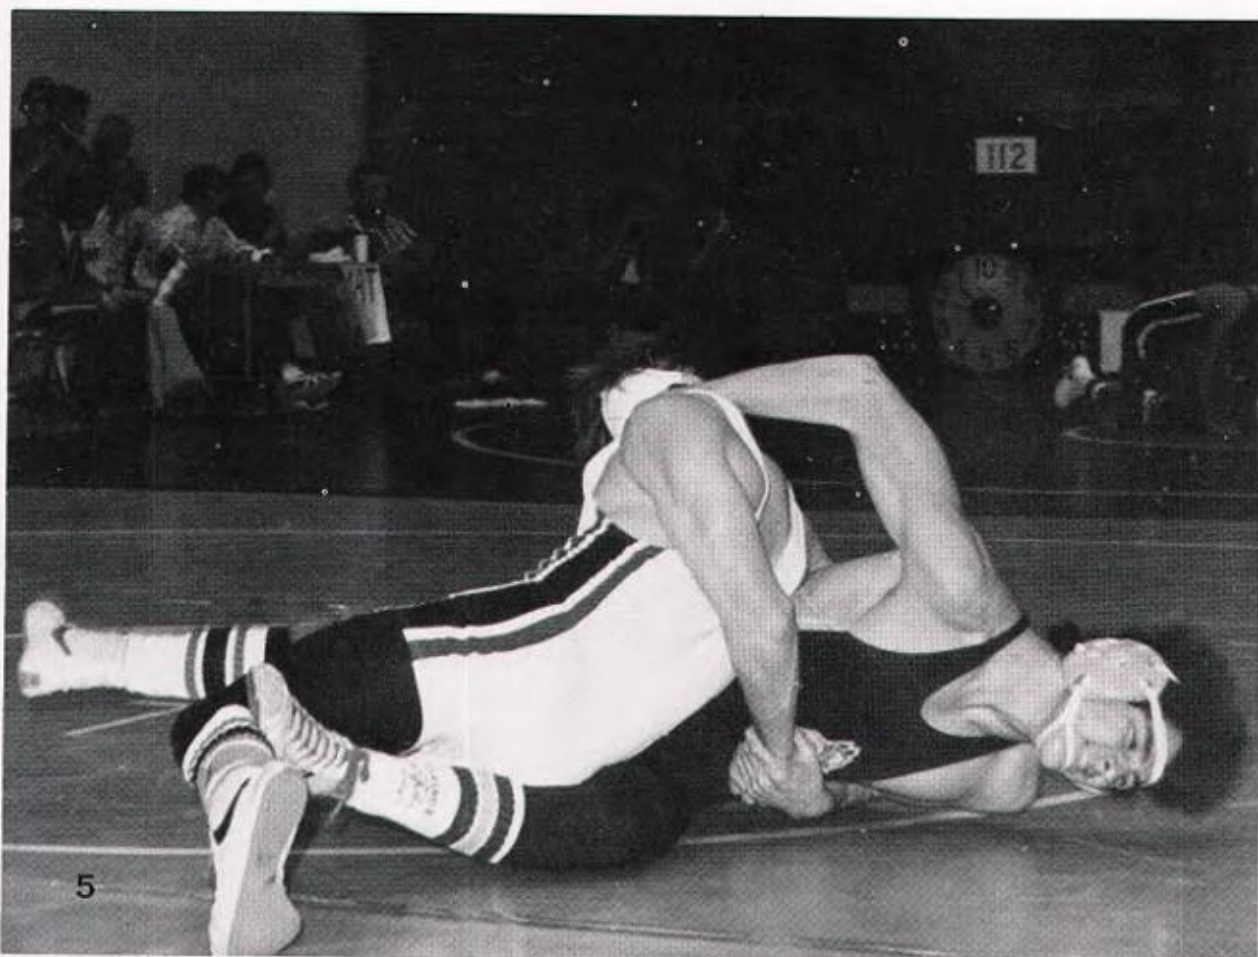

1 - Awaiting their introduction before the match against AHS are the Viking Grapplers. 2 - Dirk Taylor puts in a cradle against a Sandia opponent. 3 - James McGovern is declared the winner over his Bulldog opponent. 4 - Gilbert Lucero and a Bulldog opponent fight for control in the 132-pound match. 5 - Attempting a standup against a Sandia opponent is Larry Moran. 6 - The Varsity Wrestlers are (first row) Dennis Gallegos, Felix Encinias, Kenny Luna, and Dirk Taylor; (Second row) Manager Mike McGovern, James McGovern, Gilbert Lucero, Gabe Lucero, and Mike Archuleta; (third row) Coach Kirby, Larry Moran, David Tollardo, Kip Hazlett, Ray Tollardo, and Mark Duran. 7 - Coach Kirby looks on as his Viking Grapplers take on another opponent.

Eight Grapplers Travel to State Tourney

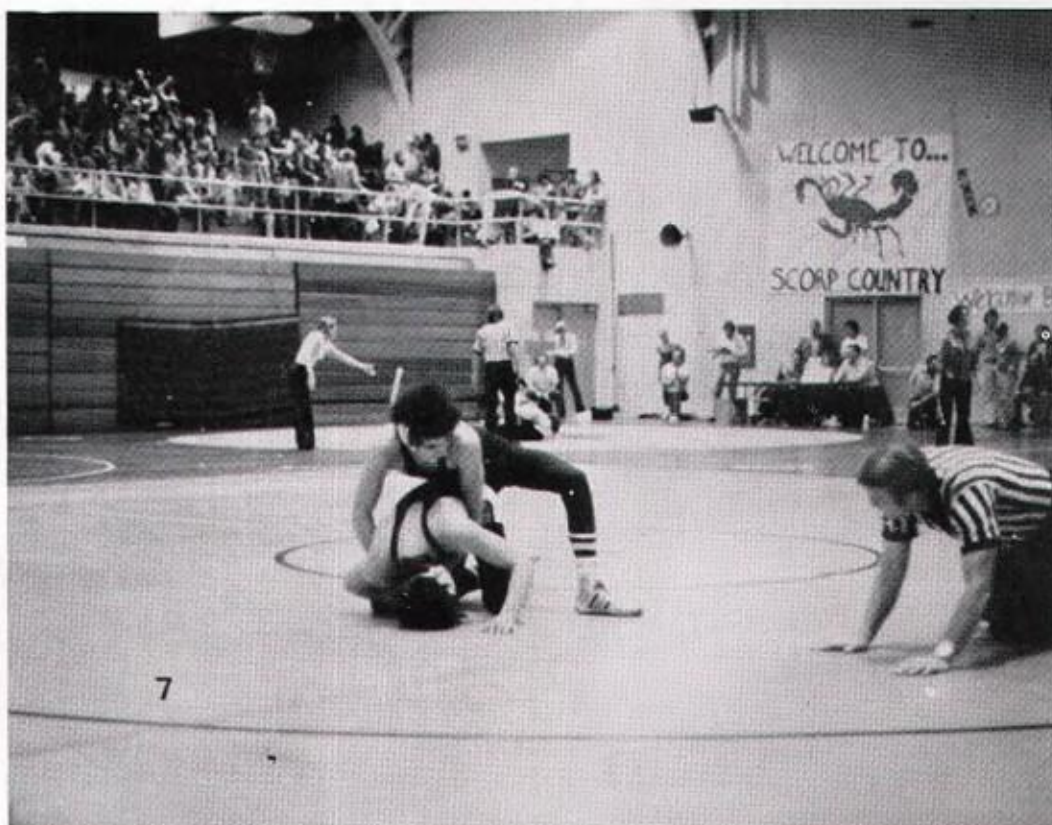

First-year Viking wrestling coach Bill Kirby had high hopes for grappler Gilbert Lucero as he took his wrestlers to the State Tournament in Farmington, February 17-19. Gilbert took an impressive record to the State meet, 26 wins and 3 losses, with big wins in the 138 lb. weight class at the Del Norte, Manzano, and City Tournaments. Gilbert lost, however, to a Carlsbad wrestler, Alfred Castillo, in the championship match to cop second place State honors.

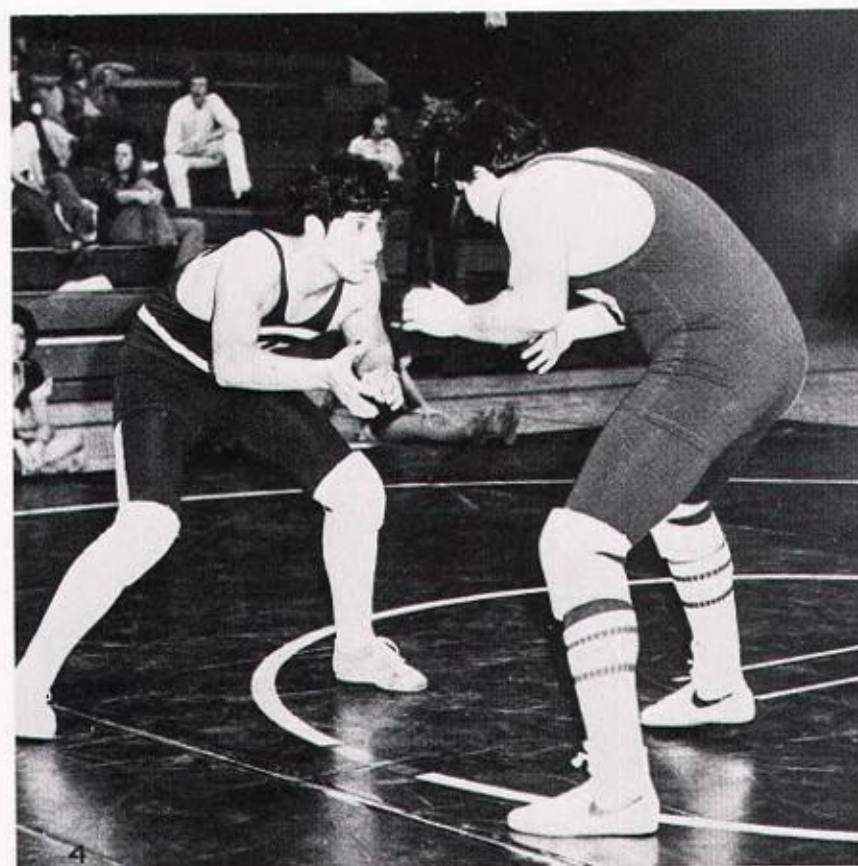

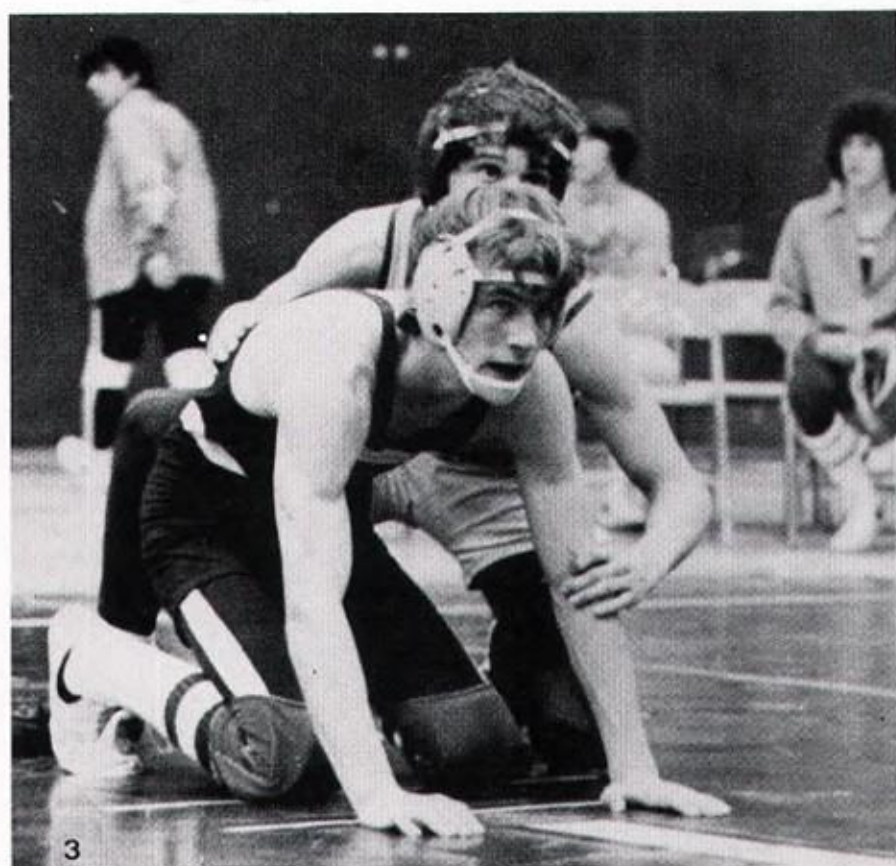

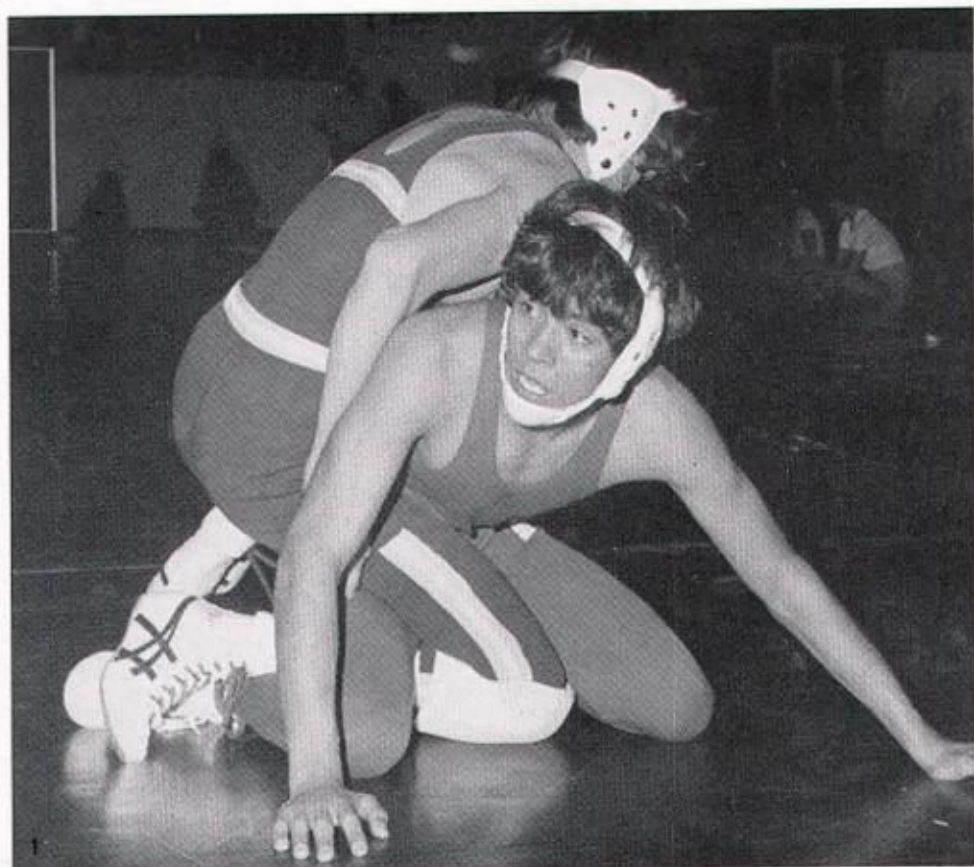

Gilbert Lucero Takes Second in State

1- Concerned grapplers and an enthusiastic Coach cheer a victory over an AHS opponent. 2- Congratulating Dirk Taylor on his win against an AHS opponent are Kenny Luna and Mark Duran. 3- Turning his opponent over for a pin is Dirk Taylor. 4- James McGovern attempts to pin his Bulldog contender. 5- Gilbert Lucero executes a grapevine on an Albuquerque Academy opponent in the City Tournament. 6- The referee declares Gilbert Lucero the winner in the semi-final round of the City Tournament. 7- Gilbert Lucero rides his Del Norte opponent.

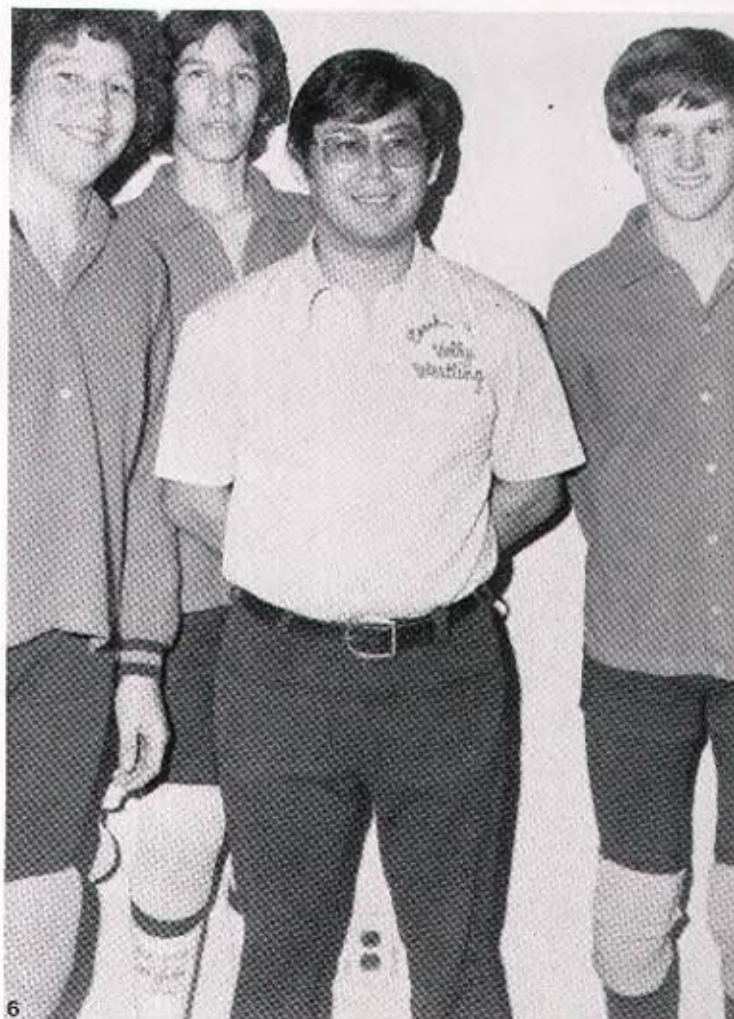

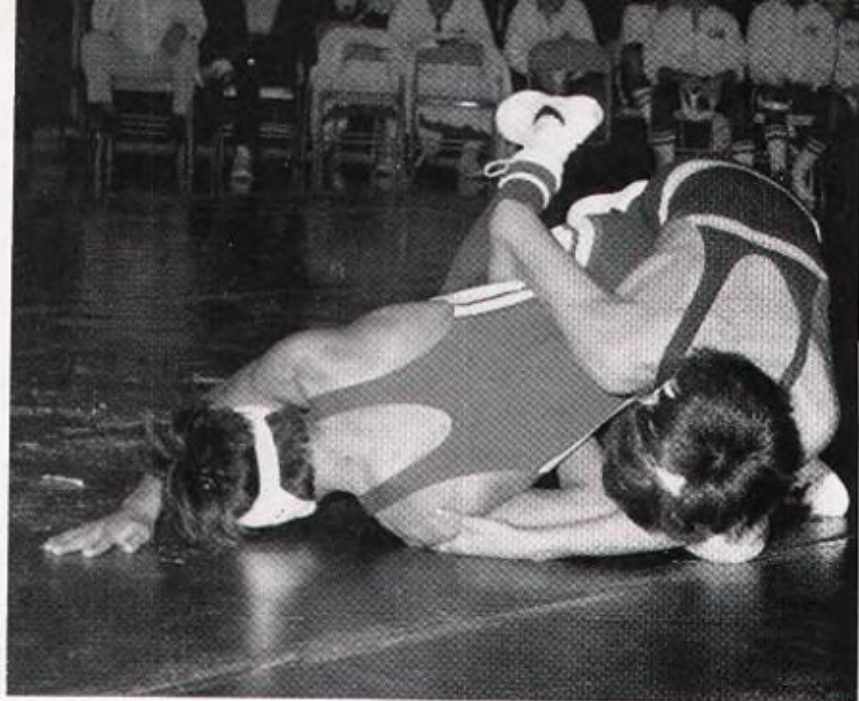

JV Hosts First Tournament in 10 Years

1 - Leroy Sanchez slips in a grapevine on an AHS challenger. 2 - Breaking down his AHS opponent is Leroy Sanchez. 3 - Mark Roper and a Manzano wrestler await the referee's whistle. 4 - Dominic Villescas and Mark Duran wrestle at the first Maroon and Gold match. 5 - Valley JV wrestlers waiting introduction before the match are Danny Romero, Robbie Ferris, Pat Chavez, Phil Houser, Phil Garcia, Fred Moran, Leroy Sanchez, and Joe Guevara. 6 - Danny Romero, Leroy Sanchez, Coach Salas and Fred Moran smile after a JV victory. 7 - The referee signifies a pin as Dennis Galleogs defeats an AHS opponent. 8 - JV wrestlers include (kneeling) Phil Houser, Danny Romero, Pat Chavez, Robbie Ferris, and Dominic Villescas; (standing) Coach Salas, Phil Garcia, Fred Moran, Leroy Sanchez, and Joe Guevara.

Under the leadership of new B-team coach Sergio Salas, Valley's JV posted a 6-5 won-loss record, one of the best records in many years.

For the first time in ten years, Valley hosted a JV Tournament in which eight teams participated. Valley's JV took fifth place in the tourney. Everyone got a medal with the exception of only two people.

In the city tournament Valley placed two people, Dennis Gallegos, 98 pounds, and Joe Guevara, 105 pounds; both took fourth. In the B-team state tournament, Dominic Villegas took a fourth place in the heavyweight division.

Matmaids Spark Viking Grapplers

Wrestling coach William Kirby began a new tradition with the formation of a group called Matmaids. The group's main objective was to promote publicity for the wrestling program. They also helped Coach Kirby by keeping times and scores at the matches, as well as selling refreshments and programs.

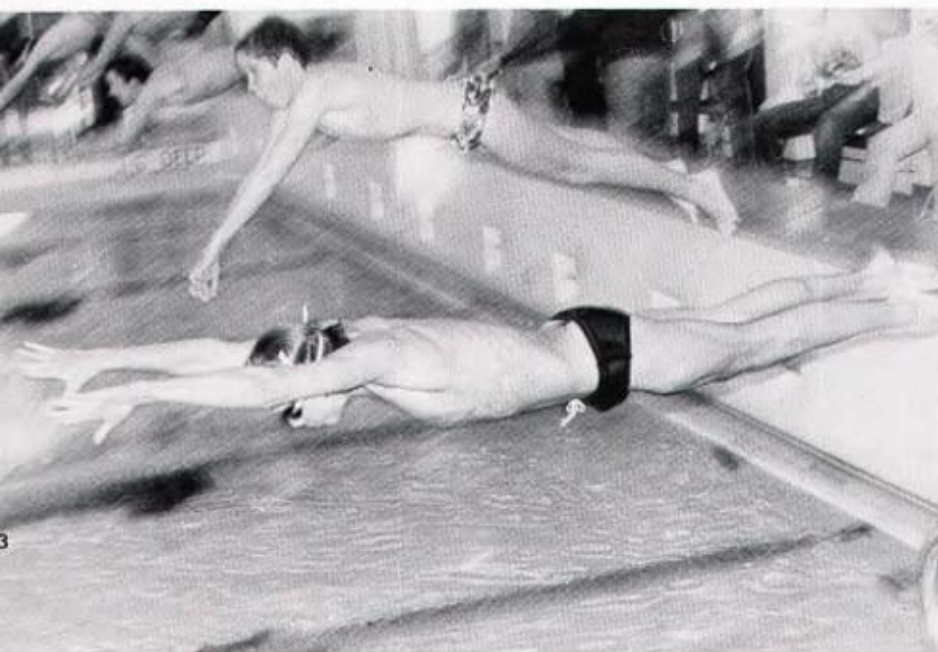

Valley's assistant principal, Sam Sandoval, began the first group of matmaids when he was wrestling coach at Del Norte. The idea caught on and now Valley is the sixth Albuquerque school boasting such a group.

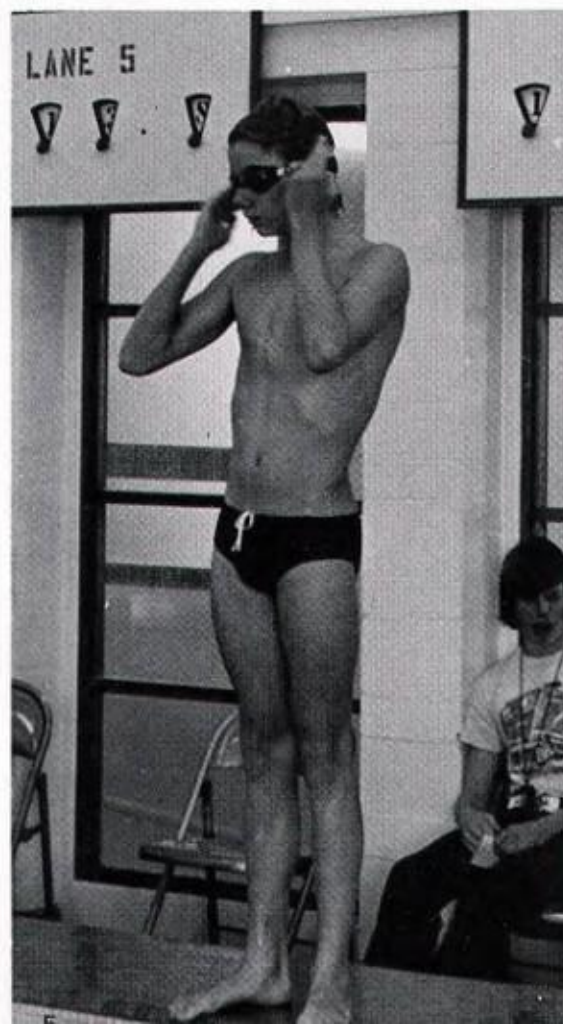

1 - Shannon Romero and Kathy Pendery. 2 - Coach Kirby also teaches Sophomore English classes. 3 - Joann Gallegos and Lemae Goodwin. 4 - Donna Valdez and Bernadette Leal. 5 - '76-'77 Matmaids. 6 - Julie Paiz and Barbara Pryor.

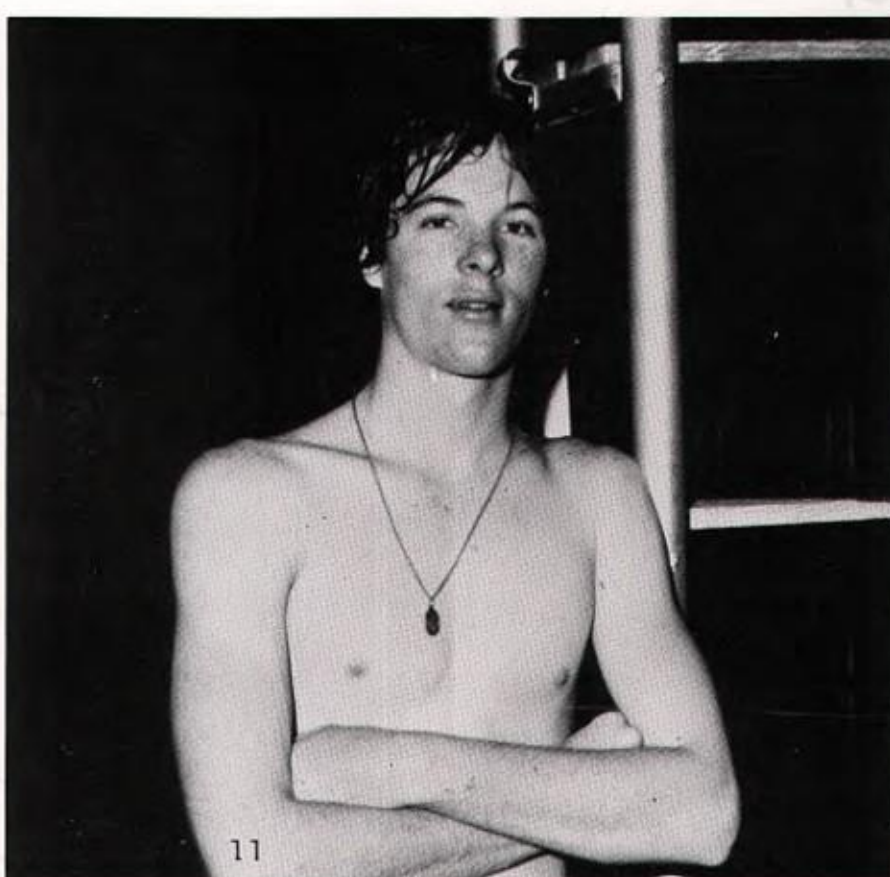

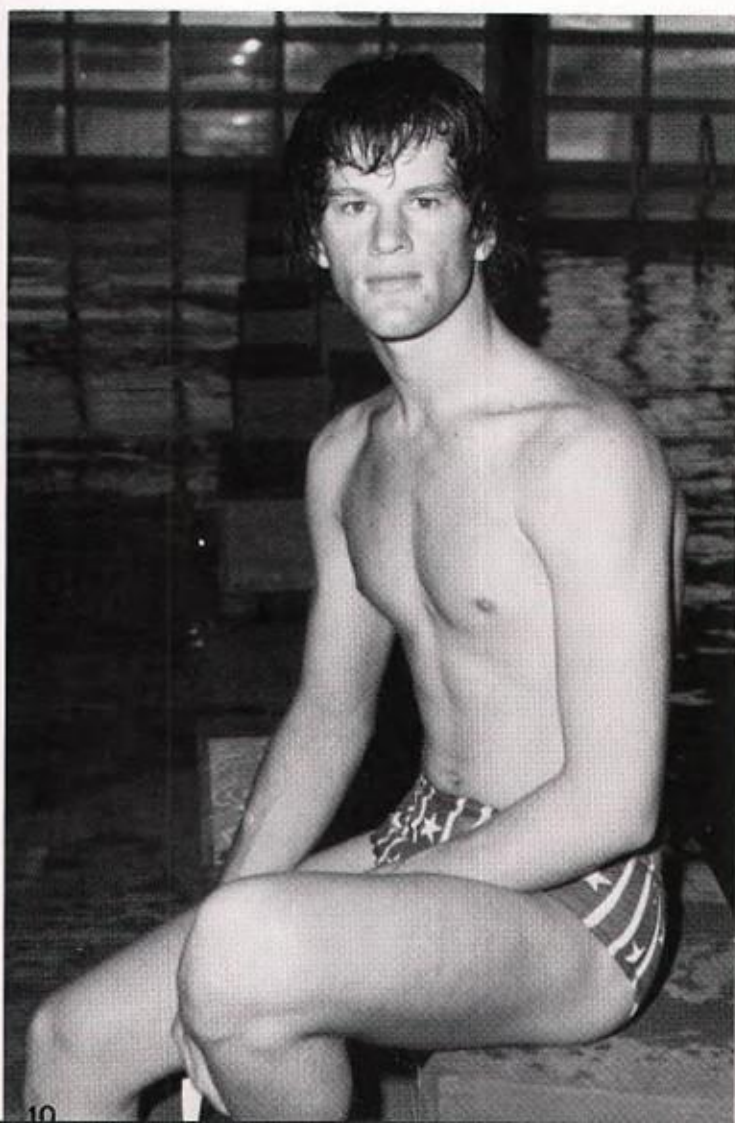

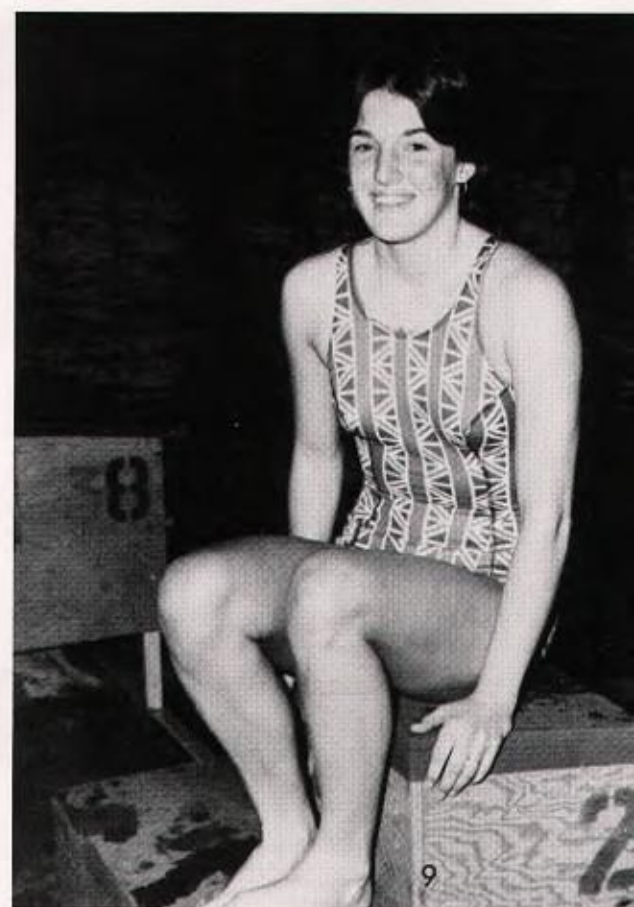

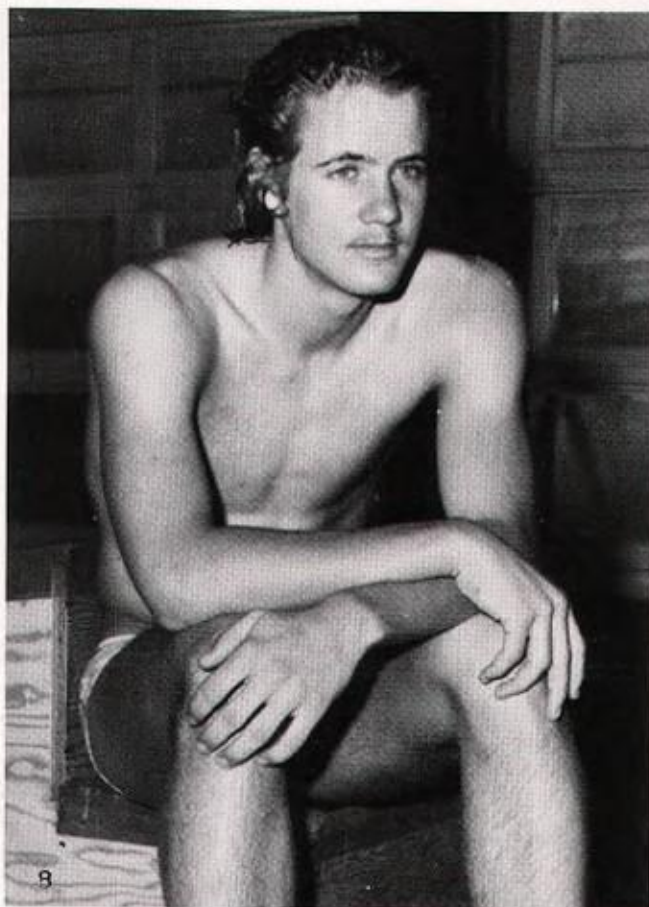

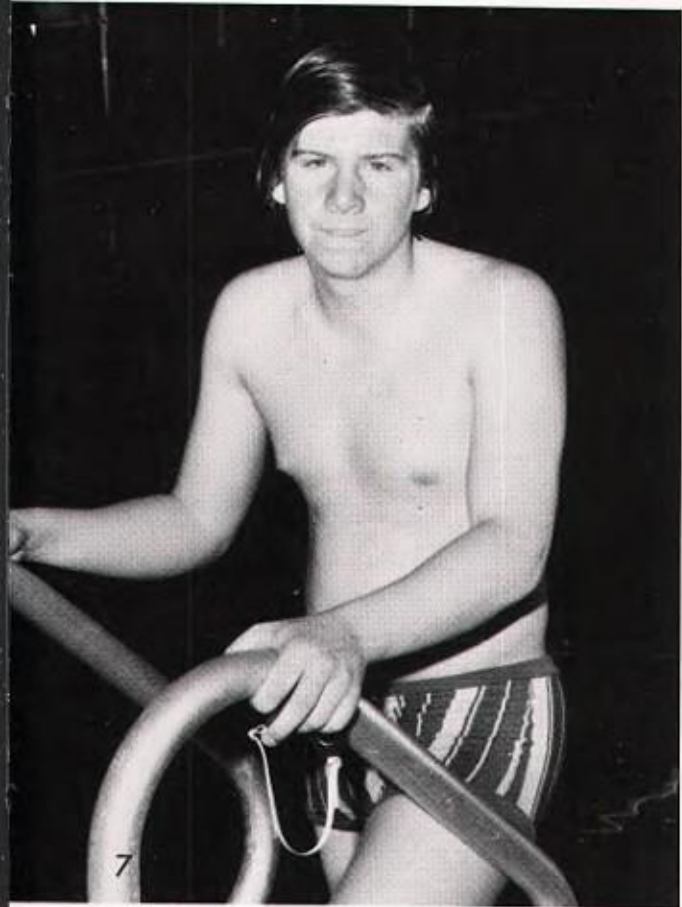

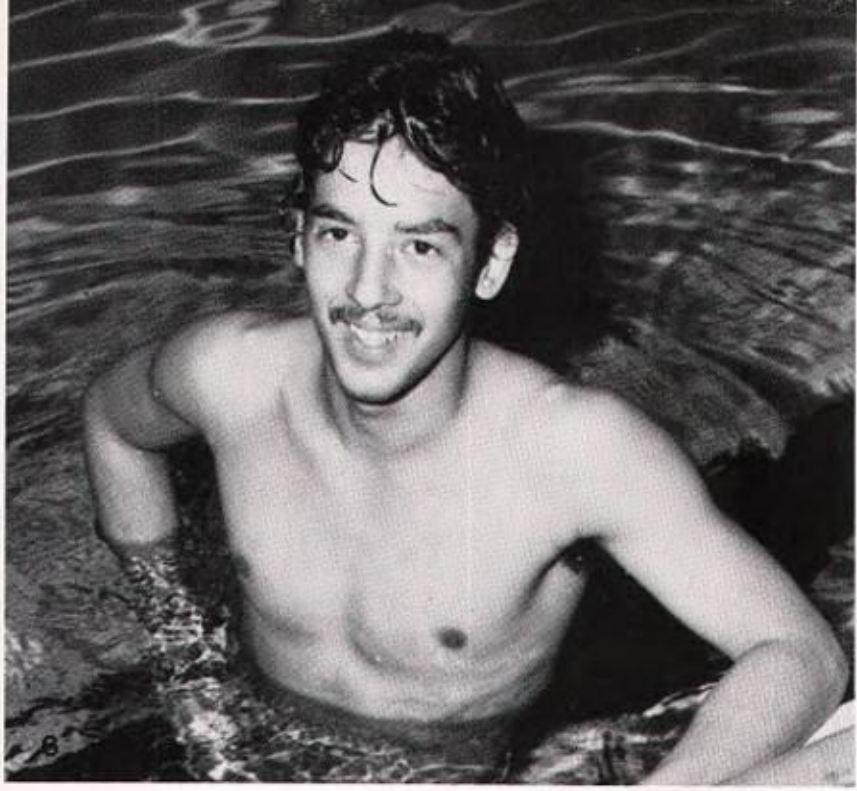

Swim Team Goes Coed

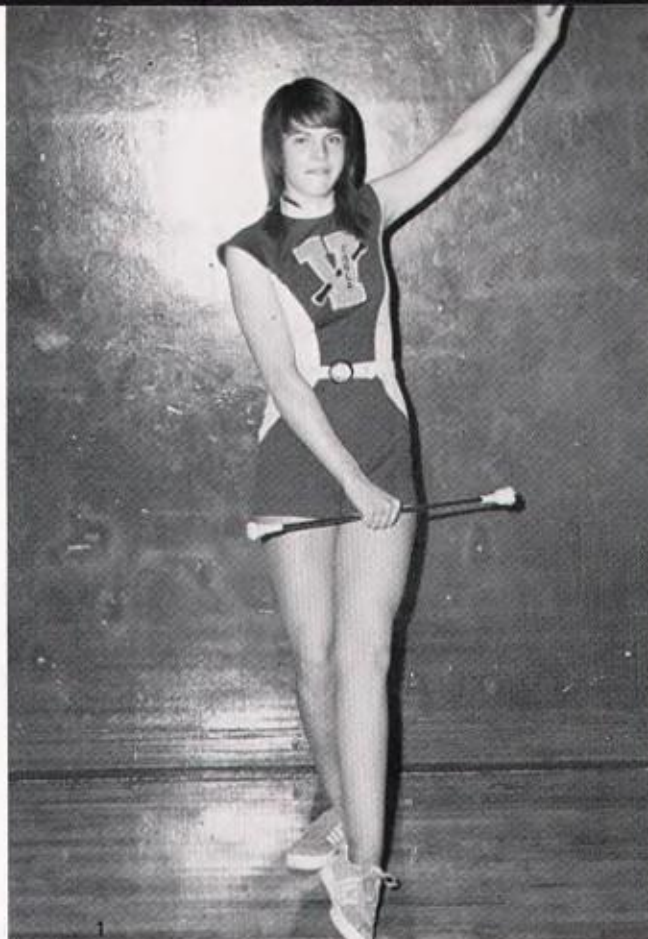

Swim team went co-ed for the first year ever. Coached by new head mentor, Connie Curtis, swimmers had it rough this year with workouts from 6:00 to 7:30 every morning. But with a lot of hard work and determination Luke Colgan, Joe Snowdon, Bill Burch, Kathy Merwin, Lynette Burt, all made it to state February 25-26.

Carla Hauert Head Majorette

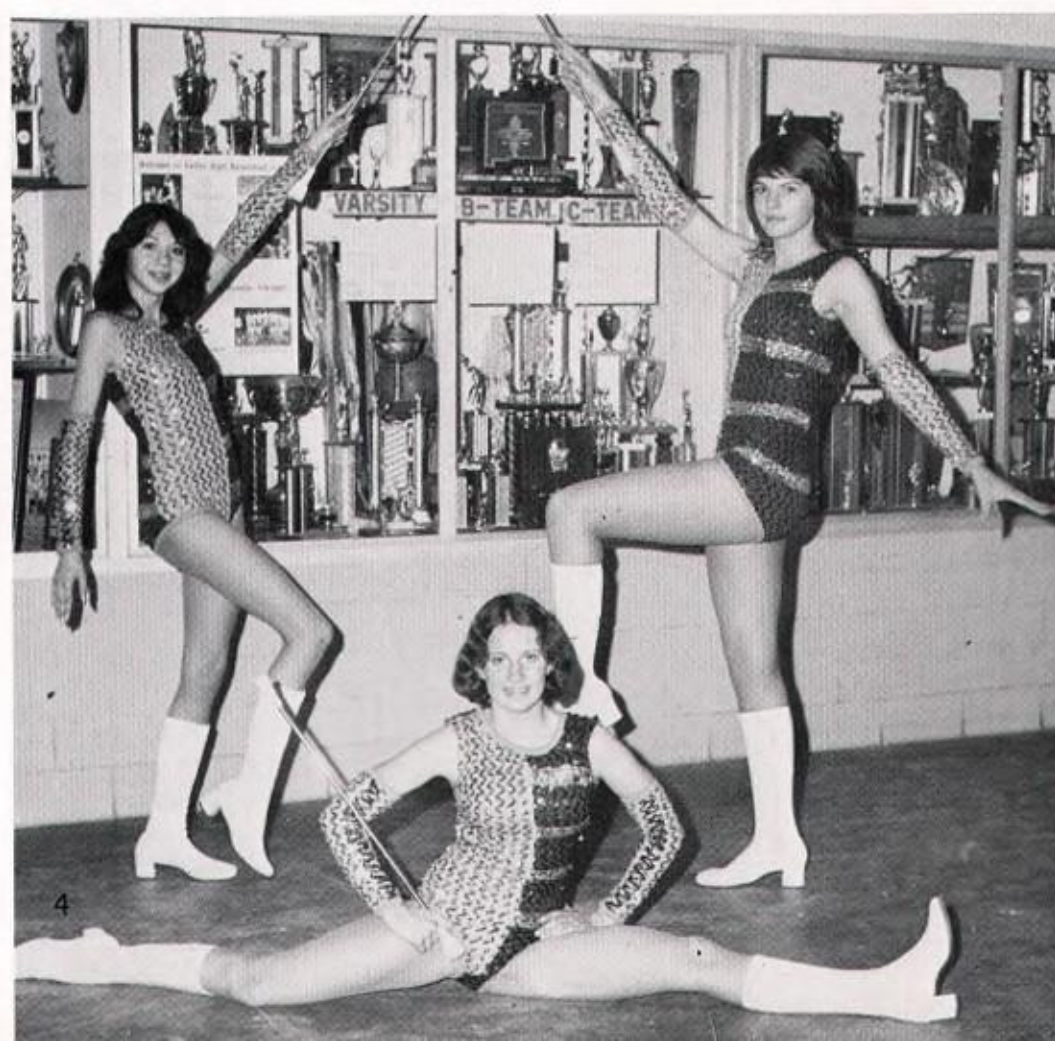

1 - Carla Hauert. 2 - Debbie Cobley. 3 - Lori Huddleston. 4 - Majorettes include Debbie Cobley, Lori Huddleston, and Carla Hauert.

Performing with the Marching Band at football half-time shows, marching in the State Fair Parade, and just plain working hard at being good were three Viking Majorettes: Junior Carla Hauert and Sophomores Debbie Cobley and Lori Huddleston.

The girls began practicing in the summer of '76 after they were chosen. Besides working with the band, they performed in Civic Plaza. The highlight of their year, however, was their trip with the band to Chihuahua, our Mexican sister city.

Endless Duties Face Cafeterians, Custodians

1 - Custodians include Andres G. Vigil, E. Chavez, and Joe Cuellar, head custodian. 2 - Cafeteria personnel include Louise Maestas, Josie Baca, Della Montoya, Mable Nix, Johnnie Goodson, Irma Wise, manager; Vangie Cordova, Isadora Flores, Piedad Martinez, Patricia Lucero, and Alice Muniz. 3 - Susan Garcia enjoys her long-awaited lunch. 4 - People trying to avoid the rush and long waiting take advantage of the express line. 5 - Della Montoya prepares a tray at the express line.

Prepared meals and a clean campus don't just happen. Somebody has to take care of these tasks. Those somebody's are the cafeteria workers and custodians. It takes plenty of hard work from each of these to keep the school functioning.

Both of these staffs have many duties. Preparing a wide variety of nutritious meals is one of the many duties the cafeteria workers take care of.

The custodians' duties are a never-ending job. They fix, clean, pickup or do anything that has to be done at Valley High.

OEA Prepares Members for Future Occupations

Selling cheese, sausage, candy bars and baked goodies were some of the many fund raising activities that allowed OEA members to attend regional, state and national conferences.

The Leadership Conference was held in Glorieta, New Mexico, November 20 and 21. The national conference was held in Houston, Texas in May. The regional and state conferences were held in Albuquerque in the month of March.

For the first time, all members chose the same uniforms to represent their club.

The club's purpose is to allow members to prepare their lives for future office occupations.

1 - Making out candy orders are Jeanette Dominguez and Sandy Cillessen. 2 - OEA officers are Ruthie Leyba, photographer; Carol Bachicha, reporter; Maudie Smith, president; Kellee Martinez, assistant secretary; Cathy Sena, chaplain; Cheryl Breitling, vice-president; Debby Harrison, historian; and Roseanne Lujan, secretary. 3 - OEA President, Maudie Smith calls a meeting to order. 4 - Bernadette Chavez, Cheryl Breitling, Corinne Abeyta, Jeanette Dominguez, and Ruthie Leyba look on as Sandy Cillessen types up the initiation lineup. 5 - Maudie Smith points out the different symbols and meanings of the OEA Emblem to Gloria Romero, Yolanda Romero, Eva Otero, Clara Quintana, Debbie Harrison, Carol Bachicha and Irene Anaya. 6 - Roseanne Lujan, Beverly Lovato, Marietta Torrez, Debby Harrison, Erlinda Sanchez, Reggie Griego, Kellee Martinez, and Anna Carriaga examine the order forms for one of the many fund raising projects. 7 - Sandy Cillessen demonstrates the memory typewriter to Anita Martinez, Janice Atencio, Tina Gutierrez, Laura Smith, Priscilla Bachicha, Geri Chavez, and Kim Hall. 8 - OEA Members include (first row) Maudie Smith, Cheryl Breitling, Roseanne Lujan, Kellee Martinez, Gloria Romero, Debby Harrison, Ruthie Leyba, and Carol Bachicha; (second row) Laura Smith, Clara Quintana, Bernadette Chavez, Cathy Sena and Eva Otero; (third row) Desiree Byrd, Priscilla Bachicha, Lucy Manzanares, Diane Maestas, Corinne Abeyta, Beverly Lovato, Debbie Harrison, and Marietta Torrez; (fourth row) Shirley Gomez, Reggie Griego, Erlinda Sanchez, Jeanette Dominguez, and Sandy Cillessen. 9 - Shirley Gomez demonstrates the proper usage of the telephone in an office to Desiree Byrd, Debbie Branda, Lucy Manzanares, Cathy Sena, Diana Maestas and Esther Gutierrez. 10 - Gloria Romero and Becky Scott go through an initiation process of lighting candles as Debby Harrison (left) and Cheryl Breitling look on.

Orchestra Musicians Qualify For Several Honor Groups

Tone, technique and musicianship were the key words during the thirty-second annual All State festival on the University of New Mexico Campus in which three Valley orchestra students participated.

Orchestra members actively performed in concerts and presentations during the school year.

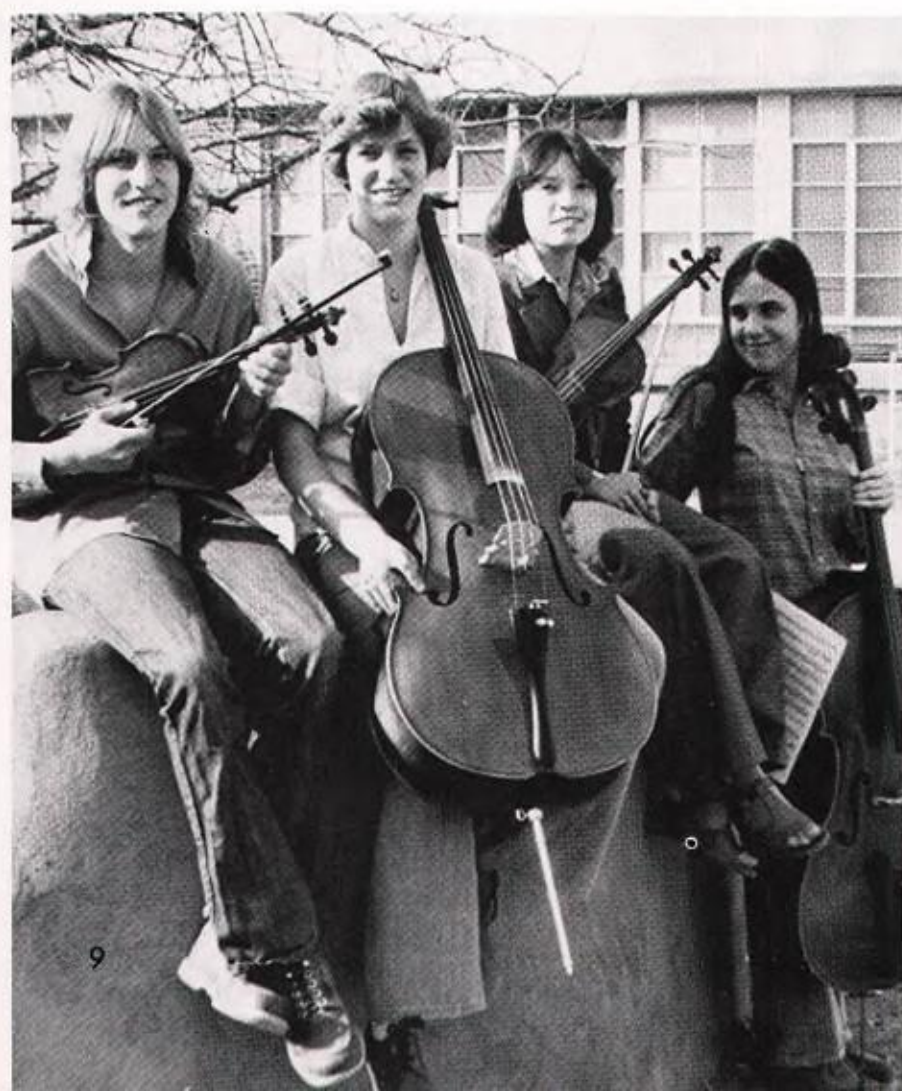

During the holiday season, members also staged a Christmas program at the Valley assembly.

Marie Robertson, orchestra director in her second year, at Valley, assisted in and conducted all presentations.

1 - Agnes Romero concentrates on her music as she plays the violin. 2 - Ms. Robertson conducts the orchestra in rehearsal. 3 - Orchestra All-State musicians are (front) Sharon Atencio, All-State Symphonic Orchestra; (back) Agnes Romero and Jamie Thomson, All-State String Orchestra. 4 - Ms. Robertson demonstrates a difficult crescendo on her violin. 5 - Albuquerque Youth Orchestra musicians are, Anthony Herrera, Sharon Atencio, Sharon Hanratty and Mary Griego. 6 - Solo and ensemble musicians are (first row) Mary Griego, Lorie Dillingham, Agnes Romero, Sharon Hanratty, Sharon Atencio, Ellen Mckenzie and Ingela Rönn; (second row) Linda Ortman, Anne Moore, and Jamie Thomson. 7 - Linda Ortman demonstrates the concentration it takes to qualify for the Albuquerque Youth Symphony. 8 - Orchestra members include (front row) Jamie Thomson, Agnes Romero, Denise Orton, Ellen Mckenzie, Lori Dillingham, Sharon Hanratty, Linda Ortman, Sharon Atencio; (second row) Ingela Rönn, Mary Griego, Anthony Herrera, Selita Yazzie, Susi Kettles, Anne Moore, Kathy Wilson. 9 - Youth Symphony members include Jamie Thomson, Agnes Romero, Lori Dillingham. 10 - Mary Griego practices the violin during class period.

"LaBamba" was featured by Valley High's Ranchera Band. The only Spanish band in the Albuquerque School system. Valley's Ranchera Band was first originated in 1973. Now in 1977 they are well-known around the city. For two years in a row they have been invited to perform at the New Mexico State Fair Spanish Village. Their first performance they did this year was at the Ice Cream Social which was sponsored by the Varsity Cheerleaders. OEA also invited Mr. Kelly and his band to perform at a banquet held at Bella Vista. A combo of six members also went to Chihuahua, Mexico, in the spring.

Spanish Band Features LaBamba

Performing in assemblies, concerts, and jazz festivals throughout the year, the Stage Band was 22 members strong. Their activities included raising funds and obtaining guest artists making a profession of jazz music.

Under the direction of Mr. Tom Kelly, the band played in the West Mesa Jazz Festival in February, and took part in other festivals as well.

Stage Band Looks to Festival

1 - Latin Percussion was added to Stage Band. The drums are played by Marc McNeely. 2 - Stage Band rhythm is held together by Glen Holmen and Mark Luna. 3 - Serious faces and hard work seem to be the main factors while preparing for Spring Festival. 4 - Stage Band Members include (front row) David Baca, Johnny Almaraz, Mike Arellano, Scott Reeder, Glen Holmen, Joe Apadaco, Matt Martinez, Tim Gill, Marc Sternhagen, Leonard Martinez, Ronnie Vallejos; (second row) Mark Chavez, Lyle Holmen, Angie Martinez, Gerard Archibeque, Chris Lopez, Martin Marquez; (third row) Larry Trujillo, Mike Martinez, Ralph Chavez, Arthur Ramirez, Mark Padilla, Arnold Jaramillo.

Junior Senate Soars Financially

Under the leadership of Junior Senate president, Ellena Sandoval, the juniors were financially well-off with their many fund-raising projects. Midway through the year, the juniors had accumulated well over $1000.

These projects included selling VHS bumper stickers, candy and sponsoring playnights. They also sponsored a dance featuring the group "Amigos" which added a large amount to their treasury.

The junior class was in charge of decorations for the homecoming dance at the University Student Union Ballroom. They also provided help decorating the gym for homecoming.

Sponsors were Mr. Jim Vannoy and Ms. Diana Davidson.

1 - Bruce Lomax steadies the ladder while Anne Blue steps down after putting up decorations for Viking Day. 2 - A group of Junior Senate members wander around looking for something to do decorating night for the Homecoming assembly. 3 - Junior Senate members include (front row) Tammy Raymond, Ann Lackey, and Paula Sandoval; (second row) Stephanie Padilla, Jayne Aranda, Fred Carnes, Rene Fugate, and Annie Vallejos; (third row) Miranda Eastham, Dina Abernathy, Edwina LaGrange, and Melissa Graham; (back row) Thor Liebert, Shane Yost, Lee Mosley, and Berlinda Torrez. 4 - Dina Abernathy busily works decorating for homecoming. 5 - Junior Class Officers are Kathy Allen, Student council rep.; Anita Perea, treasurer; Ellena Sandoval, president; Tricia Brady, secretary; and Chris Long, vice president.

Active Students Ready for Spring

Spring was the start of many new activities for Valley High School. Golf, Tennis Track, Girls Softball and Baseball were the sports that began in spring. Also during spring VHS had a Nostalgia Week and a Twirp Week. During Nostalgia Week, students dressed up and participated in activities as they believed they were done in the fifties. Twirp Week was the week for the girls to ask the boys out. Special activities were scheduled for that week to make asking the boys out easier for the girls.

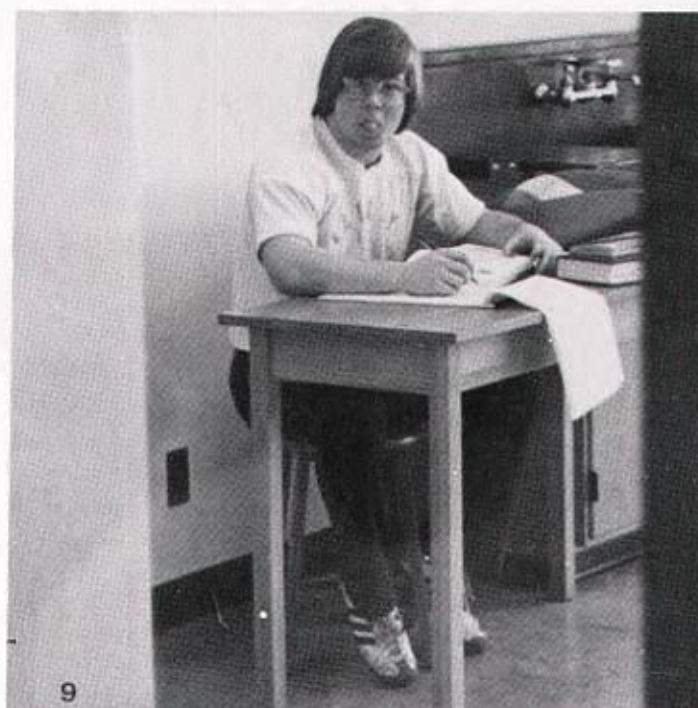

For the first time, a make-up dance was held during the spring at VHS. This dance took place because there was a problem during the 1976 Homecoming dance; none of the pictures came out. The photographer took the blame for this mistake and put on a dance to make-up for it. Those people who paid for their pictures the first time got them retaken during the dance.

Another happening last spring was a Talent Assembly where many talented students who had auditioned the week before performed.

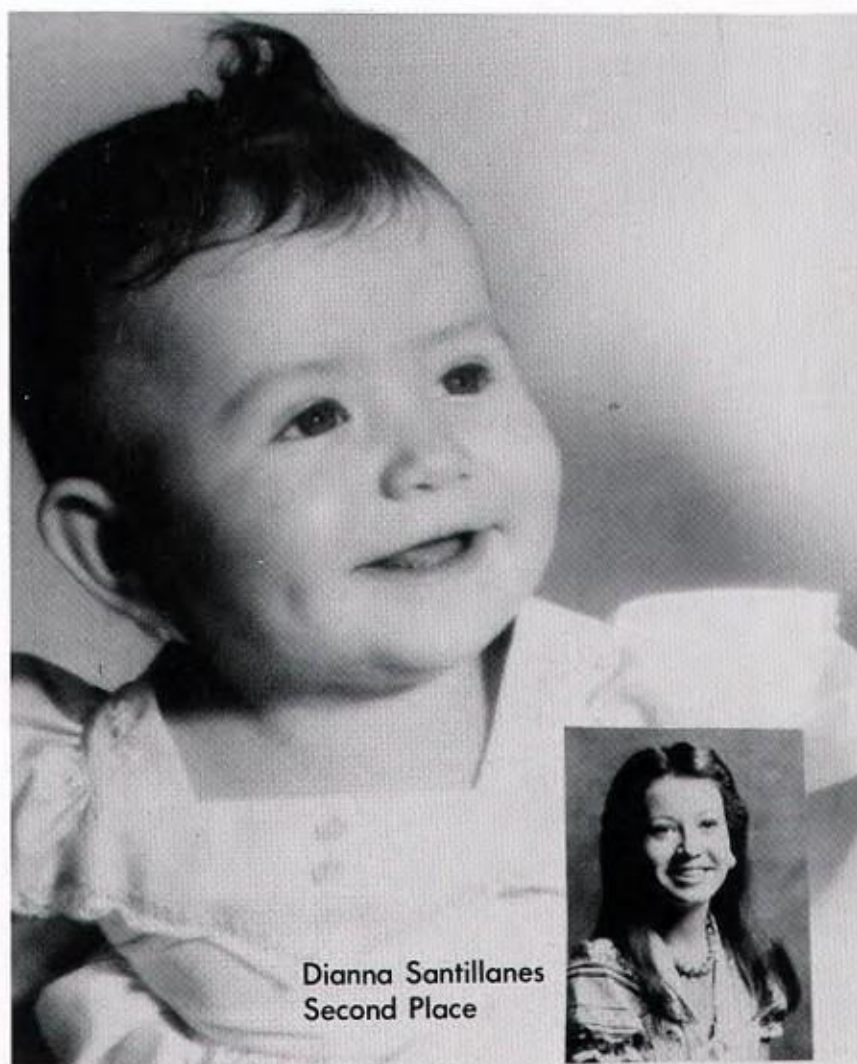

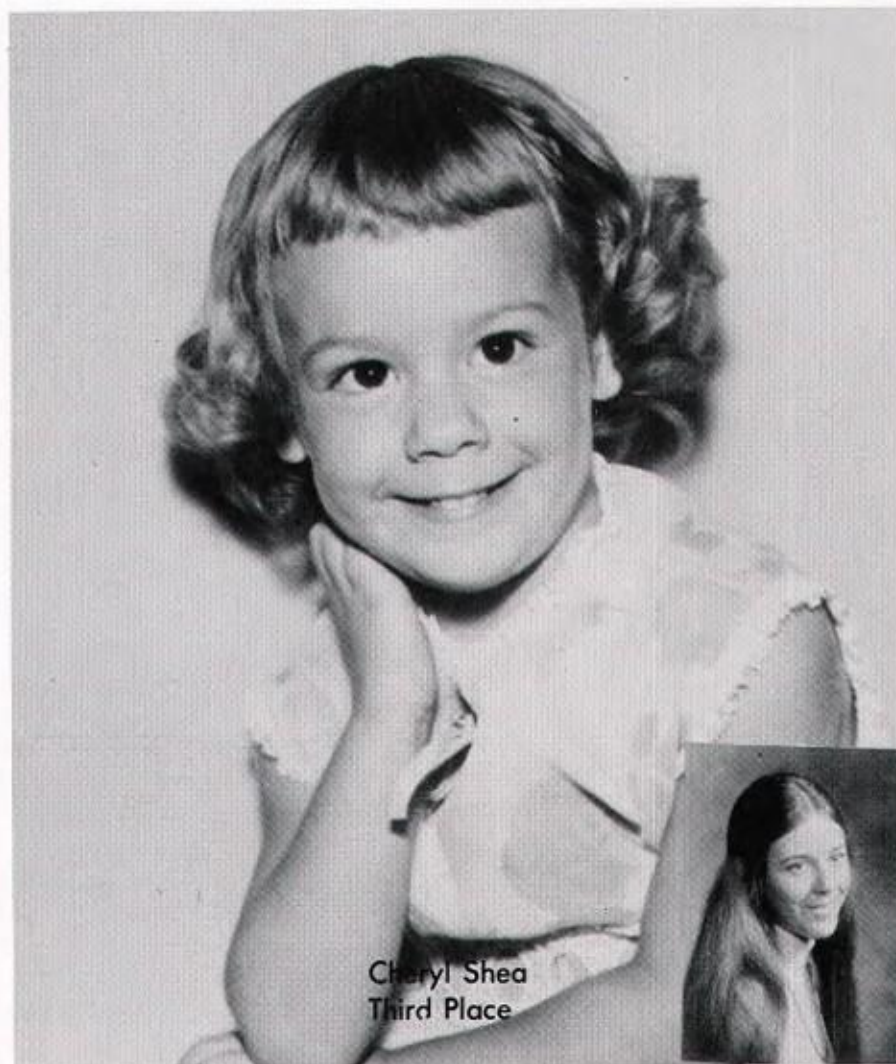

1 - Capturing the spirit of Nostalgia Week are Clara Rael, Leroy Sanchez and Barbara Lujan. 2 - Linda Ortman displays her talent in the spring operetta, "Calamity Jane." 3 - Students take advantage of warm weather to ride their bikes to school. 4 - Mr. Ron Cervantes anticipates the spring operetta in which his daughter Rhonda was a performer. 5 - Robert Shipman warms up for the Valley-UNM game. 6 - Auditioning for the Talent Assembly are Louie Sanchez, Mike Tafoya and Mike Gonzales. 7 - Kathy Lamkin prepares for a softball game. 8 - Typing her copy for a March deadline is Lynette Burt. 9 - Senioritis strikes David Otero.

Kathy Griego Sweeps Baby Contest

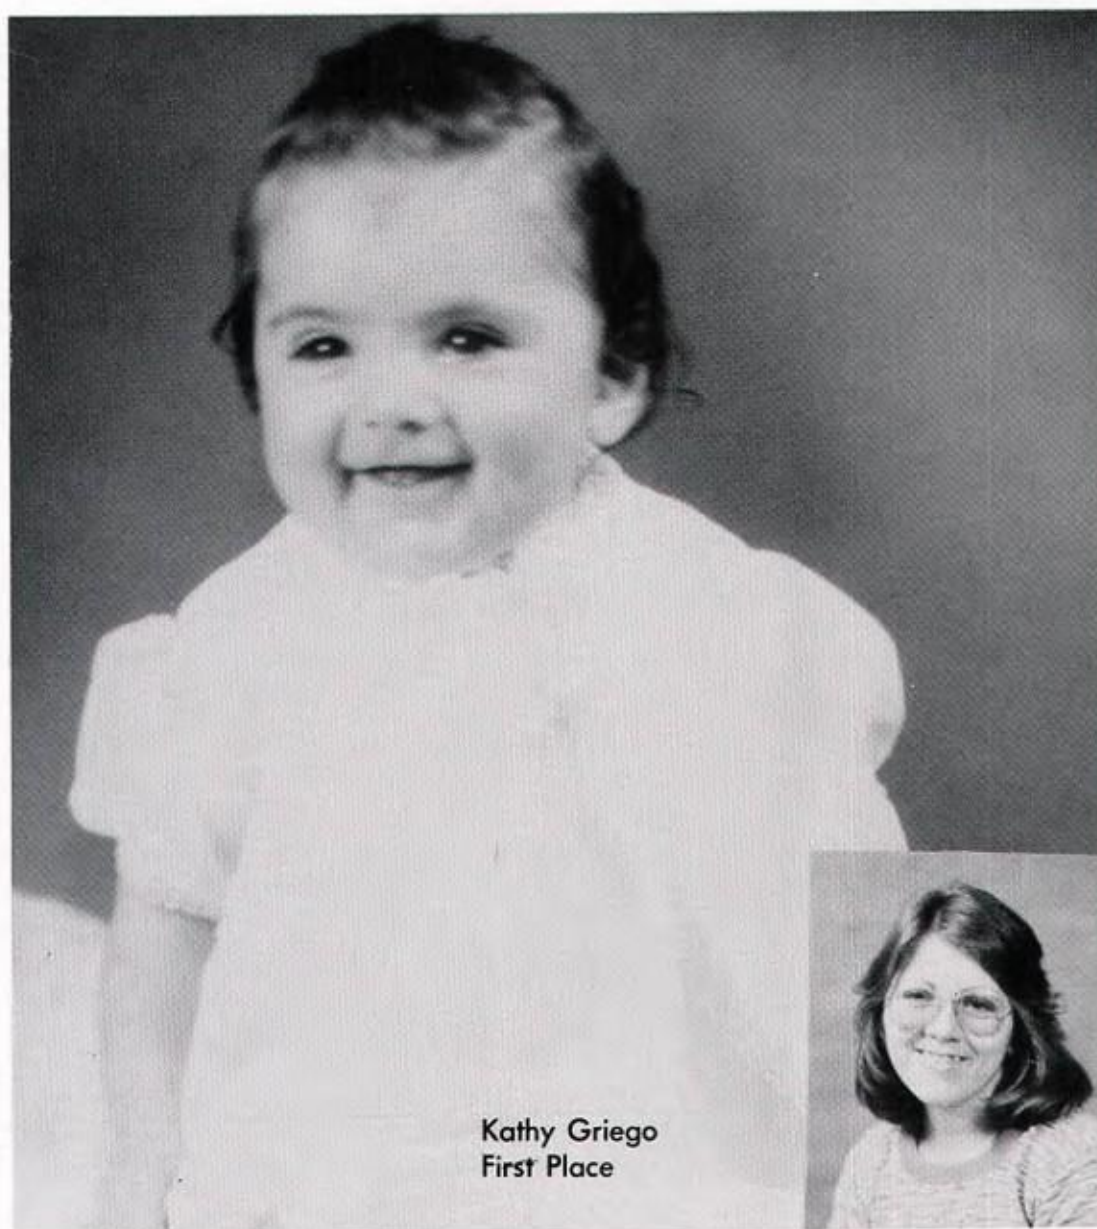

Dianna Santillanes
Second Place

Cheryl Shea
Third Place

Edging out a field of 27 Opponents, Donna (Kathy) Griego, the baby for Ms. Estrada's homeroom, won the 23rd annual baby contest (sponsored this year by the HERO classes) with a total of 5100 votes. Ms. Eubanks' baby, Dianna Santillanes, captured second place with 4718 votes, while Cheryl Shea, Ms. Fackelman's baby, came in third with 4611 votes. Each penny students paid counted as a vote. The HERO classes donated the money collected, after they paid contest expenses, to the Warren A. Smart scholarship fund.

Kathy Griego
First Place

Speech Club Does Well Despite Small Turn Out

Speech club, sponsored by Ms. Sheehan was busy memorizing lines, developing characterizations, and writing speeches for various meets around the state.

The Speech Club did well this year, considering there was such a small turn out. Valley's team had only ten or so members and competed against other high schools with memberships of thirty and forty.

1 - Diana Parker, president goes over speech plans with members of club. 2 - Melissa Graham expresses anger in one of her dramatic speeches. 3. Diana Parker works on a speech for the next meet. 4 - Officers of speech club are Diana Parker, president; Rhonda Keller, vice-president; Tamara Garner, secretary; Ms. Sheehan, sponsor; Melissa Graham, historian; Ellen McKenzie, treasurer.

Media Center Under New Department Head

In its sixth year of service, the Media Center was under the direction of a new department head, Wilma Lachmann. Students and faculty were provided with many materials and services by the staff. Besides ordering and cataloging new materials, librarians and their aide, Ms. Gutierrez, helped students find books and other Media Center materials. They also helped teachers by doing such things as compiling bibliographies for areas in which teachers were interested.

Assisting Ms. Lachman were Jenison Allred and the part-time library aide and full time bookroom clerk Norma Gutierrez. Donna Hulse and Floy Drake worked in the back of the Media Center helping teachers.

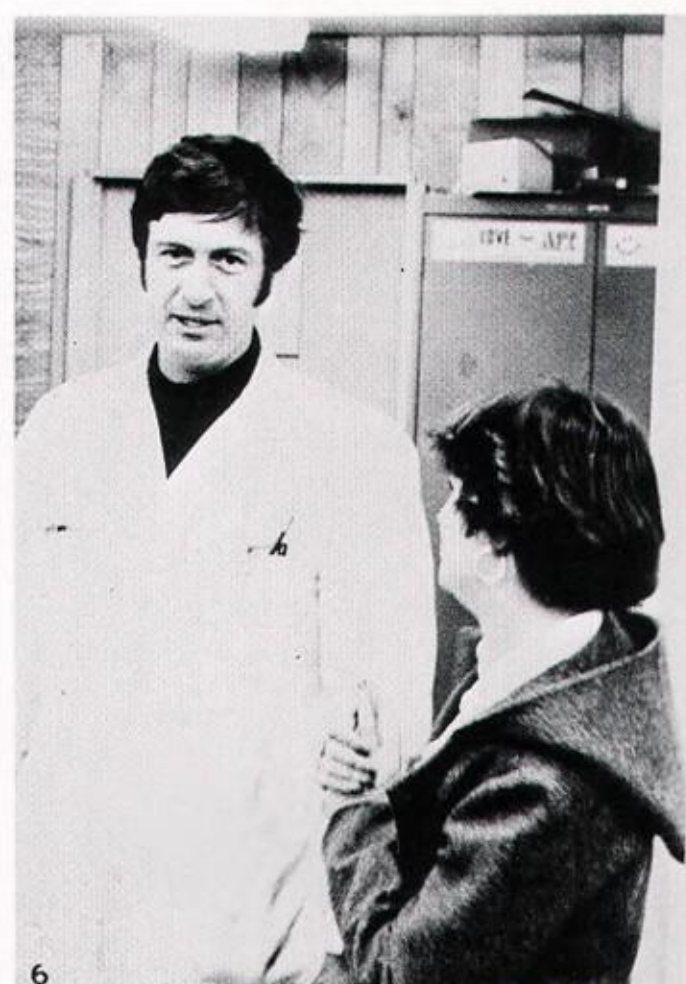

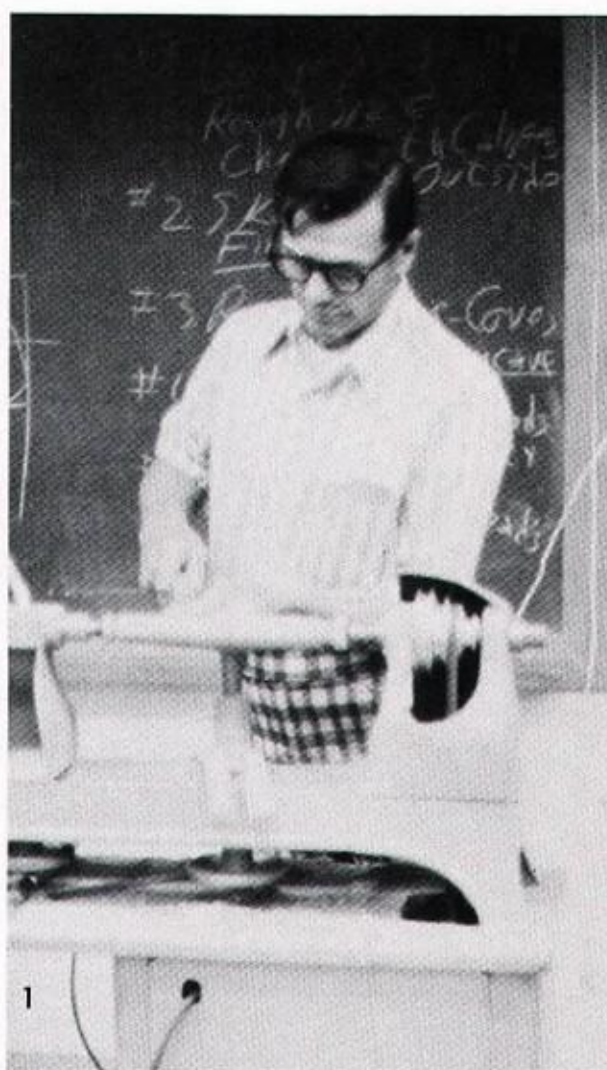

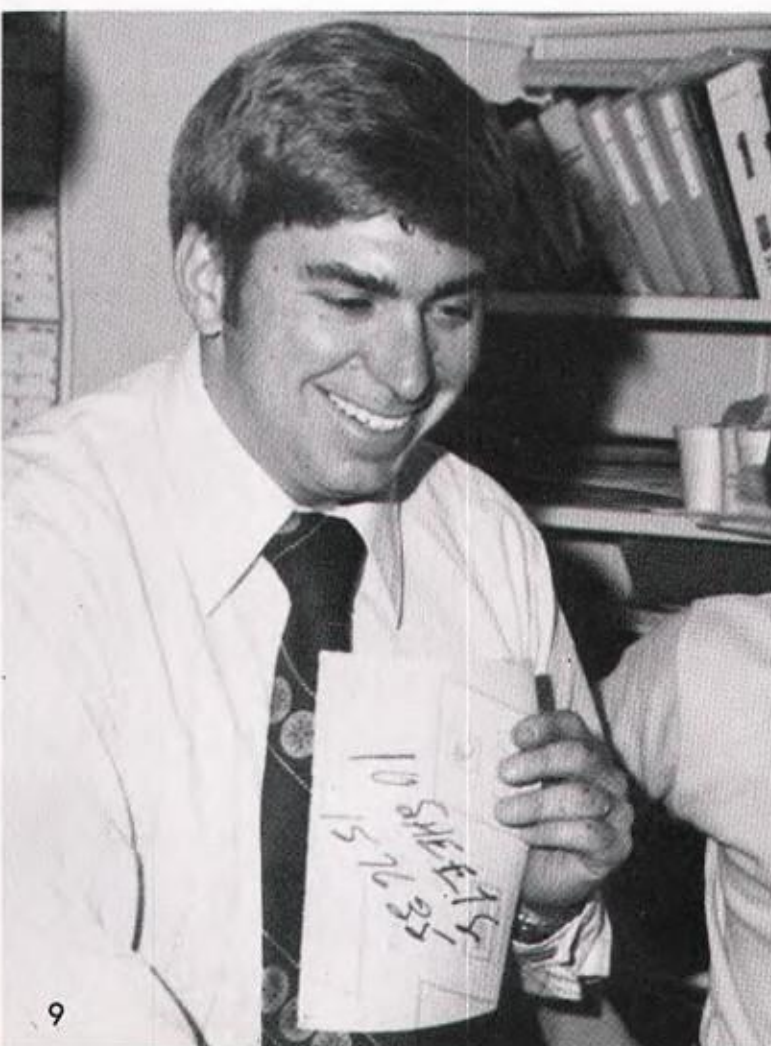

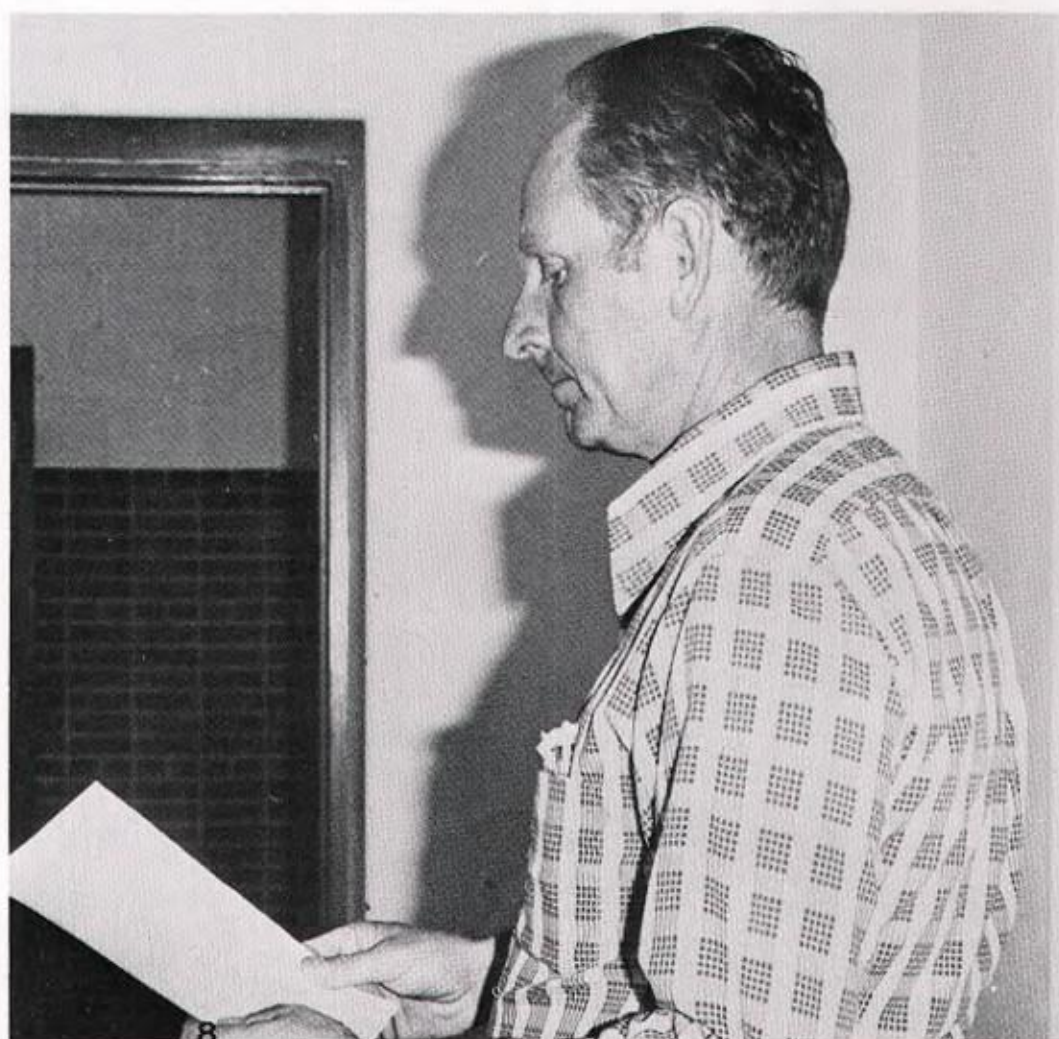

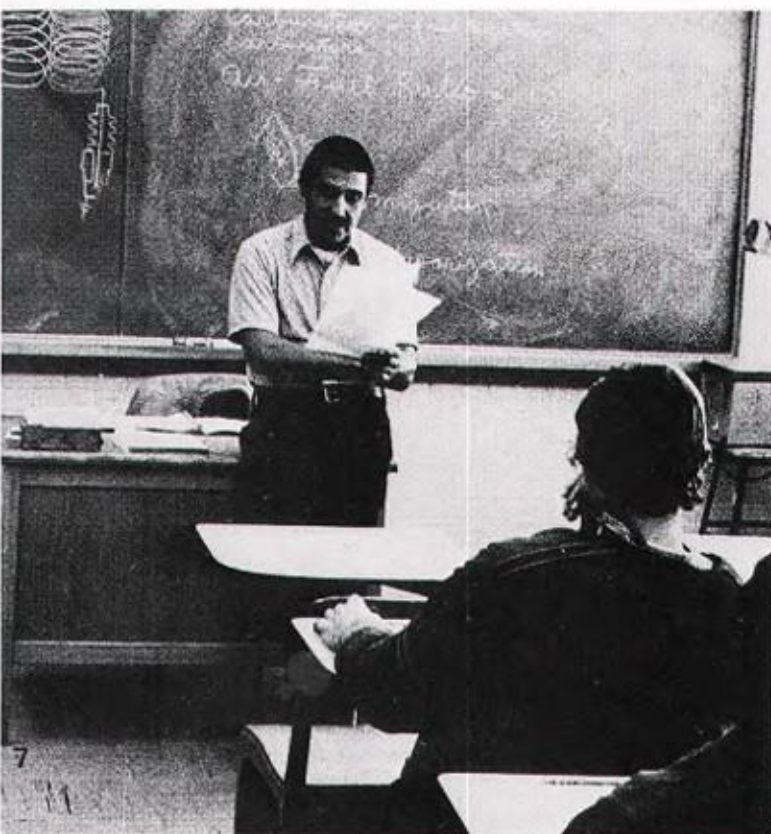

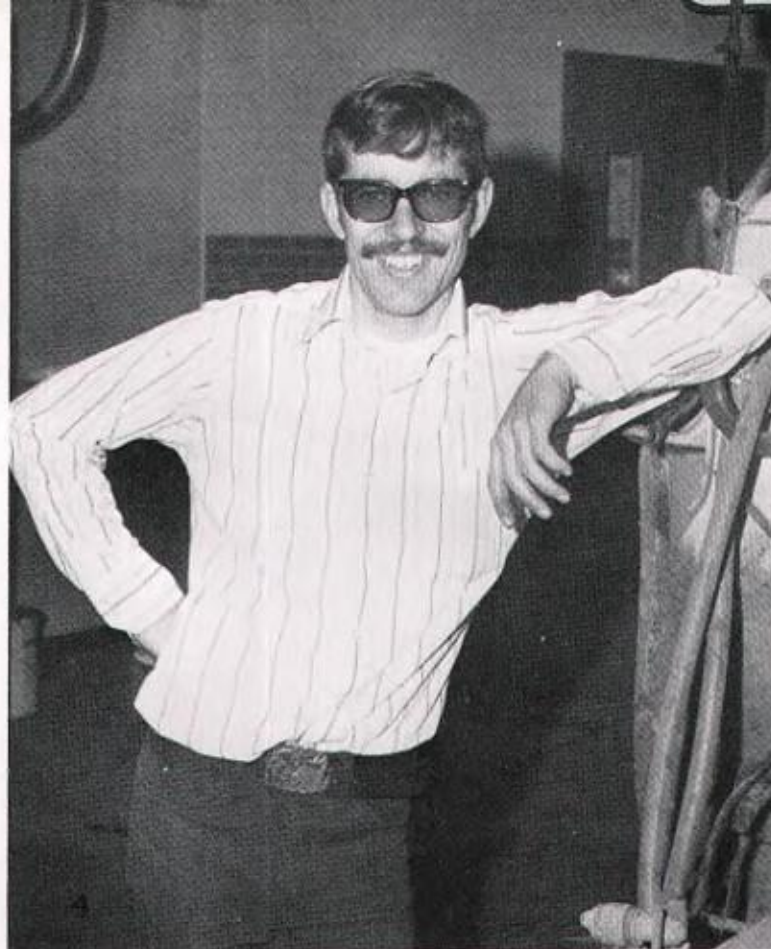

1 - Jenison Allred - MA in Library Science. 2 - Motorcycle magazines are one of the many attractions which catches Maty Garcia's interest. 3 - Library Aide David Garcia indexes cards. 4 - Donna Hulsey - Educational Aide. 5 - Norma Gutierrez - Bookroom Clerk and Library Aide. 6 - Wilma Lachmann - MA in Library Science. 7 - Floy Drake - Educational Aide.

Industrial Arts Keeps Hands and Minds Busy

Industrial Arts classes got students' hands and minds busy as the '76-'77 school year got underway. Course selections included classes in electronics, drafting, automotive mechanics, woods, power mechanics, agriculture, horticulture. Industrial Cooperative Training was provided so that a student would have a choice of a trade or service-type job. The job required a minimum of 2000 hours of training and three hours on the job per day, plus one hour at school in the related course.

1 - Alfred Dzielak - MA in Education; Woods. 2 - Theresa Garcia cleans up a demo. engine. 3 - Joe Liebert - MA in Education and Administrative Services; Drafting, department head. 4 - Roger Alink - BS in Industrial Education; Beginning and Advanced Power Mechanics. 5 - Russell Wade - BS in Vocational Education; Industrial Cooperative Training. 6 - Richard Cantrall - BS in Industrial Education; Metals. 7 - Ronald Cervantes - MA in Industrial Arts; Power Mechanics I and II. 8 - George Head - MA in Agriculture; Agriculture, Horticulture, Biology. 9 - John Dougherty - BA in Industrial Arts; Science, Driver Education, Electronics II, Introduction to Power Mechanics.

Home Ec Sponsors Annual Christmas Bazaar

Preparing for the freshmen who will enter Valley next year, Home Ec made plans to offer five different kinds of quarter classes.

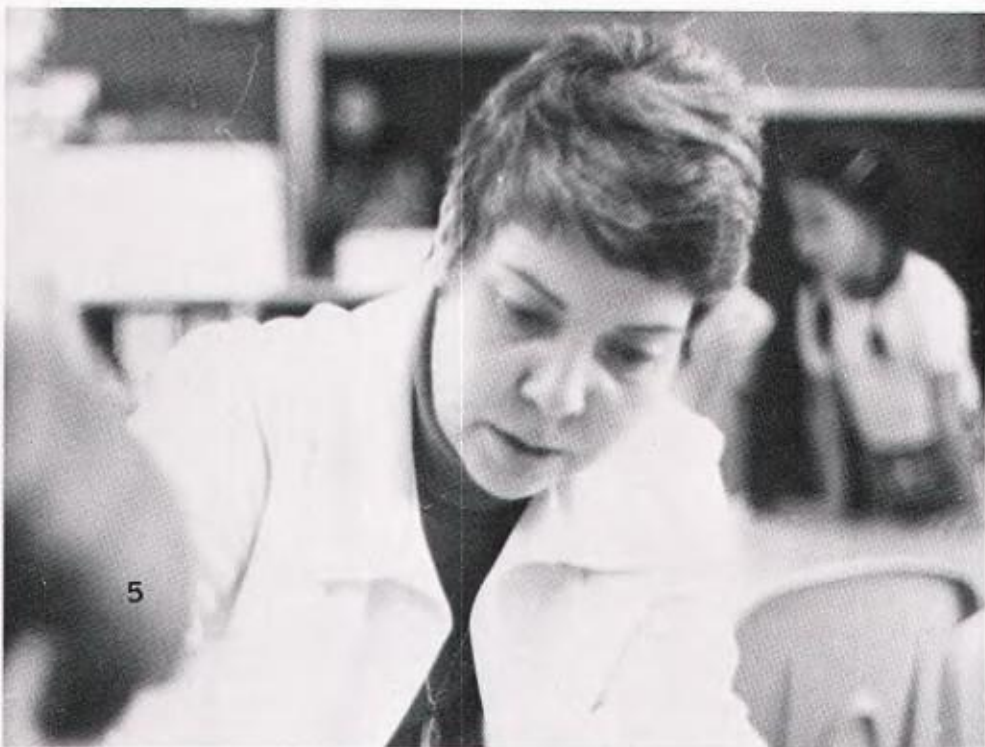

Home Ec department head, Jeanne Dabney, and other teachers prepared a system where students will be able to choose four out of five different quarter classes. The new system was designed for students to be exposed to different teachers and the variety of courses.

Many faculty, students, parents and friends had the opportunity to get some of their Christmas shopping done early when the Home Ec faculty and students sponsored a Christmas Bazaar on December 10. Students sold their individual creations ranging from wreaths to nut breads. Money earned from the bazaar went to purchase new equipment for the department.

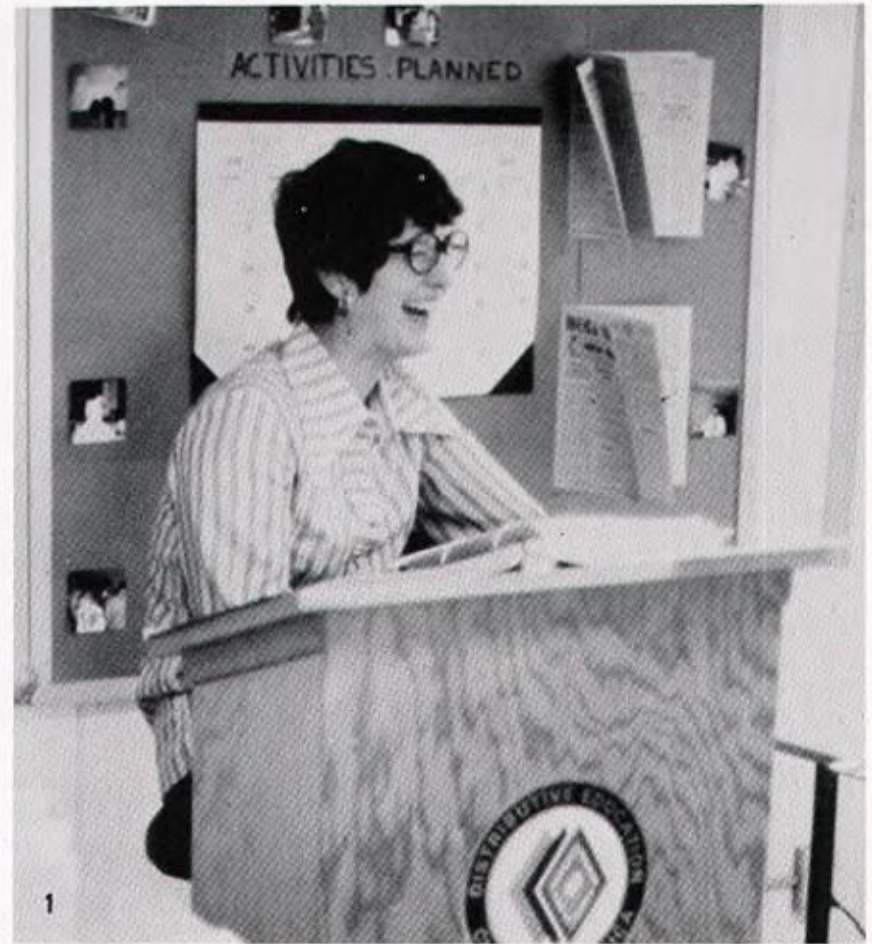

1 - Loretta Lovato directs children in her child care class. 2 - Loretta Huenefeld - BA in Vocational Home Economics, Foods, Prep for the Future. 3 - Lynn Sanchez - BS in Vocational Home Economics; Foods I & II, Creative Cooking, Baking. 4 - Dianna Davidson - BS in Vocational Home Economics; Interior Design and Housing, Foods I, Creative Stitchery. 5 - Priscilla Kremer - BS in Home Economics Education; Child Care and Guidance. 6 - Corrine Abeyta makes Christmas decorations for the annual Christmas Bazaar. 7 - Evelyn Owens - ME in Home Economics Education; Basic Clothing, Needle Trades I & II Creative Stitchery. 8 - Jeanne Dabney - MS in Nutrition; Applied Design (HERO). 9 - Preschoolers watch as Ms. Priscilla Kremer makes paper flowers in the Child Care Class.

Business Department Stresses Training For Use After Graduation

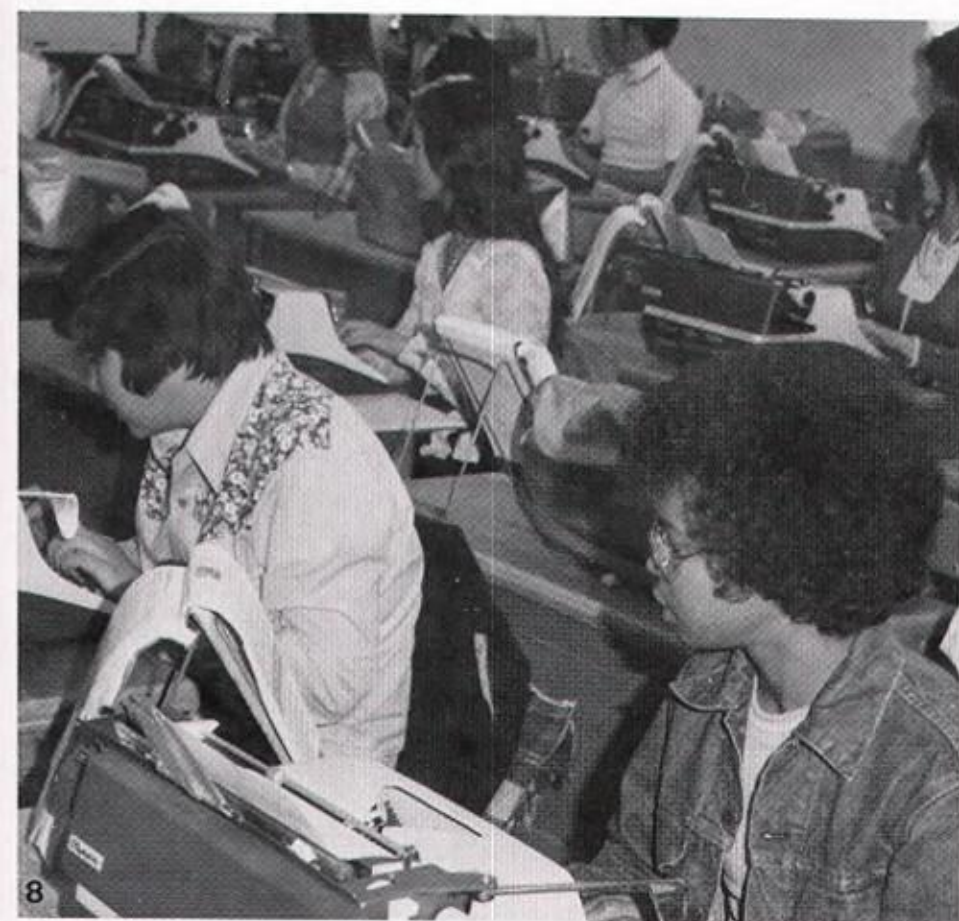

The basic goal of the Business Education Department was to help train students to qualify for jobs in the business world immediately upon graduation or to use their skills to help them through college.

A new course, Business Math, was added to the department's curriculum, while a new addition to the staff was Mr. Gary Spitzberg, the only male in the all-female department.

Under the direction of Ms. Pat Norris, the department made several preparations for next years incoming freshmen. Three new courses will be added, Record Keeping, Business in the 70's, and Typing Ia, plus one new teacher.

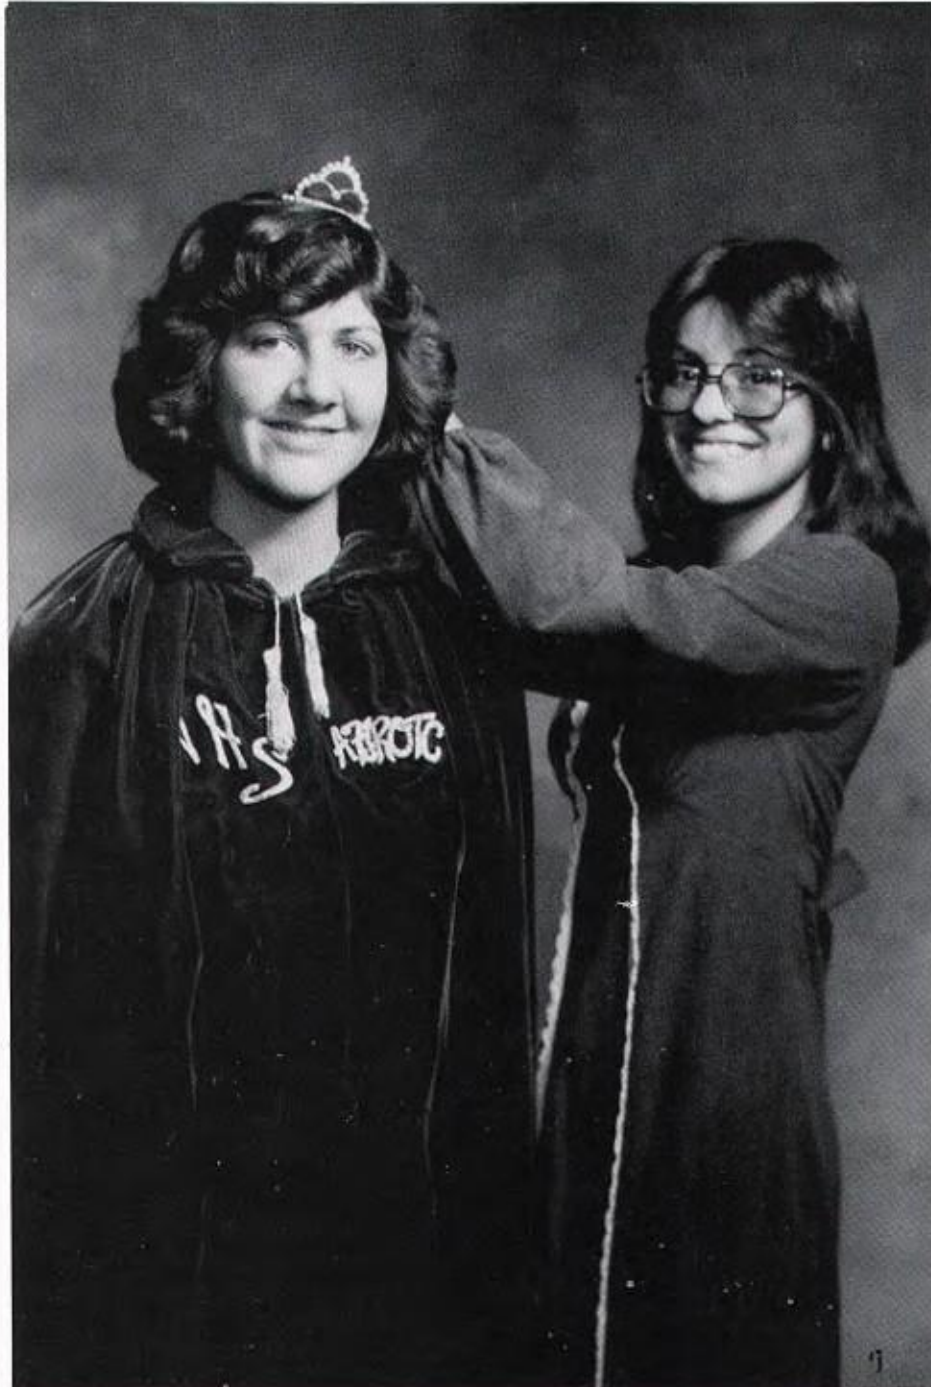

1 - Verda McMullen - MS in Business; Distributive Education. 2 - Ruth Bond - MA in Business; Office Education co-op and Intensive, Intermediate Typing. 3 - Patricia Norris - MA in Business; Shorthand, Teacher Aide, Typing. 4 - Agnes Caudle - MA in Teaching Business; Office Education I, Office Education Prep., Cashiering. 5 - Gary Spitzberg - MA in Educational Administration; Typing, Business Math. 6 - Maudie Smith (front) enters data that will be fed into a computer at her part time job at BISCO. 7 - Beatrice Holmes - MA in Education Curriculum; Business Law, Accounting, Typing I, Shorthand. 8 - Students in Mr. Spitzberg's Typing I class work on a timed writing.

From making floral arrangements to baking wedding cakes, to altering and designing clothes, the HERO classes made themselves useful to almost everyone at Valley.

The applied designed classes, taught by Jeanne Dabney, made all the floral arrangements for Homecoming. They also made cakes for Valentine's day, birthdays, Easter, or any special events that students order cakes for. HERO, short for Home Economic Related Occupations offered students a chance to build skills for a career in cake decoration, floral design, or needle trades (taught by Evelyn Owens).

Thespians Awarded Invite to Tuscon

Valley's theater activities were based on Bert Lahr's famous definition, "The process of theater-going becomes a communal activity through which we can remember who we are and how we are, where we can touch the past and present."

The all school production, "Arsenic and Old Lace," combined a large cast and a difficult play, giving a wide range of students the opportunity to experience total theater; building, lighting, costuming and acting.

Thespian Troupe 1197 performed "The Effects of Gamma Rays on Man-in-the-Moon-Marigolds" at the UNM Festival, Festival dignitaries invited Valley to perform at the Regional Conference held in Tucson. Also, Annetta Jorden was named first alternate for a scholarship and Ana Vogel, fourth alternate. Drama Club members also participated in mime productions during the spring.

Concert Band Heads To Chihuahua

With the Chihuahua, Mexico, trip in mind, the Valley band started the year eager and went strong all year long. They played at most assemblies, as well as at Ice Cream Socials, dances, chili suppers, and parades. The first fund-raising project was lighting the homes of many Valley students by selling candles. The goal was to earn money for the long trip to Mexico. They met their goal midway through December. Mr. Kelly promised the band they could hit him with a pie if the goal was achieved; needless to say, at the Christmas assembly he received a pie in the eye.

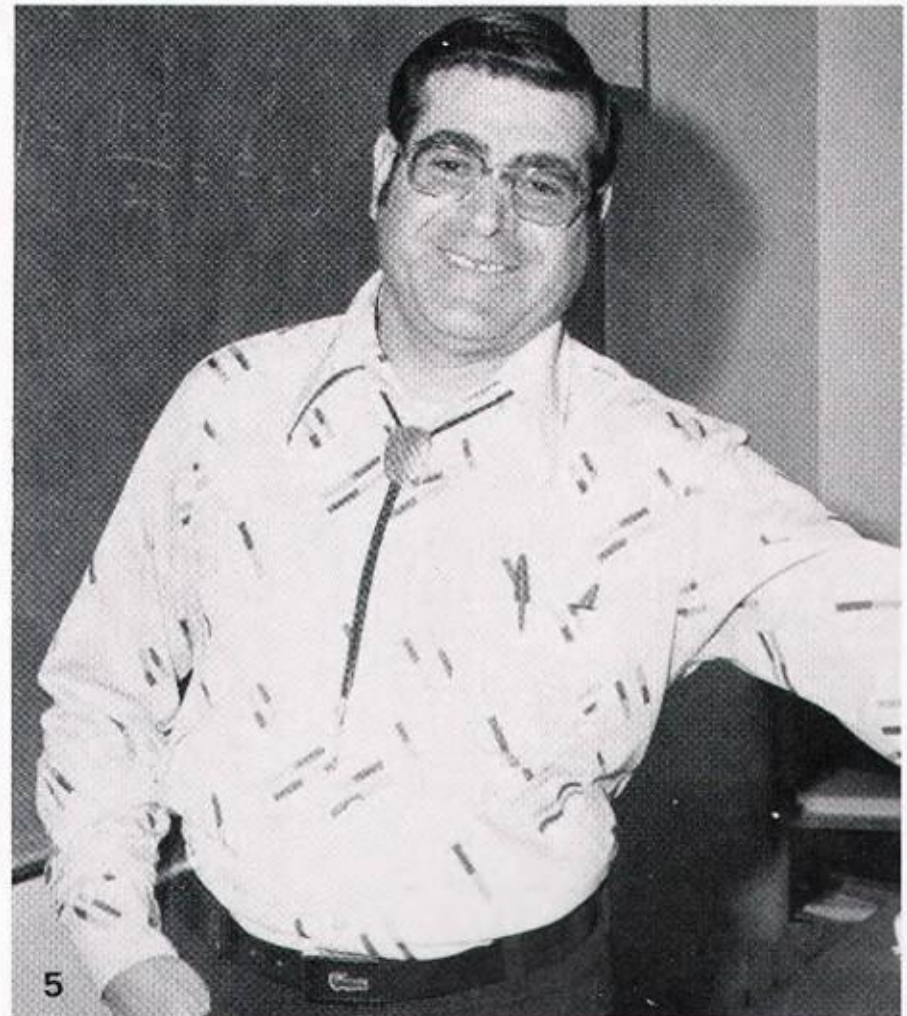

1 - Tom Coen and Angela Martinez line up for the State Fair Parade. 2 - Tim Gill drum major; Katrina VanKesteren drum major, Louis Encinas, student council representative; Mary Jaramillo, secretary; Alain Archuleta, president; Diane DeHerrera, vice president; Theresa Brandenburg, treasurer. 3 - Concert Band entertains the audience during the Los Alamos pep assembly. 4 - Glen Holmen awaits his cue to play at the Christmas assembly. 5 - Band Majors Tim Gill and Katrina VanKesteren prepare to leave for the Rio Grande football game. 6 - Mr. Kelly proves he's a good sport after a pie in the eye. 7 - Before school practice sharpens marching band skills. 8 - Mr. Kelly tunes up the band before the Christmas assembly.

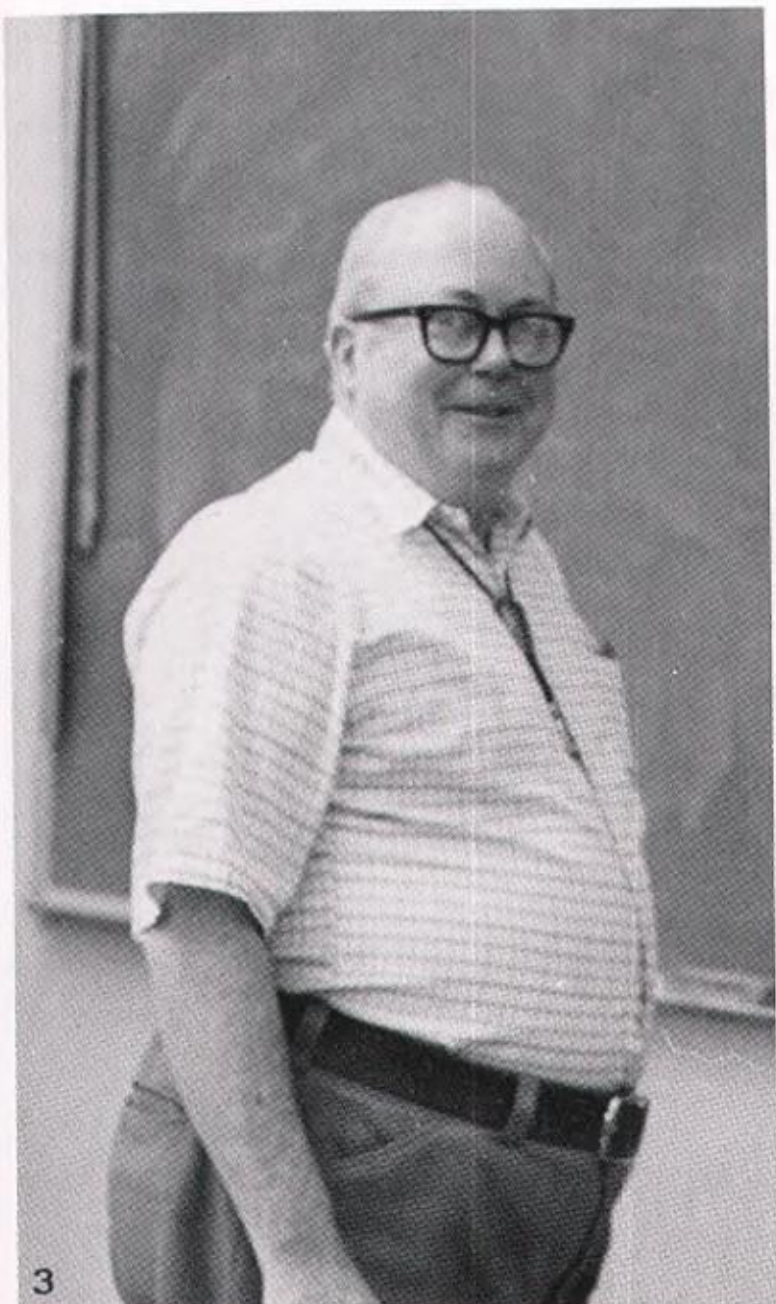

More Students Than Ever Enroll in Math Classes

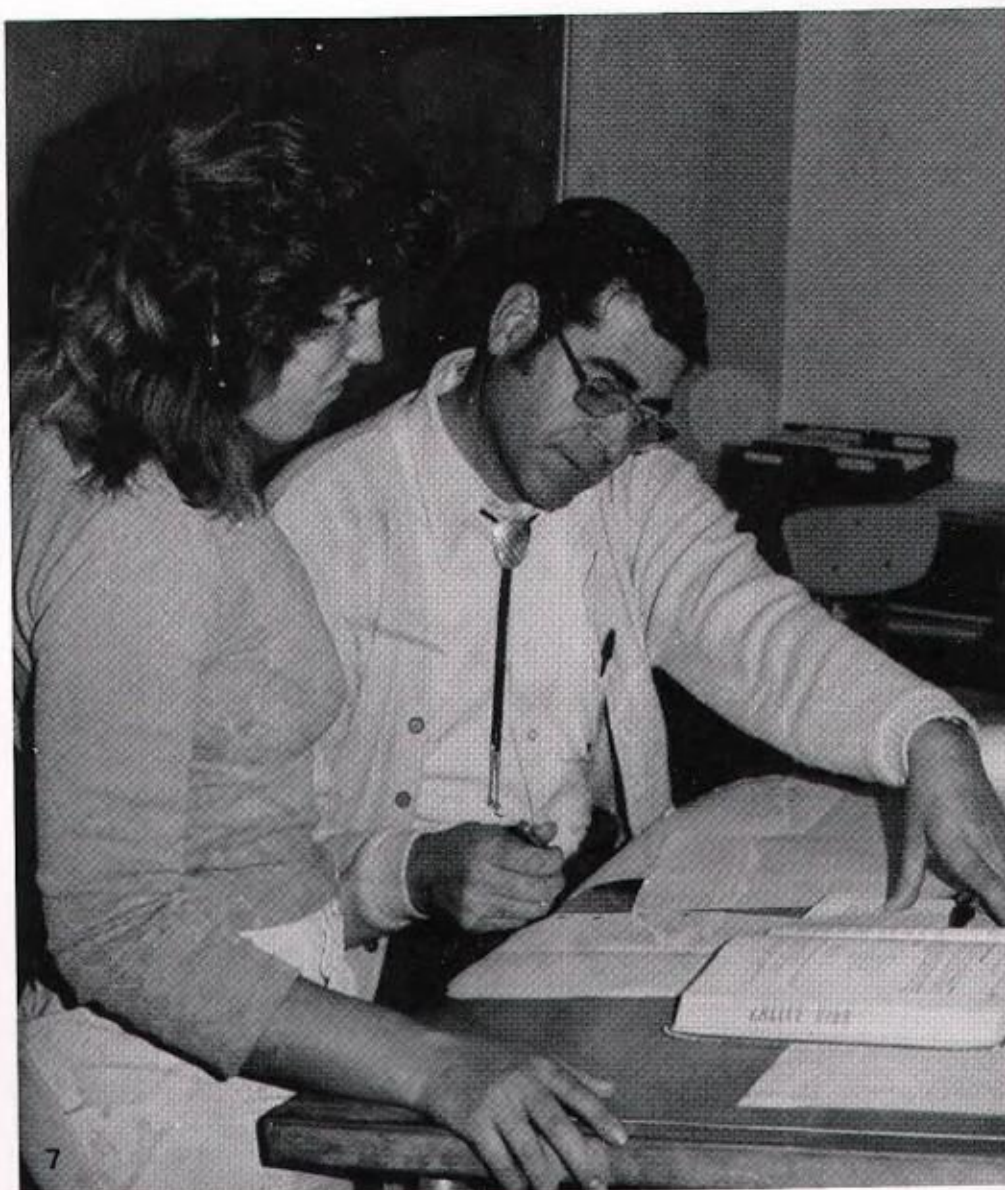

More people than ever signed up for math classes this year. Mr. Charles Burdick, department head, speculated that the reason for the increased enrollment was perhaps due to the fact that Geometry and Trigonometry had been made one semester courses. "Students now have the opportunity to take more, as well as different classes," Mr. Burdick said.

Besides Geometry and Trigonometry, students interested in upper level courses, were able to enroll in a Fortran Programming class. One year of math will be required for all freshmen next year. There will be two choices for them to pick from, Elementary Algebra or Algebra I. Placement of students in these classes has been determined by testing, that was given in the spring. Coordinating sessions were held with teachers from the junior high schools, preparing the department for next year.

1 - Donna Wrenn - MS in Math; Elementary Algebra, Intermediate Algebra, Math Topics. 2 - Roberta Fackelman - MA in Logic; Computer Science, Geometry, Algebra II/Trigonometry. 3 - Charles W. Burdick - MA in Math; Elementary Algebra, Geometry, Math Analysis. 4 - Ms. Fackelman hands back tests during her second period Algebra II/Trigonometry class. 5 - Sidney Sanchez - MA in Math Education; Algebra II, Elementary Algebra, Computer Programming I. 6 - Bill Sord - BS in Math; Physics, Intermediate Algebra, Elementary Algebra. 7 - Desiree Mulvaney asks Mr. Sanchez to explain a problem in his Elementary Algebra class.

Both Drill Teams Place Third In Roswell Drill Meet

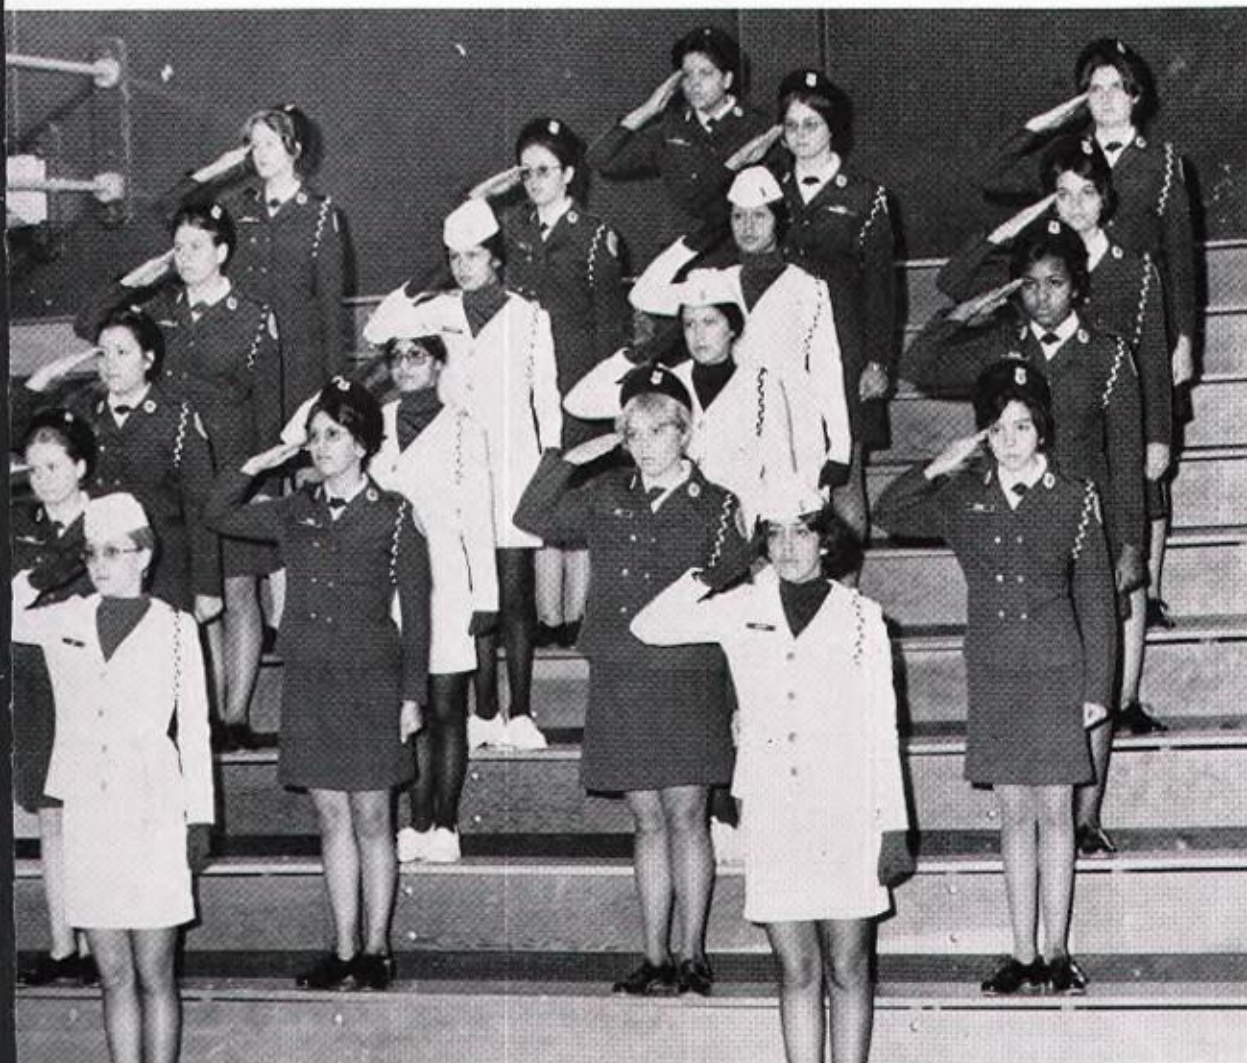

Bringing home third place trophies from the Roswell Drill Meet, both AFJROTC drill teams gave impetus to a big year for the "junior birdmen."

The Drill Team also performed in parades and at Junior High schools. Their main objective this year was to plan for the state drill meet in March, for which they practiced many hours after school.

Plans for the Military Ball began to take shape from the beginning of the year. The ROTC classes sold candy, had car washes, bake sales, and sold mistletoe for Christmas to raise money. The dance, which was held in April at the Four Seasons was an elegant climax for the year.

Varsity Cheerleaders Voted Most Spirited On Opening Day of Summer Clinic

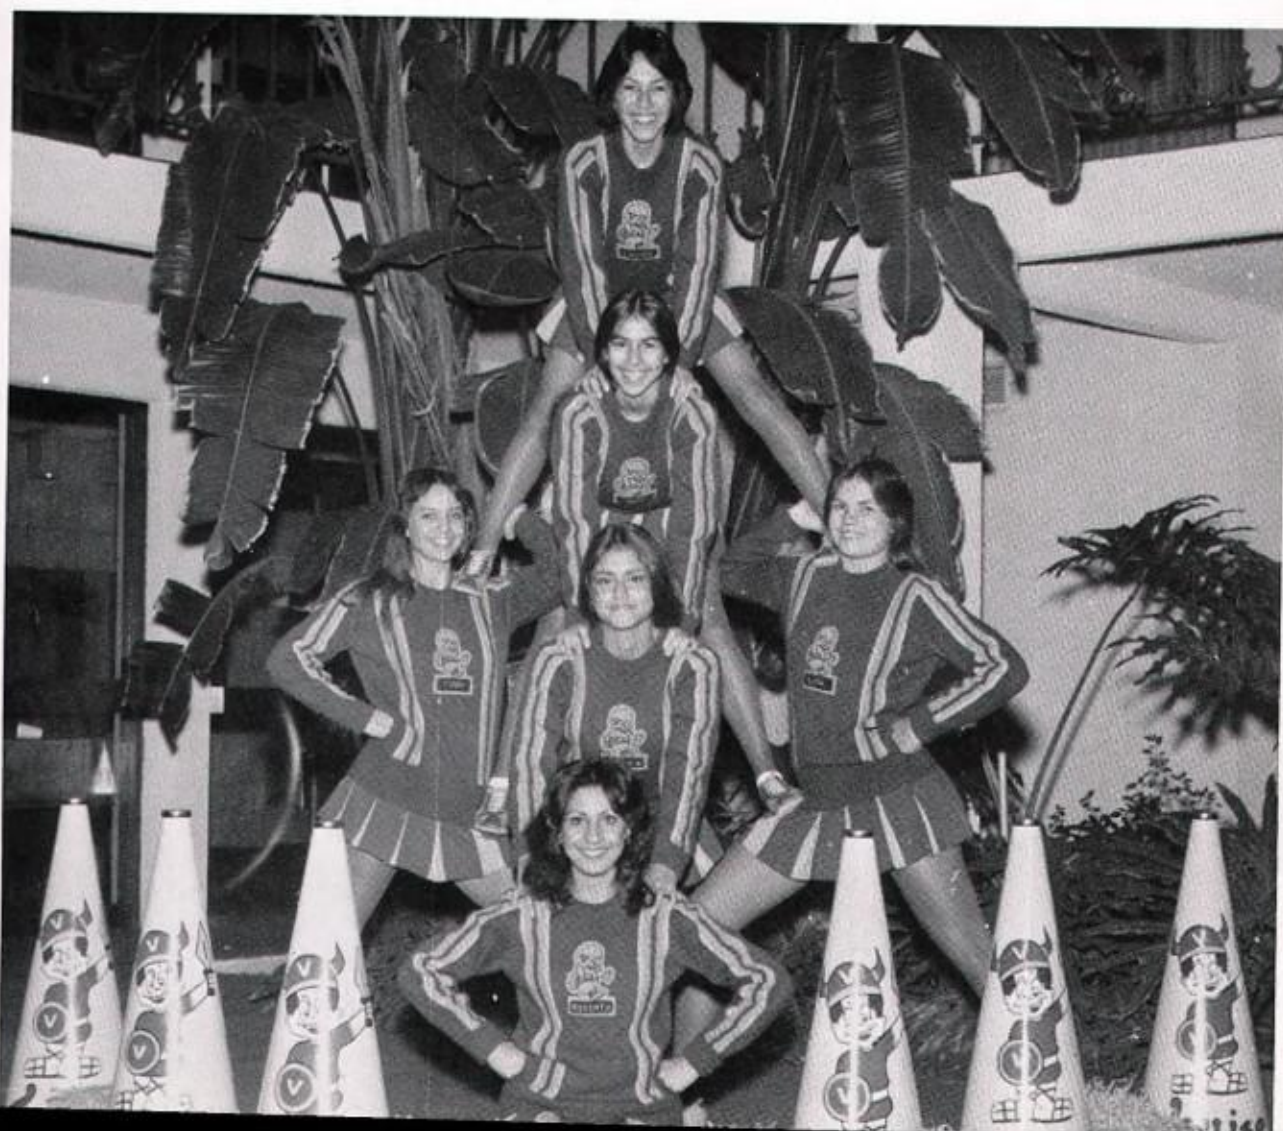

Last spring Valley students chose six girls to lead the Vikings as the 1976-77 Varsity six. Four of the girls chosen had been former basketball players; the other two had been on the Valley Drill Team, the Vikettes.

As many cheerleading squads do, the Varsity Six started their cheerleading functions in the summer at NCA clinic, held at UNM arena, bringing home three superior, two excellent and one outstanding ribbons. They also completed five categories enabling them to receive a Super Star Squad ribbon.

1 - Roberta Jaramillo. 2 - Louise Montoya. 3 - The Varsity Six pose for a snapshot in their traveling uniforms before leaving for an out-of-town game. 4 - Susi Miera. 5 - Connie Gutierrez. 6 - Terry Warwick. 7 - Lisa McIlhaney. 8 - Tracy Ewing, mascot.

1 - Leading a sideline cheer for the crowd is Lisa McIlhaney. 2 - Roberta Jaramillo starts a sideline cheer during the Highland game as Valley goes to the free throw line. 3 - During a time out the Varsity-six perk up the crowd with one of their favorite cheers. 4 - Connie Gutierrez yells with excited Viking fans at the Albuquerque High game. 5 - An enthusiastic crowd cheers the Vikings on to their third consecutive win. 6 - Louise Montoya, Susi Miera and Lisa McIlhaney cheer in the freezing weather during Valley's Homecoming game.

Golfers Gain New Coach

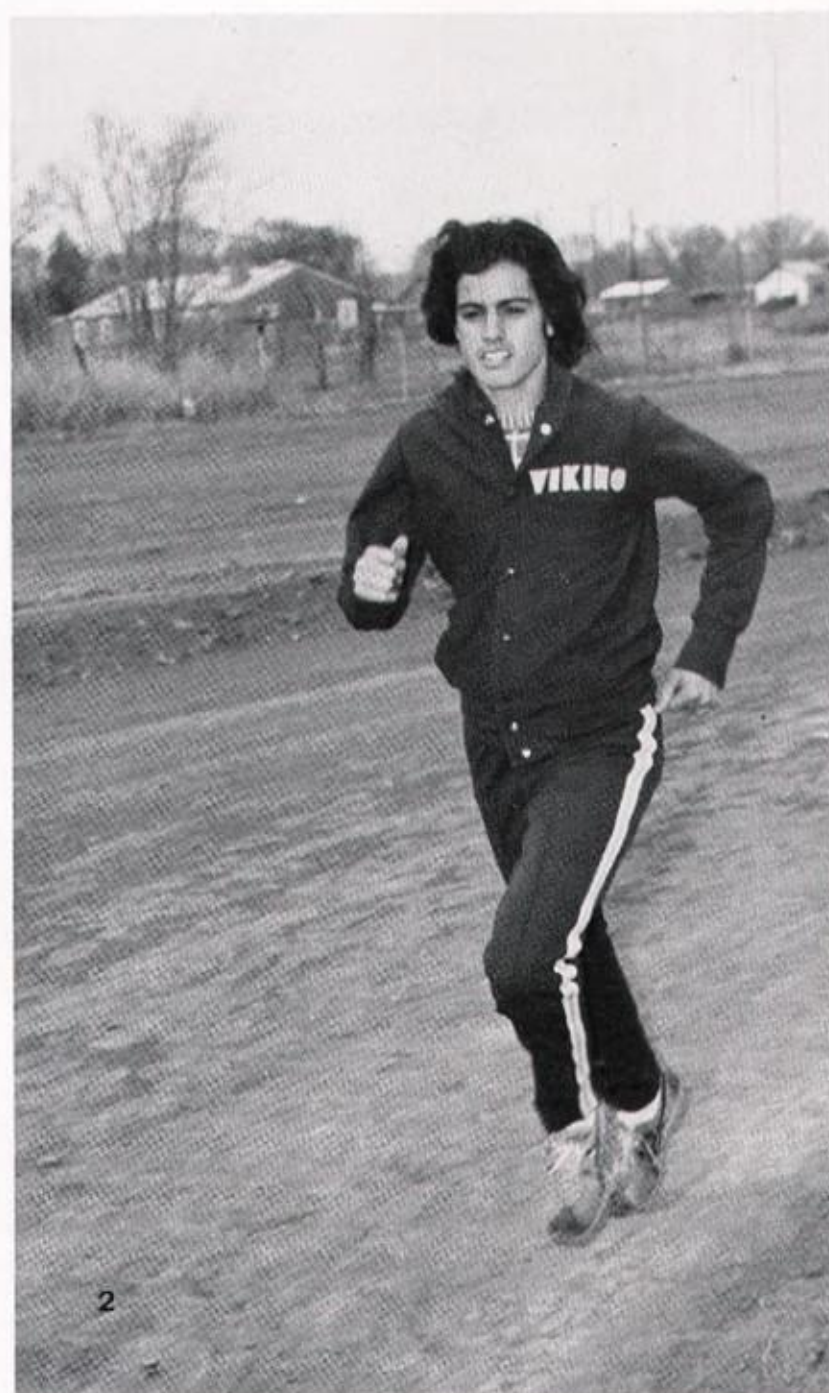

Mr. Jack Phillips in his first year of coaching the Golf Team, was surprised by the outcome and spirit of his team members. They included Scott Martin, Charlie Maes, Pat Moore, and Rick Sanchez. Mr. Phillips looked for an even more improved season next year.

1 - Scott Martin and Charlie Maes flank golf coach: Jack Phillips before teeing off at Academy Invitational at Arroya Del Oso Golf Course. 2 - Eyeing the cup is Charles Maes. 3 - A big swing is taken by Scott Martin during one of the many tournaments he participated in. 4 - A strategy putt is attempted by Pat Moore. 5 - Rick Sanchez makes a long putt look easy.

Ten Senior Lettermen Return

Viking track got well under way March 5 with the first meet at Wilson Stadium. Meets continued throughout March and April until the early part of May. Two out-of-town trips were taken to Clovis and Los Alamos.

Thirty-one underclassmen along with ten returning senior lettermen rounded out this team.

Preseason training consisted of sprint drills and specialty training in certain events ranging from running to field events. In addition to head coach Dean Voge, assistant coaches Tom Malone and Tom Ferguson came in to help with individuals in their special events.

Although dominated by underclassmen, the track squad promised to be a stronger and more competitive one.

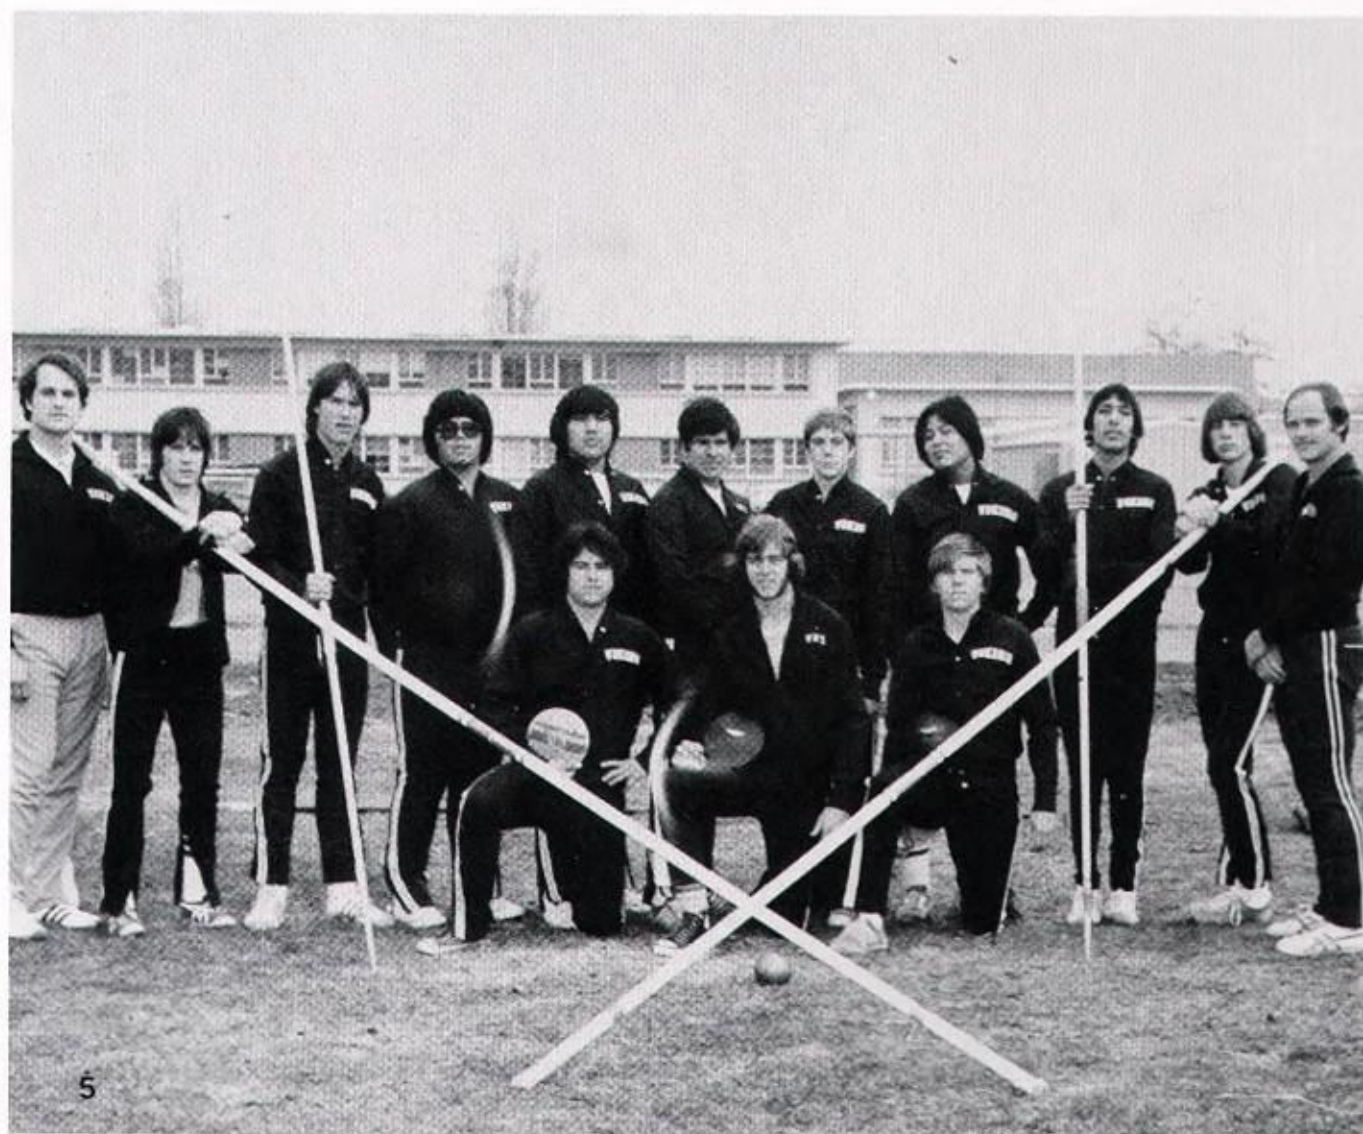

1 - The four-man 880-relay consists of Bobby Dogger, Wilfred Lovato, Tug Herig and Andrew Sanchez. 2 - Ben Sandoval, returning letterman. 3 - Scott Phillips tests his ability at the javelin throw. 4 - Track runners are (first row) Ben Sandoval, Phil Villescias, Xavier Padilla, Craig Bond, Jay Novat, Steve Weaver and Mark Rowe; (second row) Anthony Trujillo, Daniel Ruiz, Joe McMinn, Anthony Garcia, Albert Martinez, Marc McNeely, George Gonzales, Wilfred Lovato and Mike Abraham; (third row) Tom Malone, Lambert Eustace, Danny Monk, Chuck Overmeir, Mark Montoya, Jeff Romero, Tug Herig, Bobby Dogger, Andrew Sanchez, Steve Bond, Tony Perkins and Tom Ferguson. 5 - Jeff Romero tests out a new javelin. 6 - Coach Voge starts 440 runners for preparation of upcoming meets. 7 - Coach of the track club "The Supremes", Willie Goldsmith, Valley's new football coach, gives some advice on using the starting blocks. 8 - Matt Montoya, senior letterman.

Raqueteers Adapt To New Coaching

Last year Ralph Saavedra and Mike Fugate entered the State Tournament as a pair and returned with a second place trophy from their doubles event. The team was coached by Russel Wade and won every session match except for one against Del Norte High School.

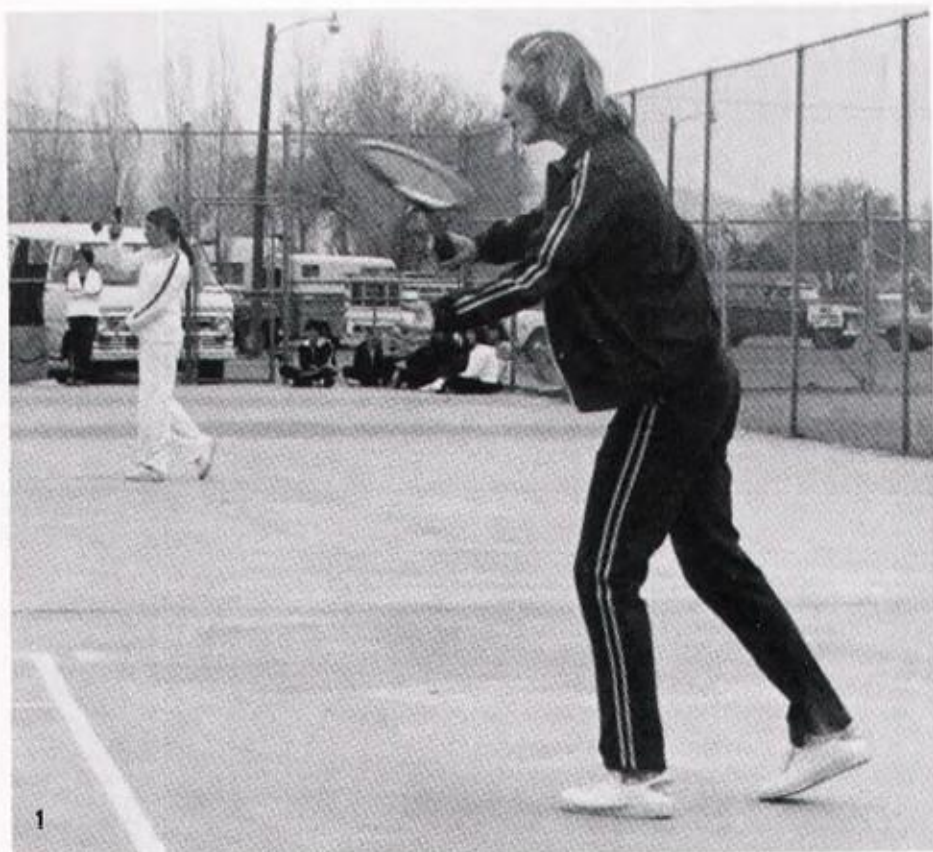

This year the male racqueteers started out with something new: a new coach. Hernando Aguirre took charge of the team and started ladder- ing his players according to their skill. Playing # 1 was Ralph Saavedra; # 2, Chris Long; # 3, Gary Neal; # 4, Sydney Blythe; # 5, Jack Harney; # 6, Camper Walker; # 7, Lee Mosley. Other members on the team were Denis Barnes and Jerry Fajardo.

6 Wins, 6 Losses

Led by senior lettermen, Sue Garcia, Gloria Griego, Vicki Peacock, Renee Beach, and Mercy Montoya, the 1977 softball team had a good turnout. More than 60 girls tried out, but only 16 made the final cuts.

Under the direction of head coach, Jim Vannoy, and his assistant, Jerry Chavez, the team practiced hard for hopes of taking State.

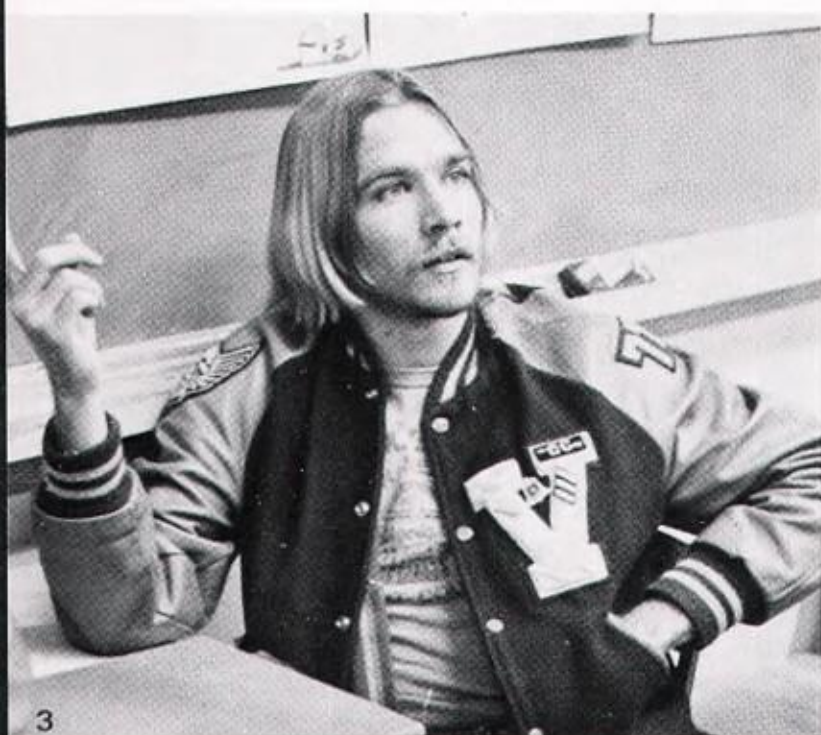

Practice sessions were held everyday after school from 2:30 through 4:30, and on Saturdays from 10:00 through 12:30.

Sixteen Staters Go to Boys', Girls' State

Staters Club was made up of students who are interested in government. Last spring, the '76 Staters picked eight girls and eight boys to be this year's staters. They were all juniors. During the second week of June the Staters went to a convention which was sponsored by the American Legion. At the convention, which was attended by high school students from all over the state, the kids ran for political offices.

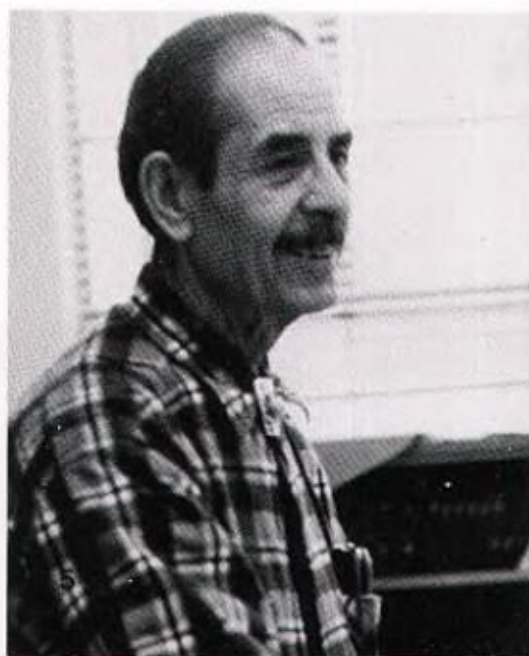

At the end of the summer the staters had a picnic in the mountains. They also sold pins to raise money for decorating the gym for the honors assembly.

1 - Ms. Wier and Debbie Branda discuss upcoming plans for Staters. 2 - Debbie Branda calls an after school meeting to order. 3 - Giving his suggestions during a meeting is Marc McNeely. 4 - Staters members include (first row) Rudy Chavez, Dirk Taylor, Liz Hernandez, Debbie Branda, Tony Flores, Leslie Hill, David Otero, Katrina Van-Kestren and Darlene Velasquez; (second row) David Baumgartner, Gary Bishop, Matt Montoya, Mark Sternhagen, Lynn Anderson, Emily Duran, Marc McNeely, and Glen Holmen. 5 - David Otero cracks a joke to break the monotony of a meeting.

The Sociedad Honoraria Hispanica is an honor society for students of Spanish in public and independent secondary schools in the US and Canada. Founded by the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese, the SHH currently has more than 600 active chapters. Sponsors must be members of the AATSP. No activity is required only a recognition of academic excellence and superior performance in Spanish.

Valley's chapter "Cervantes" of the National Spanish Honor Society is made up of students with a high grade average in Spanish who are outstanding in leadership, character, and service. Every year NSHS goes to Mexico on a trip.

Saga Staff Largest Ever

After the unveiling of the best yearbook ever, memories of tension and anxiety, laughter and tears, and happiness and pride came back to every staff member.

Saga Staffers remembered sloshing through the mud to class, giving and receiving gag christmas gifts, working on Saturdays, suffering through Ms. Ball's Judy Garland imitations, and despite third degree interrogation, the staff managed to keep the theme a secret.

Fighting over four black pens, three slightly dependable typewriters, two croppers, and one photographer the 38 member staff managed to meet successfully every deadline.

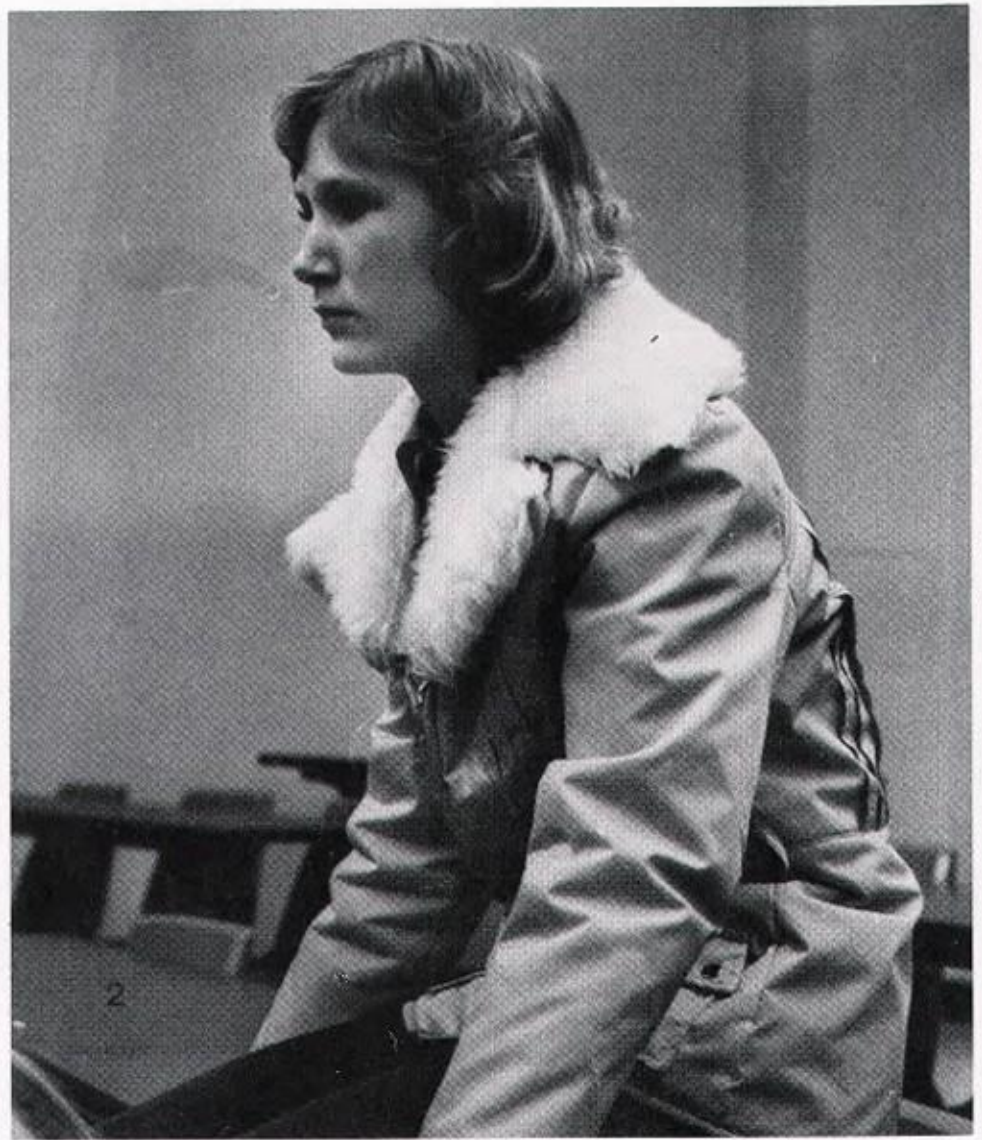

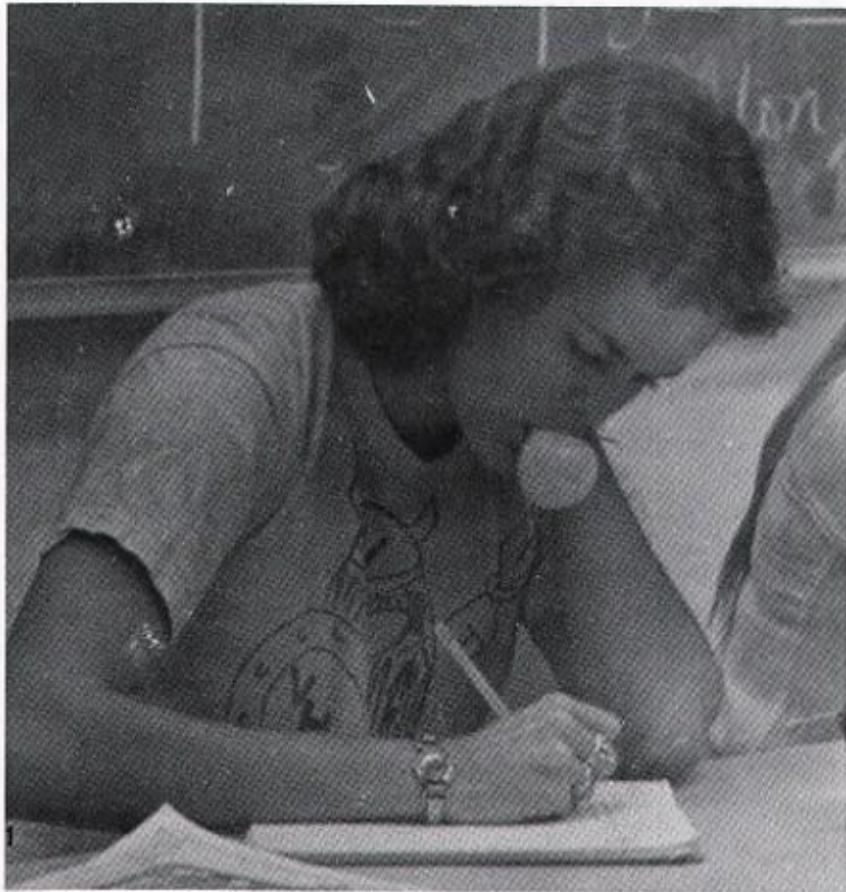

Yet the staff's cooperation and never-ending teamwork resulted in the best SAGA ever produced.

Seniors Get It Together

With more active members than in the past two years, the class of '77 had a successful year. They worked hard for UMOC, earning a record amount of money, put on two dances, had bakesales, playnights, sold candy and printed the homecoming backdrop design on T-shirts to promote Homecoming spirit.

Marc McNeely, senior class president, got many seniors involved in activities, but a great amount of credit goes to their sponsor, Ms. Lynn Sanchez.

1 - Senior Senate Secretary Vicki Peacock concentrates on blowing a bubble and taking notes at the same time. 2 - Beth Long shows her enthusiasm at a Senate meeting. 3 - Gary Bishop and Glen Holmen display the T-shirt Senate made and sold for Homecoming. 4 - Members of Senior Senate are (first row) Kathy Wilson, Linda Ortman, Sandy Gore, Therese Martinez, Darlene Velasquez, and Allison Gentile; (second row) David Baumgartner, Tory Cisneros, Lis Hernandez, Beth Long, Ronna Reed, and Rudy Chavez; (third row) Dirk Taylor, Theresa Anaya, Kathy Harris, and Darrell Begay; (fourth row) Lee Keller and Lisa McIlhaney. 5 - Ms. Sanchez works on keeping spirits up as Seniors decorate the gym for the Homecoming assembly. 6 - Class President "mad" Marc McNeely exposes himself in his natural habitat. 7 - Senate members chat during one of their weekly meetings.

Marc McNeely Presides Over Class of '77

Class of '77

The Class of '77 came in big numbers. It was the largest group of sophomores ever to come to Valley.

As sophomores they were led by a group of five officers: Paul Montoya, president; Teresa Montoya, vice president; Mercy Montoya, secretary; Linda Quintero, treasurer; and Judy Cotinola, Student Council representative. By the end of the year, sophomores had only one elected officer left, Mercy Montoya. The others were forced to withdraw because of grades, suspension or other personal reasons. The senate entered UMOC with Bret Herring as their candidate and also sponsored the Spirit Bash which enabled them to leave $100 in their class treasury.

As juniors, the class of '77 broke tradition by electing co-presidents, Debbie Branda and Tony Lucero. Louise Montoya was vice president; Regina Salazar, secretary; Susie Miera, treasurer; and Renee Beach, Student Council representative. Debbie Branda finished the year as president alone when Tony Lucero resigned. After their class officer problems were settled, the junior class got off to a roaring, but late start selling raffle tickets, candy ads for basketball posters, ice-cream, t-shirts, and assembly tickets for UNM men's gymnastics team, which allowed them to put on one of the best Senior proms ever.

A prom committee was chosen, and Beth Long was elected chairman. The theme was "We May Never Pass This Way Again," and the colors were lime green and lemon yellow. The Juniors started something new, a prom queen. Any senior girl was eligible, and '76 seniors picked Martha Chavez.

Suddenly it was 77, the year seniors were determined. They were ready to take over any class competitive events. Senior Senate started off with $600, and officers Marc McNeely, president; Katrina Van Kesteren, vice president; Vicki Peacock, secretary; Jeff Romero, treasurer, and returning officer Debbie Branda as both class historian, and student council representative. Dances, T-shirts, playnights and all money raising events came to a halt as the time of graduation grew near. The time when some had been waiting both patiently and impatiently for was here. Many different feelings filled graduates-to-be, chilling, sad and happy, but that never-ending feeling of accomplishment and unity fills all.

Seniors, Remember . . . Three Years of Parties, Playnights, Studying, Dances, the Parking Lot?

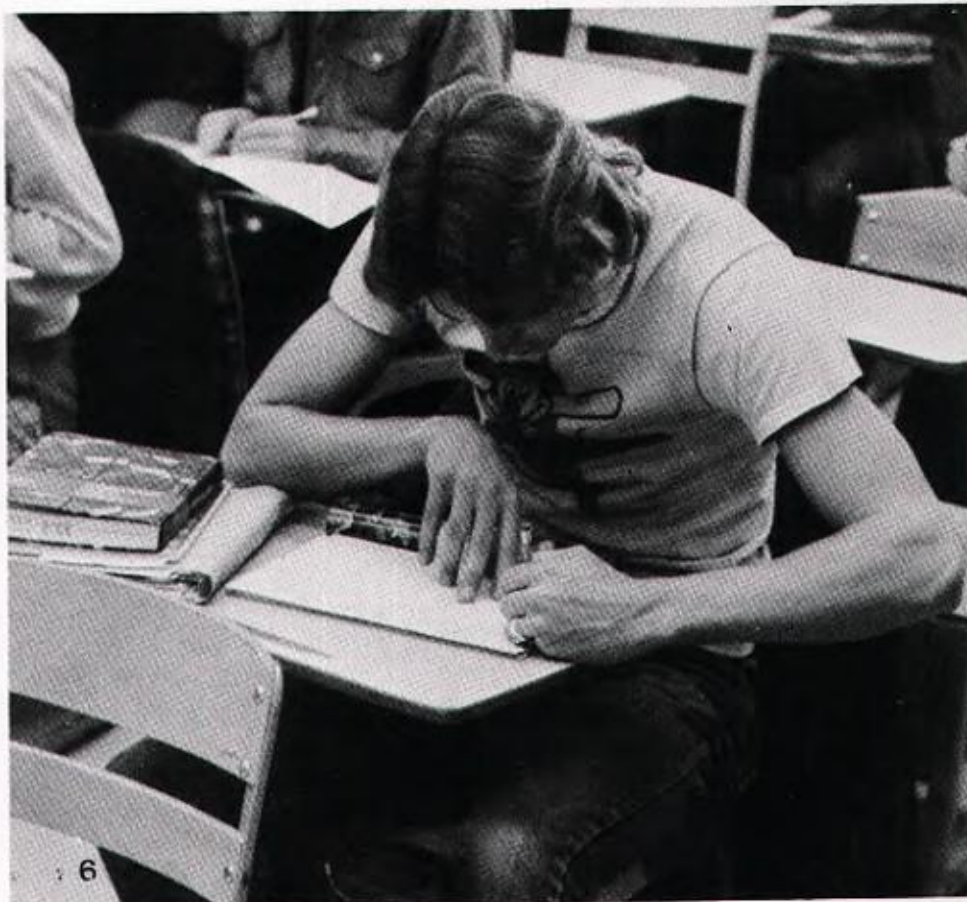

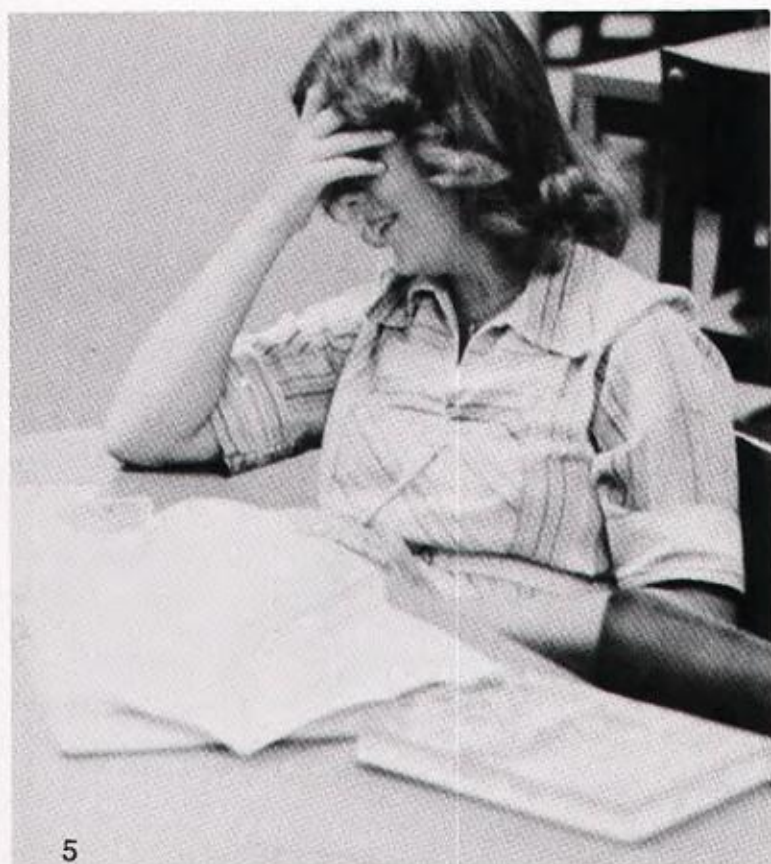

Remember that old song about "We'll remember always," . . . ? What will you remember about your senior year, about your three years at Valley High? Our real Viking mascot. Suffering through Murph's finals. Chemistry (argh!). Vi-Queen tryouts. Staying up half the night to decorate the gym for Homecoming. Our No. 1 basketball team. Parties. The parking lot. Being scared to death your sophomore year and being thankful that Beanie Week was no more. Then, how sad it was that we still couldn't have Beanie Week when the sophomores came this year. The parking lot. McDonald's. Working on weekends, holidays, and after school on Saga and Legend. Ms. Ball screaming and being rude. The parking lot. Ruthie Leyba's singing debut at the Homecoming tryouts. The smell of popcorn and unwashed bodies crammed in the gym for home games. The "pit" at the State Basketball Tournament. The parking lot. Collecting a record amount of money for our ugly man, Randy Longenbaugh. Learning to "party hardy!" Mad Matt Hoffman as Theodore Roosevelt in "Arsenic Old Lace."

Our seniors were a multi-talented group—busy, and, for the most part happy. We'll always remember Valley; it has been the center of a great deal of our lives for the past three years. We'll remember all the friends we made among our classmates, teachers, staff (even the "narcs"), and the juniors and sophomores. Even though we are no longer an active part of the school, it will remain a part of our lives.

1 - Victor Viking, Mike Lundstrum leads fans in cheer at the Bernalillo game. 2 - Gloria Romero answers questions in the first elimination round for Vi-Queen. 3 - Christy Bollschweiler practices guitar for her guitar, folk singing class. 4 - "I'd rather talk than study" is the attitude of Pam Buffington. 5 - Embarrassed perhaps at being caught studying, Kathy Wilson finds studies humiliating. 6 - Rip Drury struggles to finish his geometry homework. 7 - Clay Pryor takes a pretend "nip" during World History. 8 - Stephanie Zimmerman "mugs" for the camera during her English class. 9 - Diane Salazar and Pat Candelaria take a break while decorating the gym for Homecoming.

Saga Staff Thanks Ms. Ball for Four Years of Dedication

"Ms. Ball where's my layout?" "Ms. Ball have my pictures come in yet?" "Ms. Ball does this typewriter work?" Putting up with these questions, worrying about meeting deadlines, and having to worry about Legend staff, were just a few of the little tasks Ms. Ball managed to tackle. It can honestly be said that Ms. Ball devoted most of her time at school. During the year she sponsored Saga and Legend which meant working later hours after school, Saturdays and even during Christmas vacation. During the summer, Ms. Ball sponsored a trip to Europe. To top all this off Ms. Ball taught English.

Yet Ms. Ball has (barely) managed to keep some of her sanity, and we have dedicated these two pages to her since we could never have gotten along without her. Thanks Ms. Ball!

1- Ms. Ball discovers the fact that the Legend deadline and Saga deadline will occur simultaneously. 2- Taking advantage of a little free time, Ms. Ball gives the Saga class one of her favorite expressions. 3- Searching for yet another lost negative is Ms. Ball. 4- While taking a small break during a hectic day, Ms. Ball ponders about the coming afternoon. 5- Ms. Ball explains to the Saga class the importance of getting a deadline finished on time. 6- Ms. Ball proofreads copy for B-team basketball. 7- Ms. Ball entertains her Saga class with her imitation of Judy Garland's "You Made Me Love You."

It only happens once; the moment comes and we know it will never return. We gave it our best to recall the memory, to capture the moments, and to reproduce them into a printed treasury.

As the editors, we could not accomplish this alone. The technicalities of our book were watched over by Bill Smith of Campus Specialties; Helen Thompson, in plant liaison; Bill and Nita Bell, Don Shultz and Jack Grimes of Bill Bell Studios.

Many teachers here at Valley were so very understanding with the staff, especially during deadlines. To these people we would like to express our sincere gratitude.

Much of the credit, however, goes to our staff. The 1977 Saga staff was not only a combination of talent, cooperation, and devotion, but also one of friendship and togetherness. Adviser Sharon Ball kept this unity going by her confidence and trust and mostly by her never-ending dedication to us and the book.

Much thanks goes to outstanding staff members such as Susi Miera, who helped design the cover, and Rhonda Phillips who drew all the layout designs.

A special thanks goes to the students of Valley High School, for you are the creators of the moments, for you are the memories.
